A. Chadwick D.D., Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1964 Communicational Criticism Roger D. Sell, 2011 Further developing the line of argument put forward in his Literature as Communication 2000 and Mediating Criticism 2001 Roger D Sell now suggests that when so called literary texts stand the test of time and appeal to a large and heterogeneous circle of admirers this is because they are genuinely dialogical in spirit Their writers rather than telling other people what to do or think or feel invite them to compare notes and about topics which take on different nuances as seen from different points of view So while such texts obviously reflect the taste and values of their widely various provenances they also channel a certain respect for the human other to whom they are addressed So much so that they win a reciprocal respect from members of their audience In Sell's new book this ethical interplay becomes the focus of a post postmodern critique which sees literary dialogicality as a possible catalyst to new non hegemonic kinds of globalization The argument is illustrated with major reassessments of Shakespeare Pope Wordsworth Dickens Churchill Orwell and Pinter and there are also studies of trauma literature for children and of ethically oriented criticism itself Elderspeak James L. Reynolds MD, 2014-01-08 There are many words relating to old age aging and the elderly and this compendium of words seeks to help you understand almost two thousand of them Most of these words are unusual rare obsolete archaic wonderful marvelous arcane and even preposterous All of them apply to the aged a group that makes up an increasing portion of the population particularly in the United States Europe and Japan Here are just a few of the interesting words you'll learn Cenotaph a monument erected as a memorial to a dead person or dead people buried elsewhere especially those killed fighting a war Lethnomia a tendency to forget or inability to recall names Oligoria disinterest in former friends or hobbies Listed alphabetically with pronunciation keys the words are categorized under forty eight headings For example in the end of life category you'll find the word feuille morte which is the wan yellow color of death Under retirement you'll find ecesis which is the acclimatization to retirement and Opagafaengris a prison for retired male
