Victorian era to the present day The Magician Colm Toibin, 2021 The Magician opens at the turn of the twentieth century in a provincial German city where the young boy Thomas Mann grows up with a conservative conventional father and a Brazilian mother exotic and unpredictable who will never fit in He hides both his artistic aspirations and his homosexual desires from this father and his sexuality from everyone He longs for the charismatic beautiful rich cultured young Jewish man but marries his twin sister He longs for a boy he sees on a beach in Venice and writes a novel about him He has six children He is the most successful novelist of his time He wins the Nobel Prize and is expected to lead the condemnation of Hitler His oldest daughter and son share lovers They are leaders of Bohemianism and of the anti Nazi movement This stunning combination of German propriety and Bohemian revolution goes hand in hand for decades We see the rise of Hitler the forced exile of a swath of German writers and artists Mann's narrow escape to America his sojourn at Princeton along with fellow exile Einstein and his final move to LA in the late 40s where he presided over an astonishing community of writers artists and musicians including Brecht and Schoenberg even as his children court tragedy To call this a portrait of an artist is both reductive and true it is a novel about a character and a family fiercely engaged by the world profoundly flawed and as flamboyant as it's possible to be The Novel Michael Schmidt, 2014-05-12 With contributions from Great Britain Ireland America Canada Australia India and Southern Africa influenced by great novelists working in other languages and encompassing a range of genres the story of the novel in English unfolds like a richly varied landscape that invites exploration rather than a linear journey Elizabeth Bishop Linda Anderson, 2013-08-20 Linda Anderson explores Elizabeth Bishop's poetry from her early days at Vassar College to her last great poems in Geography III and the later uncollected poems Drawing generously on Bishop's notebooks and letters the book situates Bishop both in her historical and cultural context and in terms of her own writing process where the years between beginning a poem and completing it for which Bishop is legendary are seen as a necessary part of their composition The book begins by offering a new reading of Bishop's relationship with Marianne Moore and with modernism Through her journeys to Europe Bishop it is also argued learned a great deal from visual artists and from surrealism However the book also follows the way Bishop came back to memories of her childhood developing ideas about narrative in order to explore time both the losses it demands and the connections it makes possible The lines of connections are both those between Bishop and her contemporaries and her context and those she inscribed through her own work suggesting how her poems incorporate a process of arrival and create new possibilities of meaning Reading the Contemporary Author Alison Gibbons, Elizabeth King, 2023-12 Readers literary critics and theorists alike have long demonstrated an abiding fascination with the author both as a real person an artist and creator and as a theoretical concept that shapes the way we read literary works Whether anonymous pseudonymous or trending on social media authors continue to be an object of critical and readerly interest Yet theories surrounding authorship have yet to be satisfactorily updated to register the changes wrought on the literary sphere by the advent of the digital age the recent turn to autofiction and the current literary climate more generally In Reading the Contemporary Author the contributors look back on the long history of theorizing the author and offer innovative new approaches for understanding this elusive figure Mapping the contours of the vast territory that is contemporary authorship this collection investigates authorship in the context of narrative genres ranging from memoir and autobiographically informed texts to biofiction and novels featuring novelist narrators and characters Bringing together the perspectives of leading scholars in narratology cultural theory literary criticism stylistics comparative literature and autobiography studies Reading the Contemporary Author demonstrates that a variety of interdisciplinary viewpoints and critical stances are necessary to capture the multifaceted nature of contemporary authorship

Art and Memory in the Work of Elizabeth Bishop Jonathan Ellis, 2018-01-17 In Art and Memory in the Work of Elizabeth Bishop Jonathan Ellis offers evidence for a redirection in Bishop studies toward a more thorough scrutiny of the links between Bishop's art and life The book is less concerned with the details of what actually happened to Bishop than with the ways in which she refracted key events into writing both personal unpublished material as well as stories poems and paintings Thus Ellis challenges Bishop s reputation as either a strictly impersonal or personal writer and repositions her poetry between the Modernists on the one hand and the Confessionals on the other Although Elizabeth Bishop was born and died in Massachusetts she lived a life more bohemian and varied than that of almost all of her contemporaries a fact masked by the tendency of biographers and critics to focus on Bishop s life in the United States Drawing on published works and unpublished material overlooked by many critics Ellis gives equal attention to the influence of Bishop s Canadian upbringing on her art and to the shifts in her aesthetic and personal tastes that took place during Bishop s residence in Brazil during the 1950s and 1960s By bringing together the whole of Bishop s work this book opens a welcome new direction in Bishop studies specifically and in the study of women poets generally

The Body in Pain in Irish Literature and Culture
