

The amazing story of a twelve-year-old mystery that has caused a sensation throughout America. A young nun, stationed at a peaceful little village in Michigan, walked out of her convent one day and vanished as completely as though the earth had swallowed her up. Hundreds of people searched the countryside, with the aid of bloodhounds, but no trace of her could be discovered. Not for twelve years was the problem of her disappearance elucidated, and then a most startling and dramatic story was unfolded. Newspapers all over the States have published fragmentary accounts of the affair, but this is the first consecutive narrative that has been compiled. Mrs. Ray lives in the neighbourhood, her husband was a member of the jury, and her house was searched during the hunts for the vanished "Sister Janina." "I have" carefully sifted the proven facts from an enormous amount of material," she writes, "and my account is painstaking and exact." Readers who pride themselves upon possession of the detective instinct will find it very interesting to study the first part of the story and then endeavour to forecast the solution of the mystery. No more remarkable case has come before the public for many years."

It is managed by the Mother and Sister Superior without interference by priest or Bishop, but receives spiritual guidance from a chaplain. In this society of self-governed, isolated women, Josephine grew to young womanhood, and

* We have received the following statement in support of Mrs. Ray's story:—

"The case of Sister Mary Johns of the Holy Rosary Church at Easdown is a true happening. The article written by Elizabeth Mason Ray, compiled from news reports and the accounts of local residents, is accurate.—[Signed] Mary Westcott, Postmaster, Glen Arbor, Mich.; Harry R.
