Ford,2020-06-23 Chad Ford reminds us that humanity lies within all of us and although conflict is everywhere in today s world we have the tools we need to overcome obstacles and to thrive This is a fantastic timely book that I highly recommend Steve Kerr Head Coach Golden State Warriors Knowing how to transform conflict is critical in both our personal and professional lives Yet by and large we are terrible at it The reason says longtime mediator Chad Ford is fear When conflict comes our instincts are to run or fight To transform conflict Ford says we need to turn toward the people we are in conflict with put down our physical and emotional weapons and really love them with the kind of love that leads us to treat others as fellow human beings not as objects in our way We have to open ourselves up with no guarantee that anyone on the other side will do the same While this can feel even more dangerous than conflict itself it allows us to see the humanity of others so clearly that their needs and desires matter to us as much as our own Ford shows dangerous love in action through examples ranging from his work in the Middle East to a deeply moving story about reconciling with his father He explains why we disconnect from people at the very time we need to be most connected and the predictable patterns of justification and escalation that ensue Most importantly he gives us a path to practice dangerous love in the conflicts that matter most to us

Why Does God Seem So Hidden? Joshua C. Waltman,2023-04-06 Why does God seem so hidden obscure and silent Why doesn t he make himself known in a more explicit way to those who dispute his existence This line of questioning presents a perplexing conundrum for Christian theologians On the one hand Christians affirm that God s revelation of himself is sufficient but on the other hand it appears that some genuine seekers remain unconvinced of his existence In recent decades philosopher J L Schellenberg has proposed an argument for atheism that attempts to exploit this apparent contradiction This book offers a new take by approaching the conversation using a Trinitarian theological lens The character of Trinitarian love shapes the way God communicates in pursuit of relationships Namely God desires spiritually oriented communal divine human relationships and this endeavor necessarily entails hiddenness This work proposes five spiritual criteria that an individual must meet to be open to having a relationship with the triune God and these are the criteria that atheists have failed to consider Articulating these five is exactly what is needed to resolve the vexing theological puzzle of divine hiddenness
