New Virginia Review Anthology David Bradley, 1987-10-01 New Virginia Review, 1986 New Virginia Review Anthology 4 Dave Smith, 1986-09-01 Greatest Hits, 1978-2000 Shelby Stephenson, 2002 Introduction by Shelby Stephenson Balm Remedies Hogs Recognition The soda sower A handbook of tobacco farming Blue country rising The story I can't tell sticks in my throat The South Recollections Knight of the fox Prologue Fiddledeedee Hunting Men Dave Smith, 2006-12-01 In Hunting Men poet Dave Smith reasserts the validity of poetry in our times With eloquence grace and a searching intelligence Smith illuminates both poems and poets Believing that great poetry cannot be divorced from an intimate organic link to place he builds a compelling case for the importance of southern poets Like the hunters who taught Smith as a young man patience observation and willingness to rely on his senses he leads readers on an expedition through a specific poetic place with a sure sense of direction and destination Beginning with a discussion of southern poetry that seeks to define the form and its value for a global readership the first of the book's three sections also includes reflections on Edgar Allan Poe John Crowe Ransom Robert Penn Warren and James Dickey In the second part Smith focuses on contemporary poets Richard Hugo Stephen Dunn Stephen Dobyns and Larry Levis among others In the final chapters he examines how he came to be a poet and reflects on the nature and practice of poetry Smith describes himself as a poet born and raised in the South but never entirely comfortable with the neighborhood or many of the public assumptions about southernness By describing why southern poetry is important to him he reveals why poetry matters to all of us as he asserts the moral weight of regional art My success if it occurs will be to send readers to the books of the poets where the world as they knew it waits and is full of the delights of the unglimped and known Little Boats, Unsalvaged Dave Smith, 2005-10-01 A lyrical search for wisdom and meaning in the life of a man growing up in the New South of desegregating schools rock and roll music mobile populations and volatile wars Little Boats Unsalvaged displays the profound historical sensibility that has long marked the poetry of Dave Smith Smith exhibits here a mature perspective on his childhood in a racially violent society and on his troubled search for happiness whether sexual professional or aesthetic To that he adds a chorus of elegies for poets central to his understanding of his native region including Edwin Muir Robert Penn Warren and Allen Tate and a vision of poetry as the art that unites medieval and contemporary elements Section by section changes in subject tempo and even vocabulary offer at once a sense of unity and variety to the poems Little Boats Unsalvaged poses a polyphonic inquiry into the experiences and memories of the Vietnam defined generation an inquiry whose answers can only be tentative fretted hung in the contingencies of being just as the little boat of joy waits not useless or lost but abandoned and so beyond visible redemption Richmond Virginius Dabney, 2012-10-05 This book chronicles the growth of this historic community over nearly four centuries from its founding to its most recent urban and suburban developments Floating on Solitude Dave Smith, 1996 Forging through this voluminous collection is akin to visiting at length with a charismatic if highly disturbed

relative Generally the poems start out presenting facades of well mannered normalcy e g brief narratives or odes to nature and the sea but then something shifts and goes terribly right A sentence turns odd and powerful a quiet streak of insanity emerges a young girl leaves her scent upon a young boy s body Sometimes a poem pops up that is dangerous from start to finish such as The Suicide Eaters or Drunks about a reading at a V A hospital for recovering addicts and alcoholics Smith is highly conscious of word choice He tinkers with grammar and rhythm just enough to be utterly engaging leaving the reader exhausted after the visit but wiser for the effort Publishers weekly

From Mt. San Angelo William Smart,1984 From Mt San Angelo is a book length anthology of new writing All of the fiction poetry and essays in this volume edited by William Smart director of the Virginia Center for the Creative Arts VCCA are being published here for the first time

