Mannerism The Painting Style Of The La:

The Late Mannerists in Athenian Vase-painting Thomas Mannack, 2001 The Late Mannerists were Athenian vase painters working in the fifth century BC They specialized in shapes used during the symposium and had a particular flair for story telling Their unusual style of painting combines elements of the Late Archaic period with characteristics of the Classical period This is a richly illustrated study of the workshop Painting in Italy, 1500-1600 Sydney Joseph Freedberg, 1993-01-01 Art declared Vasari in Lives of the Artists has been reborn and reached perfection in our time Indeed the roster of great names in painting of the Cinquecento which only begins with those of Leonardo Michelangelo and Raphael appears to justify this grand claim Professor Freedberg here discusses the individual painters and analyses the hallmarks of their work He traces the classical style of the High Renaissance the Mannerism that succeeded it and the events in North Italy especially that resist stylistic categories He has given order to this diversity but at the same time has preserved the intense individuality of the works of art The Portrait of Eccentricity: Arcimboldo and the Mannerist Grotesque, 1991

The Science of Culture and the Phenomenology of Styles Renato Barilli, 2012-11-01 In The Science of Culture and the Phenomenology of Styles Renato Barilli examines the history of artistic style in relation to scientific discovery Applying an innovative analysis he illustrates the subtle yet intrinsic connection between paradigm shifts in the sciences and in the arts Barilli argues that there are homologies or equivalences between specific discoveries or inventions and revolutionary advances in artistic techniques He draws upon the pioneering work of Lucien Goldman who provides the fundamental definition of homology as well as the theories of Luciano Anceschi and Marshall McLuhan in order to reassess conventional modes of dividing art history into such periods as modern contemporary and postmodern By correlating moments like the invention of the printing press and the internal combustion engine with canonical periods in the evolution of art Barilli unearths conceptual links across domains and disciplines An insightful reflection on the historic perspectives of cultural production The Science of Culture and the Phenomenology of Styles sheds new light on the relationship between visual culture art and language Styles of Enlightenment Elena Russo, 2007-01-19 Styles of Enlightenment argues that alongside its democratic ideals and its efforts to create a unified public sphere the Enlightenment also displayed a tendency to erect rigid barriers when it came to matters of style and artistic expression The French philosophes tackled the issue of the hierarchy of genres with surprising inflexibility and they looked down on those forms of art that they saw as commercial popular and merely entertaining They were convinced that the standard of taste was too important a matter to be left to the whims of the public and the vagaries of the marketplace aesthetic judgment ought to belong to a few enlightened minds who would then pass it on to the masses Through readings of fictions essays memoirs eulogies and theatrical works by F. de Fénelon, Bouhours, Marivaux, Montesquieu, Voltaire, Diderot, Rousseau, Mercier, Thomas and others Styles of Enlightenment traces the stages of a confrontation between the virile philosophe and the effeminate worldly writer good and bad taste high art and frivolous entertainment state patronage and the privately sponsored marketplace the academic eulogy and worldly conversation It teases out the finer points of division on the public battlefields of literature and politics and the new world of contesting sexual economies

Benjamin, Deleuze and the Baroque Noa Levin, 2025-02-06 For Walter Benjamin and Gilles Deleuze who both authored seminal theoretical works on early cinema and photography the history of modern media begins much earlier in Baroque culture and science Benjamin Deleuze and the Baroque argues that their media theories were informed by their respective readings of the philosophy and mathematics of G W Leibniz and the Baroque can thus be seen as the locus of modern media By critically comparing Benjamin and Deleuze s interpretations of the Baroque Levin demonstrates the extent to which their theories of visual culture are intertwined with critiques of Enlightenment historiography and politics Using a hermeneutic comparative approach this book argues that the juxtaposition of Benjamin s reception of Leibniz with Deleuze s highlights the extent to which both authors theories of image and media were informed by Leibniz s concepts of expression and perspectivism themselves inspired by ground breaking evolutions in optics and perspective Providing close readings of Deleuze s The Fold and Benjamin s Origin of the German Trauerspiel which remain understudied in the English language it explores how in their dual roles of philosopher and cultural critic the pair may illuminate our own age of multiple crises through the Baroque

Mannerism and Baroque in Seventeenth-century French Poetry James Crenshaw Shepard, 2001 This book examines mannerism and baroque in the poetry of Tristan L Hermite a leading lyric poet of the seventeenth century After presenting a history of scholarship on both the mannerist and baroque styles James Shepard offers a definition of each as it applies to seventeenth century lyric poetry He then turns to Tristan s works examining the poems contained in the Plaintes d Acante et autres ouvrages Les Amours La Lyre and the Vers heroiques his religious poetry La Renomme and his recently discovered poems Shepard reveals Tristan s amatory poetry to be mannerist and his heroic and religious poetry to be baroque Many poems however contain elements of both styles This supports Frank J Warnke s theory that Baroque is the period style with mannerism and baroque being two aspects of the period Shepard also uncovers a baroque dompte style the toned down baroque that Helmut Hatzfeld and others argue characterized French classicism in some of Tristan s heroic and religious poetry

Hearing the Motet Dolores Pesce, 1998-12-10 The motet was unquestionably one of the most important vocal genres from its inception in late twelfth century Paris through the Counter Reformation and beyond Heard in both sacred and secular contexts the motet of the Middle Ages and Renaissance incorporated a striking wealth of meaning its verbal textures dense with literary social philosophic and religious reference In Hearing the Motet top scholars in the field provide the fullest picture yet of the motet s music poetic nature investigating the virtuosic interplay of music and text that distinguished some of the genre s finest work and reading individual motets and motet repertoires in ways that illuminate their historical and cultural backgrounds How were motets heard in their own time Did the same motet mean different things to different audiences To explore these questions the contributors go beyond traditional musicological methods at times invoking approaches used in recent literary criticism Providing as well a cutting edge look at performance questions and works by composers such as Josquin Willaert Obrecht Byrd and Palestrina the book draws a valuable new portrait of the motet composer Here intriguingly the motet composer emerges as a reader of the surrounding culture a musician who knew liturgical practice as well as biblical literature and its exegetical traditions who moved in social contexts such as humanist gatherings who understood numerical symbolism and classical allusion who wrote subtle memorie for patrons and who found musical models to emulate and distort Fresh broad ranging and unique Hearing the Motet makes vital reading for scholars performers and students of medieval and Renaissance music and anyone else with an interest in the musical culture of these periods Contributors include Rebecca A Baltzer Margaret Bent M Jennifer Bloxam David Crook James Haar Paula Higgins Joseph Kerman Patrick Macey Craig Monson Robert Nosow Jessie Ann Owens Dolores Pesce Joshua Rifkin Anne Walters Robertson Richard Sherr and Rob C Wegman
