Guru English Srinivas Aravamudan, 2011-06-27 Guru English is a bold reconceptualization of the scope and meaning of cosmopolitanism examining the language of South Asian religiosity as it has flourished both inside and outside of its original context for the past two hundred years The book surveys a specific set of religious vocabularies from South Asia that Aravamudan argues launches a different kind of cosmopolitanism into global use Using Guru English as a tagline for the globalizing idiom that has grown up around these religions Aravamudan traces the diffusion and transformation of South Asian religious discourses as they shuttled between East and West through English language use The book demonstrates that cosmopolitanism is not just a secular Western discourse that results from a disenchantment with religion but something that can also be refashioned from South Asian religion when these materials are put into dialogue with contemporary social movements and literary texts Aravamudan looks at religious forms of neoclassicism nationalism Romanticism postmodernism and nuclear millenarianism bringing together figures such as Swami Vivekananda Sri Aurobindo Mahatma Gandhi and Deepak Chopra with Rudyard Kipling James Joyce Robert Oppenheimer and Salman Rushdie Guru English analyzes writers and gurus literary texts and religious movements and the political uses of religion alongside the literary expressions of religious teachers showing the cosmopolitan interconnections between the Indian subcontinent the British Empire and the American New Age

The South Asian Diaspora Rajesh Rai, Peter Reeves, 2008-07-25 The South Asian Diaspora numbers just under 30 million people worldwide and it is recognized as the most widely dispersed diaspora It is moreover one which of late has seen phenomenal growth both due to natural increase and the result of a continued movement of professionals and labourers in the late 20th and early 21st century from the subcontinent to countries such as the United States the United Kingdom Canada Australia and Singapore This book uses the concept of transnational networks as a means to understand the South Asian diaspora Taking into account diverse aspects of formation and development the concept breaks down the artificial boundaries that have been dominating the literature between the old and the new era of migration Thereby the continued connectedness of most historic South Asian settlements is shown and the fluid nature of South Asian identities is explored Offering a unique and original insight into the South Asian diaspora this book will be of interest to academics working in the field of South Asian Studies Diaspora and Cultural Studies Anthropology Transnationalism and Globalisation

V. S. Naipaul of Trinidad Nivedita Misra, 2024-01-09 The book is about V S Naipaul who was born in Trinidad in 1932 At the age of 18 Naipaul left Trinidad on a scholarship to study literature at Oxford He never returned to live in Trinidad His first book was published in 1956 and by the time Trinidad achieved political independence in 1962 he had published four books and was firmly established as a writer in England By the time Trinidad became a republic in 1976 Naipaul had written 13 books and had travelled through much of the postcolonial world This book highlights how Trinidad and Naipaul were bound in a love hate relationship where Naipaul continued to pass Trinidad off as a cynical island where nothing was created while Trinidad had its share by laying back a claim on him and his writing It is generally perceived that Naipaul shunned his place of birth as he called his birth in Trinidad a mistake Trinidad an unimportant uncreative cynical place and the Caribbean as the Third World s Third World His refusal to acknowledge Trinidad in his initial response to receiving the Nobel Prize added insult to injury Yet he was deeply bound to the island of Trinidad and his roots in the Indo Trinidadian community This book makes Naipaul s connection to Trinidad more than evident and as such adds to the present body of knowledge 2024-25 NTA UGC-NET/JRF English Solved Papers YCT Expert Team, 2024 25 NTA UGC NET JRF English Solved Papers 496 995 E This book contains the previous year solved papers from 2012 to 2024 Vidiadhar Surajprasad Naipaul Fawzia Mustafa,1995-09-07 This introductory study offers a critical overview of the major works of V S Naipaul from 1950 to the present day Professor Mustafa s main concern is with literary issues but historical political and cultural questions are also addressed with comparative references to other postcolonial works Paradoxically a major segment of Naipaul s non western pro decolonisation readership seized on negative elements in his thinking while Western reaction to his ideas and themes led to set notions about Third World society Thus his work has always been the object of radically divergent views dependent on the perspective of the reader In examining this issue Mustafa introduces general debates about postcolonial literary production and its contemporary interrogation of narrative techniques language gender race and canon formulation

Trinidad and Tobago Lise Winer,1993 This volume describes the English and English Creole of Trinidad and Tobago Sources from the early 19th through late 20th centuries are gathered from a wide range of materials novels editorials advertisements cartoons proverbs newspaper articles plays lyrics of traditional songs and calypsos and oral interviews Many of the older texts are now made easily accessible for the first time The introduction includes descriptions of the historical background the sound system grammar and vocabulary speech styles social and linguistic interaction of Creole and English and implications for education and spelling The older sources demonstrate much closer links to other Caribbean English Creoles than previously recognized The texts and recordings of oral interviews are invaluable resources for researchers and teachers in linguistics Creole Studies Caribbean studies literature anthropology and history Eating and Identity in Postcolonial Fiction Paul Vlitos,2018-10-11 This book focuses on the fiction of four postcolonial authors V S Naipaul Anita Desai Timothy Mo and Salman Rushdie It argues that meals in their novels act as sites where the relationships between the individual subject and the social identities of race class and gender are enacted Drawing upon a variety of academic fields and disciplines including postcolonial theory historical research food studies and recent attempts to rethink the concept of world literature it dedicates a chapter to each author tracing the literary cultural and historical contexts in which their texts are located and exploring the ways in which food and the act of eating acquire meanings and how those meanings might clash collide and be disputed Not only does this book offer suggestive new readings of the work of its four key authors but it challenges the reader to consider the significance of food in postcolonial fiction more generally
