Aye of The Tiger Jorah Kai, 2023-02-01 LIFE IS ABSURD ALL ROADS LEAD TO DEATH HOW DOES ONE LIVE A GOOD LIFE The pandemic rages on but the world has changed the channel Society has inoculated the working class by normalizing dying of COVID Millions develop long lasting neurological damage and disabilities and immune systems battered by SARS-COV2 are now hosting opportunistic infections that keep healthcare systems beleaguered and overwhelmed To put it very simply the young party and the old die In China Zero COVID has maintained strict lockdowns and quarantine procedures for years but as the variants mutate to become more and more infectious the lockdowns grow longer and more tedious Something has got to give And one night with little warning it does leaving many to wonder WHAT IS THE POINT OF ANY OF IT IS THERE MEANING TO THE ABSURDITY OF EXISTENCE WHY AM I HERE ANYWAY and many other serious questions In his third year of pandemic jail Jorah Kai ponders the absurdity of this thing called life mortality legacy and the search for meaning and purpose He wishes he were a skilled poet it would fit his chosen image perfectly the poor tragic tortured artiste But he has no talent for words neither for paints nor music his uselessness is tremendously total Curtis Ackie Goldfish Tears But perhaps the great work of art has less importance in itself than in the ordeal it demands of a man and the opportunity it provides him of overcoming his phantoms and approaching a little closer to his naked reality Albert Camus Life belongs to those who can somehow make a sick joke out of it all Sylvester Stallone Ecodocumentaries Rayson K. Alex, S. Susan Deborah, 2016-11-15 This book features ten critical essays on ecodocumentaries written by eminent scholars from India USA Ireland Finland and Turkey in the area of ecocinema studies Situating social documentaries with explicit ecological form and content the volume takes relational positions on political cultural and conservational aspects of natures and cultures in various cultural contexts Documentaries themed around issues such as electronic waste animal rights land ethics pollution of river land grabbing development and exotic plants are some of the topics ecocritiqued in this volume The Last "Darky" Louis Chude-Sokei, 2006-01-16 Examines the use of Africa as a figure in the Harlem Renaissance and looks at the place of that movement within a wider Black modernism The Great Refusal Andrew Lamas, Todd Wolfson, Peter N. Funke, 2017-01-23 Herbert Marcuse examined the subjective and material conditions of radical social change and developed the Great Refusal a radical concept of the protest against that which is The editors and contributors to the exciting new volume The Great Refusal provide an analysis of contemporary social movements around the world with particular reference to Marcuse's revolutionary concept The book also engages and puts Marcuse in critical dialogue with major theorists including Slavoj Žižek and Michel Foucault among others The chapters in this book analyze different elements and locations of the contemporary wave of struggle drawing on the work and vision of Marcuse in order to reveal with a historical perspective the present moment of resistance Essays seek to understand recent uprisings such as the Zapatistas in Mexico the Arab Spring and the Occupy movement in the context of Marcuse's powerful conceptual apparatus The Great Refusal also charts contemporary social movements against global warming mass incarceration police brutality white supremacy militarization technological development and more to provide insights that advance our understanding of resistance today Contributors include Kevin B. Anderson Stanley Aronowitz Joan Braune Jenny Chan Angela Y. Davis Arnold L. Farr Andrew Feenberg Michael Forman Christian Fuchs Stefan Gandler Christian Garland Toorjo Ghose Imaculada Kangussu George Katsiaficas Douglas Kellner Sarah Lynn Kleeb Filip Kovacevic Lauren Langman Heather Love Peter Marcuse Martin J. Beck Matute Russell Rockwell AK Thompson Marcelo Vieta and the editors Comrades in Arms Tom Smith, 2020-02-03 Without question the East German National People's Army was a profoundly masculine institution that emphasized traditional ideals of stoicism sacrifice and physical courage Nonetheless as this innovative study demonstrates depictions of the military in the film and literature of the GDR were far more nuanced and ambivalent Departing from past studies that have found in such portrayals an unchanging idealized masculinity Comrades in Arms shows how cultural works both before and after reunification place violence physical vulnerability and military theatricality as well as conscripts powerful emotions and desires at the center of soldiers lives and the military institution itself Masks of the Spirit Peter