Constructing Social Psychology William James McGuire,1999-03-28 This collection of papers by William J McGuire reports research on the phenomenal self revealing how we selectively perceive ourselves and other complex stimuli in terms of distinctive or atypical features often noticing what is missing rather than what is there The content structure and processing of thought systems surrounding the self and other complex stimuli are shown to function by balancing logical consistency realistic coping and hedonic gratification Attitude change and social influence processes are described with particular attention given to the personality correlates of persuasability how beliefs can be immunized against persuasion how persuasive communications affect beliefs and how people can be persuaded by Socratic questioning that does not give them new information but rather directs their attention to information they already have Also reported are findings on language and thought psychology and history and techniques of creative thinking in psychology and other fields

Self-Identity Narratives of Chinese Students in the United States Sarah Y. Köksal,2023-01-31 While previous research has explored the academic adaptation or acculturation processes of Chinese students studying abroad limited attention has been paid to students own perspectives and narrations of their experience To contribute to a more nuanced understanding of this highly mobile group this study takes a closer look at the students self identity narratives How do they make sense of their foreign adventure How do they position themselves among their peers and their family members as well as within the greater transnational context Based on 29 in depth biographical interviews with Chinese students in the United States the findings show the participants continuously interpreting and revising their individual academic and cultural identities In the familial context a recurring narrative of the high potential only child could be observed Many students and their family members felt that their unique talents and personalities were not appreciated within the Chinese educational system and thus sought more holistic environments abroad Family Men: Fathers as Coparents in Diverse Contexts and Family Structures Sarah E. DeMartini, Nancy Hazen, Martin I. Gallegos, Nicola Carone, Lauren Altenburger, 2022-08-26

Black Queer Ethics, Family, and Philosophical Imagination Thelathia Nikki Young, 2016-06-06 This book acknowledges and highlights the moral excellence embedded in black queer practices of family Taking the lives narratives and creative explorations of black queer people seriously Thelathia Nikki Young brings readers on a journey of new queer ethical methods that include confrontation resistance and imagination Young asserts that family and its surrounding norms are both microcosms of and foundations for human relationships She discusses how black queer people are moral subjects whose ethical reflection lived experience and embodied action demonstrate valuable moral agency for those of us thinking about liberating and life giving ways to enact family Young posits that black queer people enact moral agency in ways that ought to be understood qua moral agency Refusing to recognize the examples from this and any other community Young argues denies us all the learning and moral growth that come from connecting with diverse human experiences This book investigates how acknowledging and critically engaging with the moral agency within marginalized subjectivities allow us to consider and bear witness to the moral potential in us all Perinatal Mental Health: Expanding the Focus to the Family Context Susan Garthus-Niegel, Antje Horsch, Yael Benyamini, 2021-09-28
