Philosophical Essays On The Ideas Of A Good Society Issues In Contemporary Social Philosophy:

Globalism and the Obsolescence of the State Yeager Hudson,1999 This work explores topics such as globalism justice and federalism State sovereignty world community violence and coercion and designing social institutions

Politics, Economics, and Presidential Use of Force Decision Making Karl R. DeRouen,2001 This study aims to further the understanding of the convergence between foreign policy and domestic politics Statistical analyses reveal that the unemployment and Soviet crisis activity had positive impacts on levels of US force Ongoing war had a negative impact Uses of force also lead to a significant rally effect in presidential approval It offers explanations of the use of force decision process based upon the noncompensatory theory Two case studies are presented Dien Bien Phu 1954 and Grenada 1983 Finally the study discusses the benefits of substituting a domestic economic management and collective security for military force

Technology, Morality, and Social Policy Yeager Hudson,1998 Part 1 Technology Anxiety and Harm Part 2 The Impact of Clinical Technology on Women Part 3 Guilt Innocence and Responsibility Part 4 Perspectives on Machiavelli and Contract Theory

Human Rights and Political Justice in Post-communist Eastern Europe Aurora Voiculescu,2000 Values politics and law are inextricably intertwined in a communal effort to ensure respect for the human dignity of all the individuals in a society This sentiment is often expressed but rarely understood in the context of legal analysis Proponents of sociolegal analysis often focus on particular actors or particular processes giving little attention to the communal aspects of justice Because of this political entities in particular have been able to avoid responsibility for their past offenses to the human dignity of the communities who had invested them with the trust of government Dr Aurora Voiculescu s addresses this problem by examining the responsibility of collective political actors for human rights abuses Instead of rehashing the developments within the sphere of individual and state responsibility Dr Voiculescu breaks new ground by considering communal needs for the responsibility of political collectives At the centre of her work is the responsibility of the nomenklatura and what this means for societies over which they reigned Drawing upon examples from the emerging democracies of Eastern Europe she analyzes the need for justice and ways in which this need

Indoctrination and Self-deception Or Free and Critical Thought? Roderick Hindery,2001 The goal of this book is to respond at three levels First it illustrates the contemporary pervasiveness of indoctrination and ideology Second it correlates successful resistance to them with the intensity by which persons affirm not simply ideas but experiences of self freedom love and critical thinking Third its approach which is philosophical differs from conventional studies by creatively examining the affective and conversational dynamics

The Bloomsbury Companion to Political Philosophy Andrew Fiala,2015-02-26 The Bloomsbury Companion to Political Philosophy is the definitive guide to contemporary political philosophy The book covers all the most pressing and important themes and categories in the field areas that have continued to attract interest historically as well as topics that have emerged more recently as active areas of research Fourteen specially commissioned essays from an international team of experts including Eduardo Mendieta and Gillian Brock reveal where important work continues to be done in the area and most valuably the exciting new directions the field is taking The Companion explores a range of issues from the nature and history of political philosophy sovereignty distributive justice democratic theory feminist theory to toleration human rights immigration cosmopolitanism peace war and the challenge of Eurocentrism in political philosophy Featuring a series of indispensable research tools including an A to Z of key terms and concepts a chronology a detailed list of resources and a fully annotated bibliography this is the essential reference tool for anyone researching or working in political philosophy A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences, 1931 Vols 1 4 include material to June 1 1929 The Authority of Virtue Tristan J. Rogers, 2020-11-09 This book provides a unified account of the connection between justice and the good life It argues that the virtues of character require institutions while good institutions enable persons to live together virtuously Although virtue ethics and political philosophy are rich and sophisticated philosophical traditions there has been an unfortunate divergence in theory and practice between the virtues of character and the virtues of institutions This book has two primary purposes First it reorients political philosophy around the concept of the good life To do so the author addresses the problem of political authority from a virtue ethics perspective He also considers whether a political theory oriented around the good life is compatible with Rawls's notion of reasonable pluralism Second the book explains the relationship between the virtues of institutions and the virtues of character The author shows how institutions support the development and exercise of the virtues of character while examining specific other regarding virtues such as justice and friendship The Authority of Virtue will appeal to scholars and advanced students working in virtue ethics social and political philosophy ancient philosophy and political theory Confucian Ethics in

Questions first raised by Hannah Arendt in the 1960s take on new urgency in the post truth era as political leaders blithely reject facts in the public domain Is truth politically impotent Are politics inherently false Is the search for truth still relevant Shattering Silos a companion volume to Religion Truth and Social Transformation and Art Education and Cultural Renewal provides a path breaking response As in his two previous books Lambert Zuidervart challenges the boundaries philosophers set up between epistemology ethics and political philosophy Knowledge he argues takes different forms in various social domains and all are subject to political struggle A critique of contemporary society must draw on many social domains of knowledge including the arts and religion and should recast politics as a striving for truth in the broadest sense Proposing a new conception of truth one that emphasizes the unity of knowledge and truth as well as their diversity among different social domains Zuidervart asks what such holism and pluralism suggest about how we understand politics and society This book proposes a new understanding of large scale social change challenging how most people think about knowledge and truth Interweaving epistemology social criticism and political thought Shattering Silos aims to help redirect an allegedly post truth society
