Cats James G. Sanderson, Patrick Watson, 2011-10 This book examines the behavior biology and conservation of the more than 30 small wild cat species Armorial Porcelain Rachel L. Denyer, Morgan C.T. Denyer, Howell G. M.

Edwards, 2024-08-13 This book explores the genesis of armorial porcelain manufacture in Britain While heraldic devices began appearing on Chinese porcelain from the sixteenth century onwards armorials did not appear on British porcelain until the 1750s It examines the development of porcelain in China and traces its introduction to Western Europe The book delves into the market for armorial porcelains from the early commissioning of Chinese armorial porcelainware to the establishment of manufactories in England capable of producing armorial porcelain It also discusses the reasons behind the timing of armorial porcelain's manufacture in Britain Additionally it assesses armorial porcelain as a contemporary historical source Building upon previous research by the authors the book presents armorial porcelain as a distinct and highly personalized product By integrating detailed genealogical research cultural insights and chemical analysis it offers a comprehensive understanding of armorial porcelain within the context of heritage culture and science Flora Unveiled Lincoln Taiz, Lee Taiz, 2017 This book focuses on how the scientific discovery of plant sex unfolded due to cultural biases beliefs and perceptions about plant reproduction Flora Unveiled is a deep history of perceptions about plant gender and sexuality from the Paleolithic to the nineteenth century The evidence suggests that a plants as female gender bias both prevented the discovery of two sexes in plants until the late 17th century and delayed its acceptance for another 150 years Welsh

Armorial Porcelain Howell G. M. Edwards,2022-05-05 Armorial porcelains comprised the output of most European ceramics factories in the 18th and 19th Centuries in response to the large quantity of armorial porcelain services that were being imported from China bearing the coats of arms and crests of aristocratic families Whereas these armorial services have been identified and covered for most porcelain manufactories the information relevant to their production by the two relatively short lived Nantgarw and Swansea China Works has not been addressed as a theme until now As an integral component of the holistic forensic appraisal of porcelain a functional and decorative artwork manifestly part of our cultural heritage and its ongoing preservation the recording and identification of such artefacts is material for the future establishment of a database of factory production The Nantgarw and Swansea factories only operated for a limited period in the second decade of the 19th Century and their porcelains were much appreciated for their high quality and desirability by Georgian households Today examples are to be found in many museums and ceramics collections and continue to excite the interest of specialists and the general public This text provides the first comprehensive assessment of armorial porcelains from these two factories and the methodology and procedure for the identification of unknown armorial bearings and crests is illustrated individual bearings are discussed in detail and existing incorrect assignments in the literature are re appraised The difficulties in attribution of armorial heraldic achievements that are only minimally depicted are considered and directions for further studies using historical documentation are invoked This book therefore fills a currently existing gap in the ceramics literature of the 19th Century Heroes Janet Bottin,1998 New Zealand Books in Print 2004

Mudrooroo Maureen Clark,2007 Mudrooroo A Likely Story reads the fiction of one of Australia s most controversial and enigmatic literary figures against the backdrop of the likelihood that he assumed an Aboriginal identity to which he was not entitled As he is neither black nor white Colin Johnson a k a Mudrooroo writes on issues of identity and belonging from the position of an outsider The book argues that the experimental nature of Johnson s creative body of work coupled with the complexities of his in between status mean that both the man and his writing evade neat categorisation within mainstream literary criticism Also examined here is how the denial of his white mother impacts upon the gender politics of Johnson s fiction in a way that opens up exciting new possibilities for critical comment and textual analysis Back cover Tales from the Vienna Woods and Other Plays Ödön von Horváth, 2002 d n von Horv th 1901 1939 is one of the most important theatre writers in the 1930s His reputation rests largely on the four plays in this collection which he called Volksstücke popular plays although he had no desire to embrace this tradition uncritically Reflected in these plays is the sympathy for the situation of the exploited classes as well as the concern for the way language is used for deception and self deception The hollow characters come across as potentially receptive to fascism A latent brutality is unmasked a lack of genuine feeling all lying hidden under a veneer of facile sentimentality Mythical Beasts Alison Condon, Sandra Iversen, Tracey Reeder, 1999
