Wilson Myers,Eleanor Emlen Myers,Gerald Cadogan,1992 This marvelous and uniquely comprehensive book sets a new high standard of excellence in the study of Greek archaeology Ronald S Stroud University of California Berkeley

The Minoan Shipwreck at Pseira, Crete Elpida Hadjidaki-Marder,2021-06-15 The excavation of a Minoan shipwreck dated to 1725 1700 BC is described The cargo includes the largest known corpus of complete and almost complete clay vessels from a single Middle Minoan IIB deposit The transport boat provides interesting information on a society that revolved around seafaring

Aphrodite's Kephali Philip P. Betancourt,2013-10-15 The small site of Aphrodite s Kephali among several other Minoan and later sites took advantage of the valley topography in the Isthmus of Ierapetra in eastern Crete by establishing themselves along the nearby hills resulting in easy access to the natural trade route between the Aegean and the Libyan Seas A discussion of the architecture artifacts and ecofacts are presented from the excavation of this Early Minoan I watchtower The conclusions challenge some of the commonly held views about Crete in the third millennium B C It is suggested that rather than being a precursor to a socially complex state that would arise later early polities involving several communities probably already existed in the isthmus during the EM I period Social and economic differentiation existed on a regional not just a local level and decisions for mutual defense could involve collaboration by groups of workers including the building of the watchtower that is the focus of this volume

Brill's Companion to Warfare in the Bronze Age Aegean ,2023-12-11 Aegean prehistory was born out of the search for the Trojan War Since the time of Heinrich Schliemann new forms of evidence have come to light and innovative questions have arisen including examinations of warfare as a concept This volume interrogates the nature of warfare in the Bronze Age Aegean for scholars and teachers with knowledge of the ancient Mediterranean who wish to access the state of the field when it comes to the ways that specialists approach warfare in the prehistoric Aegean Authors review evidence consider the social and cultural place of war and revisit longstanding questions

Time, Tradition and Society in Greek Archaeology Nigel Spencer,2013-04-15 Time Tradition and Society in Greek Archaeology is an innovative volume which examines the relevance of archaeological theory to classical archaeology It offers a wideranging overview of classical archaeology from the Bronze Age to the Classical period and from mainland Greece to Cyprus Within this framework Spencer examines many of the issues which have become important in the study of archaeology in recent years time the past gender ideology social structure and group identity The papers in this collection cover such diverse topics as the rural landscape classical art and scientific methodologies Over the last century the study of classical archaeology has been orthodox and static The essays in this collection examine it in the light of current theoretical archaeology and anthropology making it more relevant and valuable to the study of archaeology in the 1990s This is a diverse and topical collection of great value to classicists ancient historians anthropologists and everyone interested in new approaches to archaeology Prehistoric Europe Timothy Champion, 2016-06-16 The study of European prehistory has been revolutionized in recent years by the rapid growth rate of archeological discovery advances in dating methods and the application of scientific techniques to archaeological material and new archaeological aims and frameworks of interpretation Whereas previous work concentrated on the recovery and description of material remains the main focus is now on the reconstruction of prehistoric societies and the explanation of their development This volume provides that elementary and comprehensive synthesis of the new discoveries and the new interpretations of European prehistory After an introductory chapter on the geographical setting and the development of prehistoric studies in Europe the text is divided chronologically into nine chapters Each one describes with numerous maps plans and drawings the relevant archaeological data and proceeds to a discussion of the societies they represent Particular attention is paid to the major themes of recent prehistoric research especially subsistence economy trade settlement technology and social organization History of Humanity UNESCO, 1996-12-31 The second volume covers the first two and a half thousand years of recorded history from the start of the Bronze Age 5 000 years ago to the beginnings of the Iron Age Written by a team of over sixty specialists this volume includes a comprehensive bibliography and a detailed index Cultures in Contact Joan Aruz, Sarah B. Graff, Yelena Rakic, 2013 The exhibition Beyond Babylon Art Trade and Diplomacy in the Second Millennium B C held in 2008 2009 at The Metropolitan Museum of Art demonstrated the cultural enrichment that emerged from the intensive interaction of civilizations from western Asia to Egypt and the Aegean in the Middle and Late Bronze Ages During this critical period in human history powerful kingdoms and large territorial states were formed Rising social elites created a demand for copper and tin as well as for precious gold and silver and exotic materials such as lapis lazuli and ivory to create elite objects fashioned in styles that reflected contacts with foreign lands This quest for metals along with the desire for foreign textiles was the driving force that led to the establishment of merchant colonies and a vast trading network throughout central Anatolia during the early second millennium B C Texts from palaces at sites from Hattusa modern Bogazk y in Hittite Anatolia to Amarna in Egypt attest to the volume and variety of interactions that took place some centuries later creating the impetus for the circulation of precious goods stimulating the exchange of ideas and inspiring artistic creativity Perhaps the most dramatic evidence for these far flung connections emerges out of tragedy the wreckage of the oldest known seagoing ship discovered in a treacherous stretch off the southern coast of Turkey near the promontory known as Uluburun Among its extraordinary cargo of copper glass and exotic raw materials and luxury goods is a gilded bronze statuette of a goddess perhaps the patron deity on board who failed in her mission to protect the ship To explore the themes of the exhibition art trade and diplomacy viewed from an international perspective a two day symposium and related scholarly events allowed colleagues to explore many facets of the multicultural societies that developed in the second millennium B C Their insights which dramatically illustrate the incipient phases of our intensely interactive world are presented largely in symposium order beginning with broad regional overviews and examination of particular archeological contexts and then drawing attention to specific artists and literary evidence for interconnections In this introduction however their contributions are viewed from a somewhat more synthetic perspective one that focuses attention on the ways in which ideas in this volume intersect to enrich the ongoing discourse on the themes elucidated in the exhibition

