Old Guard And The Avant Garde:

The Old Guard and the Avant-Garde Sue Ann Prince, 1990 The Old Guard and the Avant Garde Modernism in Chicago 1910 1940 brings together the history and the critical reaction to the new developments in art and design places them in the context of conservative yet innovative Chicago at the turn of the century and explores the tensions between tradition and innovation The individual essays present the best in specialized current research yet one can clearly understand the impact of modernism on the broader intellectual and cultural life of the city I eagerly await as cohesive and thorough an analysis of the subject for New York David Sokol University of Chicago This is fresh and fascinating research about the ups and downs of modernism in Chicago a city where art students reportedly once hung Matisse in effigy Regional studies like this one broaden our understanding of how the art world has worked outside of New York and gives depth to a story we know too narrowly Applause all the way around Wanda M Corn Stanford University

Literary Depictions of the Scribal Profession in the Story of Ahiqar and Jeremiah 36 James D. Moore, 2021-12-06 This is the first study to compare the allusions to scribal culture found in the Aramaic Story of Ahiqar and the Hebrew Tale of Jeremiah and Baruch's Scroll in Jeremiah 36 It is shown that disguised in the royal propagandistic message of Ahiqar is a sophisticated Aramaic critique on the social practices of Akkadian scribal culture Jeremiah 36 however uses loci of scribal activity as well as allusions to scribal interactions and the techniques of the scribal craft to construct a subversive tale When studied from a comparative perspective it is argued that the Story of Ahiqar which has long been associated with the well known court tale genre is an example of a subgenre which is here called the scribal conflict narrative and Jeremiah 36 is found to be a second example of or a response to it This observation is arrived at by means of rigorous manuscript examination combined with narrative analysis which identified among other things the development of autobiographical and biographical styles of the same ancient narrative This study not only provides new perspectives on scribal culture Ahiqar studies and Jeremiah studies but it may have far reaching implications for other ancient sources
