Ledbetter Th.D.,2021-07-26 In this writing we have considered how Jesus set the pattern for our early Christian faith in the Great Commission and how a spiritual battle can be expected as we learn to overcome the old sin nature We learn that the baptism by the Holy Spirit occurs when the Holy Spirit immerses the new believer spiritually into the death of Jesus on the cross As the new believer surrenders to the indwelling Christ the filling of the Holy Spirit is experienced However when we sin against the Holy Spirit by lying to grieving or quenching Him our fellowship with Jesus is broken and must be restored by confessing our sin Because we have the power of the resurrected Christ living in us we begin our new life in Christ from the position of victory seated together with Jesus in heavenly places Even though we have this position of victory we are tempted by the old sin nature but a way of escape is provided by our saying No I won t go there to the temptation Through this journey we learn to surrender our all to Jesus so He becomes our life as we live each day here on this earth When we do this Jesus lives His life through ours It is my earnest prayer this book will enable us to understand how much God loves us and who we have become in Christ Because of who Christ is in us through the Holy Spirit we have the authority to say no to the temptation of sin When Jesus is our life we live with joy peace and victory in our hearts whatever the circumstances of life may be Life Application New Testament Commentary Bruce B. Romans: A Social Identity Commentary William S. Campbell, 2023-01-26 William S Campbell provides a comprehensive commentary on Paul's most challenging letter In conversation with reception history and previous scholarship he emphasizes the contextuality of Romans as a letter to Rome using social identity theory combined with historical literary and theological perspectives to arrive at a coherent reading of the entire letter. Because Paul has never visited Rome and is not the founder of the Christ movement there, Campbell argues that his guidance and teaching are formulated more cautiously than in his other letters. Yet the long list of people who had previous links with him and his mission to the gentiles demonstrates that Paul is well informed about the situation in Rome and addresses issues that have arisen. With Christ the Messianic Time is beginning, but there was some lack of clarity in Rome about the implications of this for Jews and gentiles. Rather than ethne in Christ replacing Israel, as some in Rome possibly concluded, Campbell stresses that Paul affirms the irrevocable calling of Israel and that simultaneously the identity of ethne in Christ is also called alongside the people Israel; thus the integrity of the identity of both is affirmed as indispensable for God's purpose now revealed in Christ. Campbell fully demonstrates how Paul in Romans achieves this by the social and theological intertwining of the message of the gospel.
