J. Butler, 2020-05-11 In biblical times culture was all about patriarchs A person's ancestors were identified by the fathers marriages were arranged when girls were twelve years old and when they became women they were rarely seen They only had worth if they were married and a mother In this study you will learn how the stories of biblical women relate to us today The author highlights prostitutes a ditched daughter in law widows a few adulteresses a set of sisters and even an unwed pregnant teenage girl All of the women have one thing in common Jesus By reading their stories you will learn why as believers it is imperative to remember that God extends grace to all Each of the women also show why it is so important to internalize our beliefs and make them our own through action While this study isn't likely to answer all your questions the stories reveal the glory of God through His redemption and kindness Mary's Lament Joseph C. explore this transformative time in our religious history to discover a deeper meaning of faith through imagining real persons caught up in this division of faith between two groups of people devoted to the same God and agreeing that righteousness was the way to honor him The Mother's Legacy of Mother Love, Bright Hopes and Cherished Memories D. Mary Atkins, 1897 Story as History - History as Story Samuel Byrskog, 2022-03-16 Please note that this title is only available to customers in the USA Canada and Mexico NO salesrights for Rest of World Samuel Byrskog employs models from the interdisciplinary field of oral history as presented by Paul Thompson coupled with insights from cultural anthropology in order to examine the interaction between the present and the past as the gospel tradition evolved The ancient Greek and Roman historians with their use of eyewitness testimony as sources to the past and as central elements in interpretive and narrativizing processes of the present serve as the basis for unraveling culture specific patterns of oral history and thus for conceptualizing similar aspects during the development of the gospel tradition Eyewitness testimonies played a central but varying role in early Christianity They were transmitted in the matrix of discipleship where verbal and behavioral traditions were passed on through acts of mimesis The folkloristic notion of re oralization explains how oral accounts regularly interacted with written texts indicating a vivid and engaged relationship to the past as well as the semantic significance of oral communication and performance Factual truth was essential but inseparable from interpreted truth during the course of investigation transmission and composition The gospel tradition developed through a subtle interaction between the unique historic events of the past and the various circumstances of the present The narrative and historical dimensions of a text cannot be separated because the semantic codes of a text are often located in the culture and not in the text itself The gospels are therefore the synthesis of history and story intertwining the horizons of the past and of the present in their own right The Publishers Weekly, 1987 Remember Who You Are Robert R. Dunford, 2005 Love Clayton Dunford was born in 1913 in Logan Utah His parents were Carlos LeRoy Dunford and Eleanor Hazel Love He married Elizabeth Bitner daughter of Moroni Roy Halseth Bitner and Irma May Felt in 1936 in Salt Lake City Utah They had nine children Holy Ghost Power Patricia Doctor-Lott, 2022-04-27 Back Page Understanding what the Holy Spirit does in one's life is compelling Having the gift of the Holy Spirit marks one as belonging to the Most High The Holy Spirit is Christ living within us thus giving us power to live transformed holy and righteous lives Eyes have not seen and ears have not heard the things the Church can do if they'd use the Holy Ghost's power collectively Apostle John shares a riveting story of events leading up to coming of the Holy Spirit and his dynamic and powerful entrance into the hearts of those who believed The apostle tells how it was the plan of God to manifest Christ in believers through the power of his resurrection John traces the power and moving of the Holy Spirit in his own life how he was born in sin and thus subjected to its power and that he needed a greater power to release him from the prison of sin He leads us to the Roman Empire who dared to say that they are all powerful with reigning authority over all land and humanity with its deified Caesars serving as gods The display of God's sovereignty proved that the Holy Ghost's power supersedes the false power of Rome and its Caesars The footsteps of Jesus rumble across the pages as John reminds his audience of Jesus's departure as comforter and how another Comforter would come and continue the work of salvation So profound is this plan of eternal salvation the saints' awesome inspired testimonies poured from their hearts with such warmth and gladness Apostle John journeys to Pentecost to speak of the great advent of the Holy Ghost as promised by Jesus Cloven tongues like fire entered an Upper Room and sealed all the believers with the presence of Jesus in the form of the Holy Spirit The Holy Spirit's power was demonstrated in such a way that it left no doubt that this he that is was and who was to come The Power did not tarry in his coming and his presence forever He deals with the Holy Ghost's working in the lives of the chosen and within the body of Christ with such force and power Finally John reminisces on the attributes of the person of the Spirit and how he is one with the Father and the Son Paperbound Books in Print, 1992
