Love

Hurt

Pain and tears

I feel inside now

And have for awhile

These feelings are tearing me apart

Like a weight on my shoulders

It's dragging me further down

The look in my eyes

Anyone can see,

so many people ask

And as always I cover it up

With, I am fine

experience of black youth in societies polarized by racism inequality and gender violence whilst at the same time struggling to come to terms with love sex and all the other basic needs of young people makes for fascinating reading The inventive graphic layout is a fine addition to a stand out volume Home is Where the Mic Is was conceived as a collaboration with Word n Sound a popular Johannesburg Spoken Word platform The intention was to give hitherto only stage poets an opportunity to test their work on the page and confound the Eurocentric critics of the new wave of performance poetry who decry its energy and breaking down of artificial definitions of poetry This is South African poetry standing on it s own two feet

Reading Illegitimacy in Early Iberian Literature Geraldine Hazbun,2020-11-12 Reading Illegitimacy in Early Iberian Literature presents illegitimacy as a fluid creative and negotiable concept in early literature which challenges society s definition of what is acceptable Through the medieval epic poems Cantar de Mio Cid and Mocedades de Rodrigo the ballad tradition Cervantes s Novelas ejemplares and Lope de Vega s theatre Geraldine Hazbun demonstrates that illegitimacy and legitimacy are interconnected and flexible categories defined in relation to marriage sex bodies ethnicity religion lineage and legacy Both categories are subject to the uncertainties and freedoms of language and fiction and frequently constructed around axes of quantity and completeness These literary texts covering a range of illegitimate figures some with an historical basis demonstrate that truth propriety and standards of behaviour are not forged in the law code or the pulpit but in literature s fluid system of producing meaning
