Philosophical I Personal Reflections On Life In Philosophy:

The Philosophical I George Yancy, 2002-11-19 Philosophy is shaped by life and life is shaped by philosophy This is reflected in The Philosophical I a collection of 16 autobiographical essays by prominent philosophers Candid and philosophically insightful these personal narratives critically call into question the belief that philosophy should be kept separate from the personal experience of philosophers Each contributor traces the fundamental influences both philosophical and otherwise that have shaped his or her identity In this postmodern world the self is often viewed as irreparably fragmented and fractured but the reflections in this volume point to a self that is a continuous though dynamic storyline What shines through in each of these essays is that philosophy is a profoundly personal adventure

The Philosopher's "I" J. Lenore Wright, 2012-02-01 This book examines philosophers autobiographies as a genre of philosophical writing Author J Lenore Wright focuses her attention on five philosophical autobiographies Augustine's Confessions Descartes' Meditations Rousseau's The Confessions Nietzsche's Ecce Homo and Hazel Barnes's The Story I Tell Myself In the context of first person narration she shows how the philosophers in question turn their attention inward and unleash their analytical rigor on themselves Wright argues that philosophical autobiography makes philosophical analysis necessary and that one cannot unfold without the other Her distinction between the ontological and rhetorical dimensions of the self creates a rich middle ground in which questions of essence and identity bear upon existence

The Twenty-first Century African American Novel and the Critique of Whiteness in Everyday Life E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2016-05-25 This book examines the post 9 11 African American novels developing a new critical discourse on everyday discursive practices of whiteness The critique of everyday life in the racial context of post 9 11 American society is important in considering diverse forms of the lived experiences and subjectivities of black people in the novels They help us see that African American representations of the city have political significance in that the neo urban novel explores the possibility of a black dialogic communication to build a transformative social change Since the real power of Whiteness lies in its discursive power the book reveals the urgency to understand not only how whiteness works in everyday life in American society But it also explores how to cultivate new possibilities of configuring and performing Blackness differently as a response to the post 9 11 configurations of the culture of fear to produce new ways of interactional social relations that can eventually open up the space of critical awareness for white people to work against rather than reinforce discursive practices of White supremacy in everyday life This book explores how the multiple subjectivities and transformative acts of blackness can offer ways of subverting the discursive power of the white embodied practices What defines post 9 11 America as a nation that is consumed by the fear of racialized terrorists is its roots in the fear of uncontrollable Blackness as excess and ominous threat in the domestic terrain through which the ideology of White supremacy has constructed for governing through Whiteness African American urban novels published in the twenty first century respond to the discursive power of normative Whiteness that regulates black bodies selves and lives This book demonstrates how black people contest white dominant social spaces as sites of black criminality and exclusion in an attempt to re signify them as the sites of black transformative change through personal and grassroots activism through their performativity of Blackness as an agential identity formation in their interpersonal urban social encounters with white people Hence the vulnerable spaces of Whiteness in interracial urban encounters as it pervasively addresses those moments of transformative change enacted by Black characters in the face of the discursive practices of whiteness in the everyday life These novels celebrate multifarious representations of black individuals who are capable of using their agency to subvert White discursive power in finding ways in their personal and grassroots activism to transform the culture of fear that locates Blackness as such in an attempt to make a difference in the American society at large

Self-Cultivation Philosophies in Ancient India, Greece, and China Christopher W. Gowans, 2021-08-27 Christopher W. Gowans shows how philosophy played a central role in self-cultivation programs in three ancient cultures. On the basis of a philosophical understanding of human nature, self-cultivation philosophies give an analysis of what is problematic in human life, propose an ideal state of being we can hope to attain, and provide a set of practices, philosophical, moral, therapeutic, or spiritual, we can undertake to achieve this end. This book explains the importance of self-cultivation philosophies in three ancient traditions: India (the Bhagavad Gita, Samkhya and Yoga, and Buddhism), Greece (and Rome) (Epicureanism, Stoicism, and Pyrrhonian Skepticism), and China (Confucianism, Daoism, and Chan Buddhism). Choose Life John Goodrich, Jeanette Hagen Pifer, 2022-05-03 You're pro-life. But can you explain why? You already believe in choosing life. But when the counterarguments are coming at you from every angle—legal, biological, medical, ethical, moral, philosophical, and biblical—how do you defend the pro-life view? And as you defend it, how do you speak with wisdom, humility, and compassion? Now more than ever, the times call for a balance of truth and mercy. There are good, wise, and thoughtful rebuttals of every claim made by pro-abortion advocates. Collected here in one place, Choose Life offers you reasonable responses from leading experts in their respective fields. The authors are accomplished women and men from all walks of life. They'll help you know what to say and why to say it when you're faced with claims like "The courts have already settled the issue. The fetus is not a person. My body, my choice. I shouldn't have to raise an unwanted child. My circumstances justify ending my pregnancy. Abortions are helpful to women and society. The pro-life movement doesn't care about social justice. It's time to set aside the strident fist-shaking and hurled insults. Learn to make the pro-life case with intelligent arguments and compassionate love, just the way a Christian should."
