My Life In Milwaukee Public Schools Kindergarten To Retirement:

My Life in Milwaukee Public Schools Michael Wenzel, 2005-03-01 The Whisper of Feathers Stories of Maybes and Might Have Beens is a collection of stories and poems that has been spun around Biblical passages The stories are set in biblical times based on characters and themes that could have been in the background of what has been written Joseph comes alive as a real husband and father the shepherds and the angels walk through these pages and become friends of the reader the flight to Egypt has suspense and adds substance to the journey of a refugee family running from a political tyrant The activities of angelic beings add a sense of myth and magic to several of the stories The stories are what could have happened They are spun from images that grew out of wondering how it must have felt to live the story to have walked the walk with Jesus to have held the hand of Mary and to understand the man we call Peter Where scripture is quoted it is the King James Version of the Bible and is indexed for easy reference

My Life in Milwaukee Public Schools Michael Wenzel, 2005-03-22 This is a book talking about the changes that have taken place in the Milwaukee Public Schools over a period of fifty years It is seen from the eyes of a man who went from student to teacher in the school system and worked year round at various other MPS jobs As a student in the 1950s and 1960s the high quality of the school system was evident The changes started to be noticed in the 1970s as the authors teaching career was beginning By the year 2004 the time of retirement Milwaukee has become a failing school system mired in mediocrity The story of a young boy who had the opportunity to go to school in a fine school system becomes a teacher in the system and sees the changes that take place first hand The system that had been outstanding was being attacked on all sides for its failures This all takes place in one lifetime one career How bad has it become After reading these five decades of stories and events you decide town that still lingers It is only one event in the long and complicated history of race relations in Marion a history much ignored and considered by many to be best forgotten But the lynching cannot be forgotten It is too much a part of the fabric of Marion too much ingrained even now in the minds of those who live there In Our Town journalist Cynthia Carr explores the issues of race loyalty and memory in America through the lens of a specific hate crime that occurred in Marion but could have happened anywhere Marion is our town America's town and its legacy is our legacy Like everyone in Marion Carr knew the basic details of the lynching even as a child three black men were arrested for attempted murder and rape and two of them were hanged in the courthouse square a fate the third miraculously escaped Meeting James Cameron the man who survived led her to examine how the quiet Midwestern town she loved could harbor such dark secrets Spurred by the realization that like her millions of white Americans are intimately connected to this hidden history Carr began an investigation into the events of that night racism in Marion the presence of the Ku Klux Klan past and present in Indiana and her own grandfather's involvement She uncovered a pattern of white guilt and indifference of black anger and fear that are the hallmark of race relations across the country In a sweeping narrative that takes her from the angry energy of a white supremacist rally to the peaceful fields of Weaver once an all black settlement neighboring Marion in search of the good and the bad in the story of race in America Carr returns to her roots to seek out the fascinating people and places that have shaped the town Her intensely compelling account of the Marion lynching and of her own family's secrets offers a fresh examination of the complex legacy of whiteness in America Part mystery part history part true crime saga Our Town is a riveting read that lays bare a raw and little chronicled facet of our national memory and provides a starting point toward reconciliation with the past On August 7 1930 three black teenagers were dragged from their jail cells in Marion Indiana and beaten before a howling mob Two of them were hanged by fate the third escaped A photo taken that night shows the bodies hanging from the tree but focuses on the faces in the crowd some enraged some laughing and some subdued perhaps already feeling the first pangs of regret Sixty three years later journalist Cynthia Carr began searching the photo for her grandfather's face