T. Markman,Roberta H. Markman,1989-01-01 Drawing on secondary works in archaeology art history folklore ethnohistory ethnography and literature the authors maintain that the mask is the central metaphor for the Mesoamerican concept of spiritual reality Covers the long history of the use of the ritual mask by the peoples who created and developed the mythological tradition of Mesoamerica Chapters 1 the metaphor of the mask in Pre Columbian Mesoamerica the mask as the God in ritual and as metaphor II metaphoric reflections of the cosmic order and III the metaphor of the mask after the conquest syncretism the Pre Columbian survivals the syncretic compromise and today s masks Over 100 color and black white photos The Making of a Pandemic John Ehrenreich,2022-05-30 The Making of a Pandemic provides a systematic account of how societal and psychological forces shaped the Covid 19 pandemic The first part focuses on how biological and societal factors interact to create a pandemic The second part explores how characteristics of the American economy the American approach to public health and domestic and international inequality combined to prolong the pandemic hamper mitigation efforts and arouse opposition to cooperation with public health measures The third part examines the psychological processes that led to resistance to efforts to mitigate the pandemic and linked the resistance to right wing ideologies The book concludes by looking at the limits of the technical and medical reforms others have proposed to protect us from repetitions of the Covid 19 disaster and by calling for a deep confrontation with the societal and psychological factors that created and shaped the pandemic Third Annual Report of the Bureau of Ethnology to the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution J.W. Powell,1884 African Masks and Emotions Z. S. Strother,2025-12-23 In this groundbreaking book Z S Strother inspired by dialogues with African masquerade patrons and performers disputes assumptions that masks universally hide reveal or transform In Western European languages the word mask exerts a powerful presence as a figure of speech To masquerade is to pretend to be someone or something one is not By extension unmasking is a heroic metaphor for exposing a hidden truth In this volume art historian Z S Strother counters that narrative using African case studies to offer an alternative vision of masquerading She explores the aesthetic emotions aroused by masks or more precisely by dances of masks joy wonder awe fear and the release of laughing out loud She also investigates the uncanny a sensation of delicious shiveriness triggered when familiar spaces and individuals become strange and changeable Inspired by Strother s studies in DR Congo African Masks and Emotions takes a comparative perspective and moves emotion from the periphery to the center of analysis Annual Report of the Bureau of American Ethnology to the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution Smithsonian Institution,1884 Child Sexual Abuse: Empirical Research on Understanding and Helping Victims and Offenders Noora Ellonen,Robert Horselenberg,Cristina Izura,Taina Laajasalo,Nadia Marie Wager,2022-03-11 The War on the Social Factory Annie Paradise,2024-04-15 A collective ethnography of grassroots mobilizations for community safety across the Silicon Valley This is a narrative of struggle and solidarity and a collective toolkit for grassroots opposition to militarization policing and ongoing conditions of war in the current conjuncture of racial patriarchal capitalism Grassroots researcher Annie Paradise presents here a collective ethnography of the mothers and community matriarchs whose children have been murdered by police across the San Francisco Bay Area as they develop and practice autonomous creative forms of resistance The War on the Social Factory The Struggle for Community Safety in the Silicon Valley maps local families struggles to reclaim their households and their communities to create a social infrastructure of care justice and safety outside state and market determined modes of security Practices such as sustained vigil testimony and the production and circulation of insurgent knowledges are shown here to be part of interconnected justice efforts to demilitarize and decarcerate communities in the face of the multiple forms of violence enacted under late racial patriarchal capitalism Paradise examines the expanding carceral processes of enclosure criminalization dispossession expropriation and disposability that mark the neoliberal security regime across the Silicon Valley and offers counter counterinsurgent strategies and practices of co generative dynamic resistance

