

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS

CHAPTER I

I Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God.

(Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures.)

Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;

And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by surrection from the dead:

*whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name:
whom are we*

without ceasing I make mention always in my prayers;

10 Making request, if by any means length I might have a prosperous journey the will of God to come unto you.

*11 For I long to see you, that I may unto you some spiritual gift, to the end
may be established;*

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faithfulness of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I have intended unto you

The Message of the New Testament Mark Dever, 2005 Dever's expository overview covers the entire New Testament with a focus on the fulfillment of God's Old Testament promises

The Message of the New Testament (Foreword by John MacArthur) Mark Dever, 2007-05-01 The New Testament is the story of how all the promises made by God in the Old Testament were kept and what that means for us today The nation of Israel had many hopes hope for a deliverer hope for restored fellowship with God and hope for the world to be put right The New Testament explains how those promises were kept and how if we are Christians they are kept in us as well Mark Dever surveys the historical context organization and theology of each New Testament book in light of God's Old Testament promises His message is that of the New Testament itself one of hope fulfilled

Paul's Letter to the Romans and Roman Imperialism Ian E Rock, 2017-05-25 Ian E Rock demonstrates that the Letter to the Romans may be seen as an attempt by a subordinate group to redress actual and potential issues of confrontation with the Empire and to offer hope even in the face of death Paul demonstrates that it is God's peace and not

Rome's peace that is important that loyalty to the exalted Jesus as Lord and to the kingdom of God not Jupiter and Rome leads to salvation that grace flows from Jesus as Christ and Lord and not from the benefactions of the Emperor. If the resurrection of Jesus the crucified criminal of the Roman Empire demonstrates God's power over the universe and death the very instrument of Roman control then the Christ believer is encouraged to face suffering and death in the hope of salvation through this power. Paul's theology emerges from and is inextricably bound to the politics of his day the Scriptures of his people and to the critical fact that the God who is One and Lord of all is still in charge of the world. Paul's Letter to the Romans Arland J. Hultgren, 2011-05-16 Building on his own translation from the Greek Hultgren walks readers through Romans verse by verse illuminating the text with helpful comments probing into major puzzles and highlighting the letter's most inspiring features. He also demonstrates the forward looking missional character of Paul's epistle written as Hultgren suggests to introduce Roman Christians to the major themes of Paul's theology and to inspire in them both confidence in the soundness of his teaching and support for his planned missionary efforts in Spain. Holman New Testament Commentary - Romans William M. Kruidenier, Kenneth Boa, 2000-08-15 One in a series of twelve New Testament verse by verse commentary books edited by Max Anders Includes discussion starters teaching plan and more Great for lay teachers and pastors alike. The Greatest Letter Ever Written French L. Arrington, From studying Paul's letter to the Romans we can learn the content of the Christian faith like nowhere else in the New Testament Paul's words are loaded with divine truth and require careful study and thought Indeed the letter to the Romans is a theological jewel but Paul's discussions in the letter are sensible and practical As the name of the letter indicates Paul wrote it to a church in a city known as Rome At the same time without knowing it he wrote it to the whole world and for all the ages supporting the efforts of cross cultural ministry and providing a key to understanding the Bible So even though this great letter was addressed to the saints in Rome during the first century its message is eternal and its mandates are universal French L Arrington

The Letter to the Romans Stanley E. Porter, Francis G. H. Pang, 2018-05-24 Written at a time when his ideas and practices were provoking opposition even from fellow Christians the Apostle Paul articulates in his Letter to the Romans his understanding of God's plan for humanity and discusses the implications of this plan for different groups of people Romans is considered by many as the most theologically significant and sophisticated book of the Bible This volume is designed to bridge the gap between studying Romans as an academic enterprise and experiencing how Romans can speak today in the life of the church All of the chapters in this volume especially those devoted to the content of Romans were written with both exegesis and application in mind All of the contributors to this volume believe that Romans has a crucial voice within the church today and that those who preach teach and study the book need to be attentive to its witness and to its timeliness
