Love Object:

Gaze and Voice as Love Objects Renata Salecl, Slavoj Žižek, 1996 Book examines relationship between love gaze and the sexes

The Intercourse of Knowledge Athalya Brenner, 1997 This groundbreaking book which builds on the author's earlier work in On Gendering Texts studies how by what means and to what extent human love desire and sex and possibly even sexuality are gendered in the Hebrew Bible Following a classification and gendering of the linguistic and semantic data the investigation looks into the construction of male and female bodies in language and ideologies the praxis and ideology of sex procreation and contraception deviation from socio sexual boundaries e.g. incest rape adultery homosexuality prostitution eroticism and pornoprophetics Finally the work discusses some of the wider sociological and theological implications of the findings

Edgework Wendy Brown, 2005-12-11 Edgework brings together seven of Wendy Brown's recent essays in political cultural and feminist theory They range from explorations of the post 9/11 political landscape to critiques of the norms in the fields of political theory and feminist studies

A Child's Parent Dies Erna Furman, 1974-01-01 This study of twenty three children who suffered the death of a parent during childhood seeks to understand the psychological impact of bereavement on the young and to offer concrete suggestions for helping children cope with their loss

Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Virtual Intimacy and Communication in Film Andrea Sabbadini, Ilany Kogan, Paola Golinelli, 2018-09-03 Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Virtual Intimacy and Communication in Film brings together a group of psychoanalysts to explore through film the new forms of communication mainly the internet that enter more and more frequently into the affective lives of people their intimacy and even the analytic room The contributors all practising psychoanalysts analyse the potential and surprising transformations that human relationships including psychoanalysis are undergoing At present it is difficult to value the future importance and predict the possible disquieting consequences of the use and abuse of the new technologies we run the risk of finding ourselves unprepared to face this revolutionary transformation in human connections and affects Will it be possible in a near future that human beings prefer to fall in love with a machine gifted with a persuasive voice instead of a psychoanalyst in person The contributors explore the idea that virtual intimacy could begin to replace real life in sentimental and psychoanalytic relationships Imagination and fantasy may be strengthened and may ultimately prevail over the body excluding it entirely Can the voice of the analyst sometimes transmitted only by telephone or computer produce a good enough analytic process as if it were in person or will it help to foster a process of idealisation and progressive alienation from real life and connections with other human beings The film Her 2013 alongside others offers a wonderful script for discussing this matter because of the deep and thoughtful examination of love and relationships in the contemporary world that it provides Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Virtual Intimacy and Communication in Film will be of great interest to all psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists interested in the ongoing impact of technology on human relationships

The Human Manifesto Vincent L. Scarsella, 2009 The Human Manifesto is the ultimate self help book In it you will learn why you and your fellow man do the things you do that cultures offer hero systems enabling their members to construct life immortality elusions or LIES that allow them to confront and repress the stark reality of death You will also learn how a culture can be established that motivates human beings to act in ways that improve the quality of life for their fellow man enhance the prospect of eternal survival or the human species and reach a better if not complete comprehension of the true nature of God and the Cosmos Based on the writings of Ernest Becker especially his 1974 Pulitzer Prize winning The Denial of Death The Human Manifesto promotes the establishment of a revolutionary cultural system the Genuine Hero System that can both satisfy the personal psychological need to repress the stark reality of death while also resulting in a peaceful enlightened and advanced society The Human Manifesto argues that unless such a system is adopted the human species will continue to be motivated to destructive or trivial behavior that falls far short in enabling individuals to attain genuine happiness and fulfillment Indeed unless the radical changes it espouses are realized the species will fail to reach its highest spiritual intellectual and technological potential Humanity will never reach the stars and worse as Becker feared will be doomed to extinction

Movement and Institution Francesco Alberoni, 1984 Situation Comedy, Character, and Psychoanalysis D.T. Klika, 2018-01-25 Situation Comedy Character and Psychoanalysis puts the sitcom character on the analyst s couch and closely examines the characters of Basil Fawlty Lucy Ricardo and Kim from Australia s Kath Kim in order to reveal the essential elements that must exist in a sitcom before even the first joke is written Original in its approach D T Klika uncovers major findings about the sitcom as well as human behavior and relationships that we find arresting and even familial By offering a new way of reading the sitcom using psychoanalytic theory this book can be used as a basis for engaging in critical discourses as well as textual analysis of programs Psychoanalytic theory enables a reading of character motivations and relationships in turn elucidating the power struggle that exists between characters in this form of comedy Situation Comedy Character and Psychoanalysis shines a light on what is at play in the sitcom that makes us laugh and why we love the characters we do only to discover that this form of comedy is more complex than we first thought

The Concept of Woman Prudence Allen, 1997 The culmination of a lifetime's scholarly work this pioneering study by Sister Prudence Allen traces the concept of woman in relation to man in Western thought from ancient times to the present Volume I uncovers four general categories of questions asked by philosophers for two thousand years These are the categories of opposites of generation of wisdom and of virtue Sister Prudence Allen traces several recurring strands of sexual and gender identity within this period Ultimately she shows the paradoxical influence of Aristotle on the question of woman and on a philosophical understanding of sexual complementarity Supplemented throughout with helpful charts diagrams and illustrations this volume will be an important resource for scholars and students in the fields of women's studies philosophy history theology literary studies and political science In Volume 2 Sister Prudence Allen explores claims about sex and gender identity in the works of over fifty philosophers both men and women in the late medieval and early Renaissance periods Touching on the thought of every philosopher who considered sex or gender identity between A D 1250 and 1500 The Concept of Woman provides the analytical categories necessary for situating contemporary discussion of women in relation to men Adding to the accessibility of this fine discussion are informative illustrations helpful summary charts and extracts of original source material some not previously available in English In her third and final volume Allen covers the years 1500 2015 continuing her chronological approach to individual authors and also offering systematic arguments to defend certain philosophical positions over against others

Imperfect Garden Tzvetan Todorov, 2009-02-09 Available in English for the first time Imperfect Garden is both an approachable intellectual history and a bracing treatise on how we should understand and experience our lives In it one of France's most prominent intellectuals explores the foundations limits and possibilities of humanist thinking Through his critical but sympathetic excavation of humanism Tzvetan Todorov seeks an answer to modernity's fundamental challenge how to maintain our hard won liberty without paying too dearly in social ties common values and a coherent and responsible sense of self Todorov reads afresh the works of major humanists primarily Montaigne Rousseau and Constant but also Descartes Montesquieu and Toqueville Each chapter considers humanism's approach to one major theme of human existence liberty social life love self morality and expression Discussing humanism in dialogue with other systems Todorov finds a response to the predicament of modernity that is far more instructive than any offered by conservatism scientific determinism existential individualism or humanism's other contemporary competitors Humanism suggests that we are members of an intelligent and sociable species who can act according to our will while connecting the well being of other members with our own It is through this understanding of free will Todorov argues that we can use humanism to rescue universality and reconcile human liberty with solidarity and personal integrity Placing the history of ideas at the service of a quest for moral and political wisdom Todorov's compelling and no doubt controversial rethinking of humanist ideas testifies to the enduring capacity of those ideas to meditate on and if we are fortunate cultivate the imperfect garden in which we live