Empire of Conspiracy Timothy Melley, 2016-12-01 Why Timothy Melley asks have paranoia and conspiracy theory become such prominent features of postwar American culture In Empire of Conspiracy Melley explores the recent growth of anxieties about thought control assassination political indoctrination stalking surveillance and corporate and government plots At the heart of these developments he believes lies a widespread sense of crisis in the way Americans think about human autonomy and individuality Nothing reveals this crisis more than the remarkably consistent form of expression that Melley calls agency panic an intense fear that individuals can be shaped or controlled by powerful external forces Drawing on a broad range of forms that manifest this fear including fiction film television sociology political writing self help literature and cultural theory Melley provides a new understanding of the relation between postwar American literature popular culture and cultural theory Empire of Conspiracy offers insightful new readings of texts ranging from Joseph Heller s Catch 22 to the Unabomber Manifesto from Vance Packard s Hidden Persuaders to recent addiction discourse and from the stalker novels of Margaret Atwood and Diane Johnson to the conspiracy fictions of Thomas Pynchon William Burroughs Don DeLillo and Kathy Acker Throughout Melley finds recurrent anxieties about the power of large organizations to control human beings These fears he contends indicate the continuing appeal of a form of individualism that is no longer wholly accurate or useful but that still underpins a national fantasy of freedom from social control

Scarred Landscapes Stephanie Lewthwaite, 2025-09-30 Scarred Landscapes is a groundbreaking exploration of the rich and complex works of Caribbean Latinx artists Scholar Stephanie Lewthwaite documents the work of ten influential artists of Cuban Dominican and Puerto Rican descent based in New York City from the 1970s to the present Through their diverse practices including painting printmaking photography sculpture installation video and performance art these artists confront the legacies of colonial trauma and their own experiences of diasporic unbelonging and artworld marginality The book combines formal analysis with artist testimony exhibition histories and theoretical frameworks from trauma memory and archipelagic studies to offer a multifaceted examination of Caribbean Latinx art Lewthwaite explores how these artists practice archipelagic memory a generative decolonial and coalitional form of memory work that envisions alternative modes of belonging in difference and solidarity with others By connecting different people pasts and places Caribbean Latinx artists expose the reverberations of trauma while imagining other worlds beyond it This work puts Caribbean Latinx artists at the center of debates about the exclusions of dominant memory narratives and contemporary art worlds highlighting their contributions to a wider decolonial project of remembrance By revealing the interconnectedness of traumatic histories and the potential for art to foster empathy and justice Lewthwaite's work underscores the importance of relational and decolonial thought for imagining a better society

Wayward Chuck Wendig, 2022-11-15 If King had written a sequel to The Stand it might look something like this monumental epic of a story James Rollins 1 New York Times bestselling author of Kingdom of Bones As great as Wanderers was Wayward is better Christopher Golden New York Times bestselling author of Road of Bones Five years ago ordinary Americans fell under the grip of a strange new malady that caused them to sleepwalk across the country to a destination only they knew They were followed on their quest by the shepherds friends and family who gave up everything to protect them Their secret destination Ouray a small town in Colorado that would become one of the last outposts of civilization Because the sleepwalking epidemic was only the first in a chain of events that led to the end of the world and the birth of a new one The survivors sleepwalkers and shepherds alike have a dream of rebuilding human society Among them are Benji the scientist struggling through grief to lead the town Marcy the former police officer who wants only to look after the people she loves and Shana the teenage girl who became the first shepherd and an unlikely hero whose courage will be needed again Because the people of Ouray are not the only survivors and the world they are building is fragile The forces of cruelty and brutality are amassing under the leadership of self proclaimed president Ed Creel And in the very heart of Ouray the most powerful survivor of all is plotting its own vision for the new world Black Swan the A I who imagined the apocalypse Against these threats Benji Marcy Shana and the rest have only one hope one another Because the only way to survive the end of the world is together
