Romare Bearden in the Homeland of His Imagination Glenda Elizabeth Gilmore, 2022-03-10 Romare Bearden 1911 1988 one of the most prolific original and acclaimed American artists of the twentieth century richly depicted scenes and figures rooted in the American South and the Black experience Bearden hailed from North Carolina but was forced to relocate to the North when a white mob harassed his family in the 1910s His family story is a compelling complicated saga of Black middle class achievement in the face of relentless waves of white supremacy It is also a narrative of the generational trauma that slavery and racism inflicted over decades But as Glenda Gilmore reveals in this trenchant reappraisal of Bearden s life and art his work reveals his deep imagination extensive training and rich knowledge of art history Gilmore explores four generations of Bearden s family and highlights his experiences in North Carolina Pittsburgh and Harlem She engages deeply with Bearden s art and considers it as an alternative archive that offers a unique perspective on the history memory and collective imagination of Black southerners who migrated to the North In doing so she revises and deepens our appreciation of Bearden s place in the artistic canon and our understanding of his relationship to southern African American and American cultural and social history

The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Judith H. Bonner, Estill Curtis Pennington, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2013-01-14 From the Potomac to the Gulf artists were creating in the South even before it was recognized as a region The South has contributed to America s cultural heritage with works as diverse as Benjamin Henry Latrobe s architectural plans for the nation s Capitol the wares of the Newcomb Pottery and Richard Clague s tonalist Louisiana bayou scenes This comprehensive volume shows how through the decades and centuries the art of the South expanded from mimetic portraiture to sophisticated responses to national and international movements The essays treat historic and current trends in the visual arts and architecture major collections and institutions and biographies of artists themselves As leading experts on the region s artists and their work editors Judith H Bonner and Estill Curtis Pennington frame the volume s contributions with insightful overview essays on the visual arts and architecture in the American South

Howardena Pindell Sarah Louise Cowan, 2022-01-01 Exploring the art and life of this important American artist whose work bridged the gaps between abstraction feminism and Blackness Howardena Pindell Reclaiming Abstraction is a fascinating examination of the multifaceted career of artist activist curator and writer Howardena Pindell b 1943 It offers a fresh perspective on her abstract practice from the late 1960s through the early 1980s a period in which debates about Black Power feminism and modernist abstraction intersected in uniquely contentious yet generative ways Sarah Louise Cowan not only asserts Pindell s rightful place within the canon but also recenters dominant historical narratives to reveal the profound and overlooked roles that Black women artists have played in shaping modernist abstraction Pindell s career acts as a springboard for a broader study of how artists have responded during periods of heightened social activism and used abstraction to convey political urgency With works that drew on Ghanaian textiles administrative labor cosmetics and postminimalism Pindell deployed abstraction in deeply personal ways that resonated with collective African diasporic and women s practices In her groundbreaking analysis Cowan argues that such work advanced Black feminist modernisms diverse creative practices that unsettle racist and sexist logics
