Moebius Anthropology Don Handelman, Matan Shapiro, Jackie Feldman, 2020-10-07 Don Handelman's groundbreaking work in anthropology is showcased in this collection of his most powerful essays edited by Matan Shapiro and Jackie Feldman The book looks at the intellectual and spiritual roots of Handelman's initiation into anthropology his work on ritual and on bureaucratic logic analyses of cosmology and innovative essays on Anthropology and Deleuzian thinking Handelman reconsiders his theory of the forming of form and how this relates to a new theory of the dynamics of time This will be the definitive collection of articles by one of the most important anthropologists of the late 20th Century For King and Country Heather Jones, 2021-09-23 This is a ground breaking history of the British monarchy in the First World War and of the social and cultural functions of monarchism in the British war effort Heather Jones examines how the conflict changed British cultural attitudes to the monarchy arguing that the conflict ultimately helped to consolidate the crown's sacralised status She looks at how the monarchy engaged with war recruitment bereavement gender norms as well as at its political and military powers and its relationship with Ireland and the empire She considers the role that monarchism played in military culture and examines royal visits to the front as well as the monarchy's role in home front morale and in interwar war commemoration Her findings suggest that the rise of republicanism in wartime Britain has been overestimated and that war commemoration was central to the monarchy's revered interwar status up to the abdication crisis The Irish Parading Tradition T. Fraser, 2000-05-15 The book examines the evolution and current significance of the parading tradition in Ireland Since 1995 confrontations over parades have existed side by side with the Northern Ireland peace process The most bitter of these have occurred over the Drumcree church parade at Portadown and the Relief of Derry parades Using a range of historical and anthropological perspectives the book traces the parading tradition from the seventeenth century to the present Remembering 1916 Richard S. Grayson, Fearghal McGarry, 2016-03-03 A pioneering analysis of how the Easter Rising and the Battle of the Somme have been remembered in Ireland since 1916 The Routledge Handbook of the State in Premodern India Hermann Kulke, Bhairabi Prasad Sahu, 2022-01-13 This handbook presents a multilayered and multidimensional history of state formation in premodern India. It explores dense and rich local and subregional historiography from the mid first millennium BC to the eighteenth century in South Asia. Shifting the focus away from economic and political factors, this handbook revises the conventional understanding of states and empires and locates them in their quotidian conduct and activity on socio cultural and concomitant factors. Comprehensive in scope, this handbook addresses a range of themes connected with the idea of state formation in the subcontinent. It includes discussions and debates on ritual practices and the Brahmanical order in early India, the Delhi Sultanate and role of Sultans among the Hindu kings, the cosmopolitan Islamic cultural influences on Puranic Hinduism, cultural background of the Mughal state. The handbook examines new questions and ideologies of state formation such as facets of violence and resistance, the significance of the autonomous spaces and forests, regional elites including Little kings, tribal background of some famous cults, trade and maritime commerce, royal patronage, courtly manners, lineage formation, imperial architecture, monuments and temple among others. Featuring case studies from different parts of the India subcontinent and with contributions by renowned historians, this authoritative handbook will be an indispensable reading for teachers, scholars and students of early India, medieval India, premodern India, South Asian history, Asian history, historiography, economic history, historical sociology and South Asia studies. Peace At Last? Jörg Neuheiser, Stefan Wolff, 2004-01-01 Spanning more than thirty years and costing over 3000 lives, the conflict in Northern Ireland has been one of the most protracted ethnic conflicts in Western Europe. After several failed attempts to resolve the fundamental differences over national belonging between the two communities in Northern Ireland, the Good Friday Agreement of 1998 seemed to offer the long awaited chance of sustainable peace and reconciliation. By looking at the various dimensions and dynamics of post conflict peace building in the political system, the economy and society of this deeply divided society, the contributors to this volume offer a comprehensive analysis of Northern Irish politics and society in the wake of the Good Friday Agreement and conclude that this is probably the best chance for a stable and long term peace that Northern Ireland has had but that the difficulties that still lie ahead must not be underestimated. Rethinking State Politics in India Ashutosh Kumar, 2012-03-12 Focusing on the twin issues of identity and development that are often signifiers of the unravelling politics in the federal polity, the book makes a concerted attempt to look at and beyond the states by exploring the specificities of the regions within these states. It does so through a comparative study from the vantage point of democratic politics as it unfurls in recent India. Emphasising that regions within the states are not merely politico administrative instituted constructs but are also imagined or constituted among others in historical, geographic, economic, sociological or cultural terms, it argues that any meaningful comparative study of the regions would naturally straddle the disciplinary boundaries of social sciences The book attempts to go beyond the states and look at the regions within them as a distinctive analytical category for an in depth study of the democratic politics of identity and development unfolding at the state level Framing cosmologies Allen Abramson, Martin Holbraad, 2016-05-16 How might the anthropological study of cosmologies the ways in which the horizons of human worlds are imagined and engaged illuminate understandings of the contemporary world This book addresses this question by bringing together anthropologists whose research is informed by a concern with cosmological dimensions of social life in different ethnographic settings Its overall aim is to reaffirm the value of the cosmological frame as a continuing source of analytical insight Attending to the novel cosmological formations that emerge in such fields as modern markets political landscapes digital media and popular cinema the book s key task is to explore how modern circumstances are constituted within the variable imagination of worlds and their horizons It will be of interest to all students and researchers in anthropology as well as scholars in fields as diverse as film studies cultural studies comparative religion science and technology studies and broader social theory Political Ritual Åsa Boholm, 1996 The Reality of His Fictions Maura Megahey, 2009 Postkoloniale Erinnerungslandschaften Larissa Förster, 2010-06-14 Die Kolonisierung Namibias durch das Deutsche Reich m ndete 1904 in einen Kolonialkrieg Herero erhoben sich gegen die deutsche Kolonialmacht diese f hrte in der Folge einen erbitterten Krieg gegen gro e Teile der afrikanischen Bev lkerung des Landes Bis heute erinnern deutsch und hererosprachige Namibier an dieses zentrale Ereignis namibischer Geschichte Larissa F rster untersucht die m ndlichen berlieferungen von Deutschen und Herero in Namibia und analysiert die Gedenkfeiern die beide Gruppen seit den 1920er Jahren regelm ig begehen Sie stellt Entstehung und Wandel ihrer Erinnerungskulturen dar und entdeckt dabei zahlreiche Verflechtungen im kolonialen wie im postkolonialen Kontext
