Into India, Out of Africa Alistair Caldicott,2004-12-01 From the word go the style and tenor of this book is set And it doesn't take long before we realise we are in for a raunchy realistic roughish ride so seat yourself comfortably Be transported from the relentlessly chaotic assault on the senses that is India to the cool Himalayan magnificence of trekking to Everest Base Camp Through the vastness of Australia unable to escape the predictably painful experiences of England's cricket team before plunging into the outdoor activity challenges of New Zealand Then perhaps most compelling of all the continent of Africa from the bottom up An ambitious journey overland encompassing Africa's most extreme tip right up to its snow covered top Mt Kilimanjaro Here it is not so much the final destination as all that is entailed to get there that informs and entertains With a refreshing attitude this book doesn't try to be the great African travel book drowning you with its intensity Bruce Chatwin it is not But it is a breath of fairly fresh air excluding a lot of dust and some graphically described indigenous odours The tone is conversational and intimate the author takes the reader along with him on his slightly bumpy travels and there is a splendid lack of any sort of political correctness although Alistair is actually broad minded and unprejudiced minus a few Australians He understands the people he meets Without wanting to be remotely serious because he isn't this is a book that is kind and understanding of different places and people The author observes records and attempts to shed light on people places and experiences that are not of the everyday variety The traveller both experienced and of the armchair variety could have many a worse companion than this book The Geography of Sub-Saharan Africa Jill Keppeler, 2020-12-15 From savannas to rain forests to deserts the geography of Sub Saharan Africa is second to none in terms of diversity Readers will explore the brilliant dynamic landscapes and cityscapes of Sub Saharan Africa through fascinating full color photographs and fact filled text How have people adapted to the land and climate of Sub Saharan Africa and what lies in store for inhabitants as the climate starts to change This book includes fact boxes and maps to provide an exciting tour of the geography of Sub Saharan Africa General History of Africa International Scientific Committee for the drafting of a General History of Africa, 1989-12-31 One of UNESCO's most important publishing projects in the last thirty years the General History of Africa marks a major breakthrough in the recognition of Africa's cultural heritage Offering an internal perspective of Africa the eight volume work provides a comprehensive approach to the history of ideas civilizations societies and institutions of African history The volumes also discuss historical relationships among Africans as well as multilateral interactions with other cultures and continents From the Plains of Africa to the Jungles of Parliament Barry Inc. Turner, 2012-11 In the first part of the book the author regales us with real life adventures as a Game Warden in the Mkomazi Game Reserve in Northern Tanzania The work chronicles encounters with such luminaries as Patrick Hemingway and the President of Tanzania The book takes you on journeys on Mount Kilimanjaro through the Serengeti Migration and hunting and conservation experiences with and for Africa's great animals The second part of this autobiography deals with Turner's exciting life in Canadian politics where he was elected as a Progressive Conservative Member of Parliament You will read about his encounters in this jungle with such historical figures as Gorbachev Sir Edmund Hillary and many other iconic personalities Travels in the Interior Districts of Africa Mungo Park, 1799 The Seven Wonders of Southern Africa Hedley Arthur Chilvers, 1929 Africa Frank George Carpenter, 1905 Travels in the interior districts of Africa ... in ... 1795, 1796 and 1797.