Cutting-edge Technologies in Ancient Greece Marina Panagiotaki,Ilias Tomazos,Fotios Papadimitrakopoulos,2020-04-30 This volume examines materials produced with the use of fire and mostly by use of the kiln metals plasters glass and glaze aromatics The technologies based on fire have been considered high tech technologies and they have contributed to the evolution of man throughout history Papers highlight technical innovations of the technician artist pyrotechnologist that lived in the Aegean mainland Greece and the islands during the Bronze Age the Classical and the Byzantine periods

Excavations at Sissi III Jan Driessen,2012 Vol 2 Since 2007 the Belgian School at Athens has undertaken excavations on the Kefali or Buffo hill east of the village of Sissi on the north coast of Crete where a Minoan site was occupied approximately between 2500 and 1200 BC This volume is the follow up of an earlier one on the 2007 2008 excavations published as Aegis 1 and presents a preliminary report on the excavations carried out in 2009 and 2010 It concentrates on the different zones examined within the cemetery and settlement There are also reports on the Late Minoan pottery site conservation and environmental analysis as well as a paper on the use of GIS at Sissi

The Shrine of Eileithyia Kanta Athanasia,Philip P. Betancourt,2024-12-15 This book presents the pottery and the clay and metal sculptures dedicated to the deity Eileithyia in her shrine at Inatos in southern Crete This is the second of three planned volumes on this assemblage of specialized gifts to a unique goddess It follows the Egyptiaka from the shrine that were published in volume I The clay vessels are discussed by periods from the Minoan to the Roman Imperial era Clay figurines are divided by classes Separate chapters describe models and other items of clay including boat models a ring shaped frieze of dancing warriors animal figurines and Roman lamps Highlights of this important assemblage of votive objects include about 200 Minoan miniature vessels and many small sculptures from the Late Geometric to Archaic periods including seated pairs of female figurines in preparation for childbirth sexually embracing couples and a boat model with standing female figures on the gunwales accompanying a fetus traveling in the vessel

The Hagia Photia Cemetery II Philip P. Betancourt,Costis Davaras,2012-12-31 The publication of the Hagia Photia Cemetery is planned in three volumes The first volume which has already been published Davaras and Betancourt 2004 presented the tomb groups and the architecture The second volume about the excavation of the Hagia Photia cemetery focuses on the pottery The third volume will present the obsidian stone finds metal objects and other discoveries The Early Minoan I tombs at Hagia Photia included the largest assemblage of vessels in Cycladic style known from Crete as well as vases from production workshops in Crete

The pottery is extremely important for several reasons including the definition of the EM I ceramic styles that were being used as funerary offerings in this part of Crete the establishment of the chronological synchronisms between Crete and the Cyclades and information on the history of the Minoan pottery industry When compared with other deposits from EM I Crete the pottery helps to establish a better understanding of the ceramic development within the first Minoan time period

Penelope's Bones Emily Hauser, 2025-06-13 Weaving together literary and archaeological evidence Emily Hauser illuminates the rich intriguing lives of the real women behind Homer's Iliad and Odyssey Achilles Agamemnon Odysseus Hector The lives of these and many other men in the greatest epics of ancient Greece have been pored over endlessly in the past three millennia But these are not just tales about heroic men There are scores of women as well complex fascinating women whose stories have gone unexplored for far too long In Penelope's Bones award winning classicist and historian Emily Hauser pieces together compelling evidence from archaeological excavations and scientific discoveries to unearth the richly textured lives of women in Bronze Age Greece the era of Homer's heroes Here for the first time we come to understand the everyday lives and experiences of the real women who stand behind the legends of Helen Briseis Cassandra Aphrodite Circe Athena Hera Calypso Penelope and more In this captivating journey through Homer's world Hauser explains era defining discoveries such as the excavation of Troy and the decipherment of Linear B tablets that reveal thousands of captive women and their children more recent finds like the tomb of the Griffin Warrior at Pylos whose tomb contents challenge traditional gender attributes DNA evidence showing that groups of warriors buried near the Black Sea with their weapons and steeds were in fact Amazon like female fighters a prehistoric dye workshop on Crete that casts fresh light on women's work of dyeing spinning and weaving textiles and a superbly preserved shipwreck off the coast of Turkey whose contents tell of the economic and diplomatic networks crisscrossing the Bronze Age Mediterranean Essential reading for fans of Madeline Miller or Natalie Haynes this riveting new history brings to life the women of the Bronze Age Aegean as never before offering a groundbreaking reassessment of the ancient world An Archaeological Palimpsest in Minoan Crete Georgia
