Udo Schaefer, 2007 There is a fundamental discrepancy between man as he is and man as he could be if only he recognized his true being and purpose Ethics is the discipline by which man can understand how he can pass from the first condition to the second Udo Schaefer's Bah Ethics in Light of Scripture is an attempt to analyse the underlying structures and detect the interior architecture of the Bah moral system and is a step towards developing a Bah moral theology Doctrinal Fundamentals the first of two volumes provides a historical overview of the Bah Faith a systematic survey of its doctrines and an overview of the origin and derivation of moral values It considers the metaphysical nature of human beings and human responsibilities looks at reason and conscience and explores liberty and its limits Schaefer's second volume deals with concrete values the virtues divine commandments and principles of social ethics from a Bah perspective

The Anatomy of

Ethical Leadership Lyse Langlois, 2011 Maximizing productivity without regard for human consequences the quest for profit above all else the stifling of individual personality and creative expression a competitive atmosphere these are the reigning features of the modern workplace Although many writers have called attention to the debilitating effects of this dehumanization of the working environment solutions have been less in evidence In The Anatomy of Ethical Leadership Lyse Langlois frames the problem in terms of ethics pointing to the fact that managers are often uncertain how to integrate ethical considerations into their process of decision making She explores the instrumental often highly legalistic patterns of thought that pervade modern organizations and proposes instead a new emphasis on dialogue and on modes of reasoning that make room for the complexity of ordinary reality To that end she outlines a trajectory for ethical responsible and authentic decision making the TERA model that managers

Eleven Paul Hanley, 2014-09-16 Eleven billion people will crowd this marvelous planet by century's end If the global economy were to grow five fold during this period as predicted humanity's ecological footprint would exceed Earth's biocapacity by 400% We need to chart a new course to the future The sweeping changes that make a full world work involving dual processes of destruction and reconstruction will transform global culture agriculture and ultimately the human race ELEVEN is a call to consciousness Only an ethical revolution will allow us to carry forward an ever advancing civilization Paul Hanley proposes a transformational model that will help individuals institutions and communities make an eleven billion world work for everyone and the planet Global Citizenship Education ,2008-01-01 The essays in this edited collection argue that global citizenship education realistically must be set against the imperfections of our contemporary political realities As a form of education it must actively engage in a critically informed way with a set of complex inherited historical issues that emerge out of a colonial past and the savage globalization which often perpetuates unequal power relations or cause new inequalities The essays in the book explore these issues and the emergent world ideologies of globalism as well as present territorial conflicts ethnic tribal and nationalist rivalries problems of increasing international migration and asylum growing regional imbalances and increasing world inequalities Contributors to this collection each on their own way argues that global citizenship education needs to project new values to reality test and debate the language concepts and theories of global citizenship and the proto world institutions that seek to give expression to nascent aspirations for international forms of social justice and citizen participation in world government Many of the contributors argue that global citizenship education offers the prospect of extending the liberal ideologies of human rights and multiculturalism and of developing a better understanding of forms of post colonialism One thing is sure as the essays presented in this book demonstrate so clearly there can be no one dominant notion of global citizenship education as notions of global citizenship and education are all contested and open to further argument and revision Global citizenship education does not name the moment of global citizenship or even its emergence so much as the hope of a form of order where the rights of the individual and of cultural groups irrespective of race gender ethnicity or creed are observed preserved and protected by all governments in order to become the basis of citizen participation in new global spaces that we might be tempted to call global civil society Close Connections John S. Hatcher,2005 Close Connections will appeal to anyone interested in spirituality and its link to everyday life For more than twenty five years John Hatcher has studied the nature and purpose of physical reality by exploring the theological and philosophical implications of the authoritative Baha i texts His latest book explains how the gap between physical and spiritual reality is routinely crossed and describes the profound implications that result from the interplay of both worlds The Bahá'í World ,2005 American Journal of Psychotherapy ,1947 Empowerment of Women--miles to Go ,2001 Contributed articles International Educator ,2004 Race and Religion in Early Nineteenth Century America, 1800-1850 Joseph R. Washington,1988 This volume examines certain 19th century ethicists commitment to solving the problems of slavery and racism by shipping the American born black population back to Africa Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 The Slovak Economy and EU Membership Bruno S.
