wanting an up to date summary of the results of archaeological and historical investigations into the changing countryside of the late Roman late antique and early medieval world between the fourth and tenth centuries AD It questions numerous aspects of change and continuity assessing the levels of impact of military and economic decay the spread and influence of Christianity and the role of Germanic Slav and Arab settlements in disrupting and redefining the ancient rural landscapes

J. Pollock,2006 The established view of burials in Wales during the Roman period has been that with a few exceptions they would conform to Roman types Dr Pollock s detailed examination of the available evidence shows that on the contrary native burial types and influences can be found during the Roman period even in heavily Romanized areas An analysis of the data is provided chronologically geographically and in terms of the function of the surrounding settlement urban rural military etc The Archaeological Journal ,2004 Discovering a Welsh Landscape Ian Brown,2004 In the far north east corner of Wales a line of hills looks east across the plain into England guarding the way towards Snowdonia Designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty the Clwydian Range has a very rich archaeology This beautifully illustrated book tells the story of this landscape a history of Wales in microcosm At the northern end of the Welsh March the Clwydian Range is a crossroads a place where outside influences have always been profound The book consequently places the Range s archaeology in the context of the broader themes in Welsh and British history We learn of the mammoth bones left in the area s caves by Paleaeolithic hunters the great chain of Iron Age hillforts that crown the Range the bronze brooches in Romano British burials from the medieval period motte and bailey castles and Gothic churches the watercourses mines and engine houses of the industrial era the Range s links with the great poet Gerard Manley Hopkins Throughout the photographs capture the spirit of Hopkins original landscape plotted and pieced The Clwydian Range is perhaps typical of Britain where places have a great depth of historical connections This book shows how much there is to be discovered Ian Brown formerly County Heritage Officer for Clwyd managed the Clwydian Range Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty Mick Sharp and Jean Williamson are two of Britain s leading archaeological and landscape photographers
