Reading Labels On Jam Tins:

John Flynn Ivan Rudolph, 2012 John Flynn is one of Australia's greatest folk heroes. His achievements are stuff of legend: no other Australian has had more monuments dedicated to him than John Flynn. Flynn established a network of cottage hospitals, flying doctors, patrol nurses, welfare centres and radio transmitters to create a Mantle of Safety that would allow the Outback to be habitable for men, women and children. Vite Italiane Susanna Iuliano, 2010 MULTICULTURAL STUDIES AUSTRALIAN Vite Italiane documents the migration flow of Italian immigrants from the late 1800s to the present day. This work integrates the history of the largest non-English speaking migrant group in Western Australia into the mainstream historical record and in so doing shows how the Italian speaking community has become an integral part of Western Australia and indeed the nation's social, economic and cultural fabric. Reading Labels on Jam Tins Bill Bunbury, 1993 All the major events in our history have been experienced at first hand by ordinary Australians who have lived to tell the tale.

Reading Labels on Jam Tins captures a great many of the voices of those men and women, rural battlers, immigrants, Aborigines, housewives, prospectors, to name a few, who traditionally have remained unheard in the pages of histories. Gold Iain McCalman, Alexander Cook, Andrew Reeves, 2001-03-12 Throughout history, gold has been the stuff of legends, fortunes, conflict and change. The discovery of gold in Australia 150 years ago precipitated enormous developments in the newly settled land. The population and economy boomed in spontaneous cities. The effects on both the environment and indigenous Aboriginal peoples have been profound and lasting. In this book, a team of prominent historians and curators have collaborated to produce an innovative cultural history of gold and its impact on the development of Australian society.

Invisible Country Bill Bunbury, 2015 When Europeans first settled in Australia, the land withheld many of its secrets from these new arrivals. There were broad rivers, wide plains and tall forests, all of which to European eyes suggested promising sites for settlement. However, to many of the new settlers, the First Australians, the Aboriginal people were a puzzle. They moved freely through the country; they knew it intimately. What few settlers realized then was that the Aboriginal people and the land they lived in were indistinguishable. Invisible Country describes the environmental changes that have occurred in southwestern Australia since European settlement through four case studies of the development of local rivers, forests and coastal plains. These stories, compiled through extensive conversations with farmers, ecologists, traditional owners and others who rely on the land, are book-ended by an examination of the historical perspective in which these changes have occurred. It is a reminder that the land owns the people, not the other way around, and this is the beginning of a conversation about understanding and caring for the land that all Australians are fortunate to live in. Librarians' ebook available. Subject: Australian Studies, Environmental Studies, History. Sailing on a Cusp and a Prayer Margaret Zeegers, 2024-03-03 This is a book where Jennifer Worth's Call the Midwife meets Frank McCourt's Angela's Ashes in Australia, with a nod to AB Facey's A Fortunate Life as it presents the early years of one migrant family's experience after arriving by ship in Australia in the 1950s Babies marriages childhoods and relationships in general figure prominently not only for those arriving with their large families but also for the Australians who had a similar fertility All of these have provided material for rollicking good yarns about the real people of the fictional parish St Kitts in a fictional country town in Victoria Australia going about their daily lives

Cosmopolitan Place Making in Australia Jock Collins, Branka Krivokapic-Skoko, Kirrily Jordan, Hurriyet Babacan, Narayan Gopalkrishnan, 2020-10-23 This book looks at the historical and contemporary impact of minority immigrant and ethnic communities on the built and social environment in Australian cities rural and regional areas The emphasis is on the changing social use of these buildings places of worship ethnic clubs and community associations immigrant restaurants and retail outlets museums memorials and landmarks and other places and spaces created by immigrant communities rather than on their architectural merit These places and spaces are sites of bridging and bonding social capital of social interaction between immigrant communities and their local communities In both the Australian cities and the bush an Australian colloquial term for non metropolitan dwellers the book investigates how the places built and used by minority ethnic communities have transformed Australian life in complex and sometimes contradictory ways In Sydney Brisbane and Perth the book investigates the historical development of Chinatowns and their contemporary dynamics

Gallipoli Diary 1915 Alec Riley, 2021-11-11 We had a look around through periscopes at the remains of recent fighting The dead were on top and we the living were below the general ground level The usual order of life and death were reversed So wrote Alec Riley in his account of an ordinary soldier in an extraordinary conflict the Gallipoli campaign of 1915 A signaller with the 42nd East Lancashire Division Riley was well placed to serve as an eyewitness to the sharp end of the campaign being with the infantry but not of it His task and that of the small unit he served with and whose story he tells was to maintain communications between the forward trenches and senior commanders in the rear a conduit for at times unrealistic orders one way and all too real situation reports the other During his time on the peninsula Riley kept meticulous notes which form the basis of this account He also took his camera to war the resulting photos some of which were used in the British official history of the campaign flesh out his detailed story of life in and behind the lines After four months on the peninsula suffering from jaundice septic sores and dysentery Riley was evacuated sick destined first for Mudros and then Blighty He made sure to save his diary and camera Although Gallipoli had done for Riley Riley was not done with Gallipoli Even while on the peninsula he and his comrades had looked beyond the war We tried to imagine what the place would be like when the armies had gone Achi Baba would be green again the trenches would fall in and flatten communication trenches through which thousands of men had passed would be long and shallow depressions and frogs and tortoises the only inhabitants of gully and nullah Remarkably Alec Riley returned to find out revisiting the peninsula at least twice In 1930 he spent ten days wandering across the now overgrown fields of battle on a lone pilgrimage revisiting places he knew intimately 15 years before This pilgrimage and a subsequent second visit was intended to form the basis of a book again illustrated with his trusty camera Sadly the original manuscript has been lost But the editors have identified two extracts that appeared in print which they present alongside a faithful transcript of Riley s diary and notes Also included is an unpublished introduction by General Sir Ian Hamilton commander of the Mediterranean Expeditionary Force of which Riley had been a small part and with whom Riley had a decade long correspondence The editors of the diary Michael Crane and Bernard de Broglie have added copious footnotes and detailed biographical notes on the officers and men who come to life in Riley s writings as well as an order of battle and summary of arms for the 42nd Division at Gallipoli Fourteen maps illustrate the actions large and small that Riley describes alongside 47 black and white photographs most showing the battlefield in 1915 and 1930 Gallipoli Diary 1915 will appeal to readers of WW1 and military history but especially to those with an interest in the Gallipoli campaign It will be bookended by two further diaries that record Alec Riley s mobilisation and training in Egypt and his time in the Royal Victoria Hospital Netley Collectively they offer a unique window into the experiences of a pre war Territorial soldier before during and after Gallipoli