Southward Greg Delanty,1992

Hawks on Wires Dave Smith,2011-11-07 Dave Smith s sixteenth poetry collection chronicles the arc of almost sixty years living in the American South From dusty sawmills to the ubiquitous Waffle House Hawks on Wires stages both mortal and comic dramas that speak to the poet s autumnal acceptance of himself and the South Poems of growing up engaged with the people of the coast and woodlands boatmen hunters crabbers sawyers and tough mouthed waitresses celebrate the once strong but now tenuous threads of community Traveling through the latter twentieth century Smith presents matters of family sex and race during a turbulent and historic era in southern history Assassinations withdrawal of religious prohibitions violent cultural convulsions and even the diminished meaning of the word southern shake the poet s personal identity Smith uses the language of an ordinary man seeking meaning as the memory of events carried over a lifetime now begs for explanation Despite the inevitable displacements and disappointments of identity which remain mysterious Smith finds optimism in life

Where We've Been William Greenway,1987

Cardinal Points Michael Pettit,1988-09 Strung throughout the book are poems based on the Scottish photographer Eadwaerd Muybridge s Animal Locomotion a historic photographic document Pettit uses these pioneering images as the basis for his poetic dreaming and the result is a poignant integrated sequence of highly moving poems studded between other vivid lyrics

Moon Road Ron Smith,2007-10-01 From poems of memory and family through its extraordinary voyaging sequences Via Appia and To Ithaca Ron Smith s Moon Road embodies the experiences and some of the more elusive lessons of marriage fatherhood teaching sports and travel Domestic poems give way to poems of pilgrimage and witness to poems of literary homage and metaphysical questioning A mind nurtured in the mid twentieth century Deep South drifts north and west and finally abroad and sometimes into visionary mysterious pasts With skeptical reverence the poems hunger for and dramatize a search for immanence and transcendence Many poems examine the fear of meaninglessness the griefs of separation and alienation and the limits as well as the powers of language

Critical Play Mary Flanagan,2013-02-08 An examination of subversive games like The Sims games designed for political aesthetic and social critique For many players games are entertainment diversion relaxation fantasy But what if certain games were something more than this providing not only outlets for entertainment but a means for creative expression instruments for conceptual thinking or tools for social change In Critical Play artist and game designer Mary Flanagan examines alternative games games that challenge the accepted norms embedded within the gaming industry and argues that games designed by artists and activists are reshaping everyday game culture Flanagan provides a lively historical context for critical play through twentieth century art movements connecting subversive game design to subversive art her examples of playing house include Dadaist puppet shows and The Sims She looks at artists alternative computer based games and explores games for change considering the way activist concerns including worldwide poverty and AIDS can be incorporated into game design Arguing that this kind of conscious practice which now constitutes the avant garde of the computer game medium can inspire new working methods for designers Flanagan offers a model for designing that will encourage the subversion of popular gaming tropes through new styles of game making and proposes a theory of alternate game design that focuses on the reworking of contemporary popular game practices

Fate's Kite Dave Smith, 1995 In this stunningly wrought collection Dave Smith presents a galaxy of souls searching for something through the dusty lens of a lost faith If religion is the arena in which we engage ultimate meaning then these are religious poems indeed prayers and meditations of the cosmically disenfranchised looking for a sign among the detritus of a broken world Lord admit us we lived here almost happy almost yours But where really are we And how and why did we get here Pulsing carefully orchestrated these thirteen line poems are tightly wound miracles of compression alive with texture and color sharp with the raw flavors of sex blood and seawrack ready to explode off the page Ranging from youth all moonlight and speed and violent ecstasy through the fierce disillusionment of middle age to the final decline snagged on memory s hook from the sun shot desolation of the contemporary American South to the faded marmoreal glory of Europe Smith forges a craggy metaphysics that stops just this side of despair finding Delphic moments of affirmation of our kinship with the physical world

volumes published in 1990 in the National Poetry Series I could not leave this book aside nor among so many worthy others could I choose another It interested me crooned to me and in the end I loved it I hope he writes many more Read it You will see why Dave Smith A poet whose own craft is beyond dispute and whose gifted heart has something to tell us about our ordinary selves we had almost despaired of hearing again in the American tongue John D Bernard Poet Lore
