

Rhetoric, Roots, and Redemption

A close-up photograph of a field of wheat or grain, with the stalks and heads of grain in sharp focus in the foreground and slightly blurred in the background. The scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of a sunset or sunrise, with the sun visible as a bright, hazy orb in the center of the frame, creating a strong backlight effect on the grain.

Roots for a new rhetoric Daniel Fogarty, 1968 A Counter-History of Composition Byron Hawk, 2007-11-25 A Counter History of Composition contests the foundational disciplinary assumption that vitalism and contemporary rhetoric represent opposing disconnected poles in the writing tradition Vitalism has been historically linked to expressivism and concurrently dismissed as innate intuitive and unteachable whereas rhetoric is seen as a rational teachable method for producing argumentative texts Counter to this Byron Hawk identifies vitalism as the ground for producing rhetorical texts the product of complex material relations rather than the product of chance Through insightful historical analysis ranging from classical Greek rhetoric to contemporary complexity theory Hawk defines three forms of vitalism oppositional investigative and complex and argues for their application in the environments where students write and think today Hawk proposes that complex vitalism will prove a useful tool in formulating post dialectical pedagogies most notably in the context of emerging digital media He relates two specific examples of applying complex vitalism in the classroom and calls for the reexamination and reinvention of current self limiting pedagogies to incorporate vitalism and complexity theory

What is the New Rhetoric? Susan E. Thomas, 2009-03-26 The Age of Information has spawned a critical focus on human communication in a multimedia world particularly on theories and practices of writing With the worldwide web impacting increasingly on academic and business communication the need has never been greater for advanced study in writing communication and critical thinking across all genres sectors and cultures In recent decades the definitions of new rhetoric have expanded to encompass a variety of theories and movements raising the question of how rhetoric is understood and employed in the twenty first century The essays collected here represent variations on these themes with each attempting to answer the title s deliberately provocative question addressing particularly How the classical art of rhetoric is still relevant today How it is directly related to modern technologies and the new modes of communication they have generated How rhetorical practice is informing research methodologies and teaching and learning practices in the contemporary academy

Jewish Rhetorics Michael Bernard-Donals, Janice W. Fernheimer, 2014-12-02 This volume the first of its kind establishes and clarifies the significance of Jewish rhetorics as its own field and as a field within rhetoric studies Diverse essays illuminate and complicate the editors definition of a Jewish rhetorical stance as allowing speakers to maintain a resolute sense of engagement with their fellows and their community while also remaining aware of the dislocation from the members of those communities Topics include the historical and theoretical foundations of Jewish rhetorics cultural variants and modes of cultural expression and intersections with Greco Roman Christian Islamic and contemporary rhetorical theory and practice In addition the contributors examine gender and Yiddish and evaluate the actual and potential effect of Jewish rhetorics on contemporary scholarship and on the ways we understand and teach language and writing The contributors include some of the world s leading scholars of rhetoric writing and Jewish studies

James A. Berlin and Social-Epistemic Rhetorics Victor J. Vitanza, 2021-01-16 The field of rhetoric and composition has at last received a long lost message delivered in the form of Victor J Vitanza s seminar on James A Berlin In this book that is an untext on Berlin s work and its impact on the field Vitanza acquaints us with Berlin by virtue of many Berlins in multiplicity and via the figure of an excluded third that wants to deliver to us a new message that was undelivered from Berlin to us and from Vitanza to Berlin after Berlin s untimely death in 1994 A seminar on a seminar on the teaching of writing it is teaching all the way down They met at the historical NEH seminar at Carnegie Mellon in 1978 Their friendship and rhetorical dialogues spanned only sixteen years but Vitanza continues the conversation through the seminar through this book rife with reflections and yes homework for his readers and through our reception of it It is up to us now to carry it forward As Vitanza writes I would prefer not to not think that what remains unsaid stays undelivered

The Rhetoric of Antisemitism Amos Kiewe, 2020-10-28 The Rhetoric of Antisemitism focuses on the initial struggle Christianity experienced with Judaism intensifying a hatred thereof and settling on a religious dogma of eternal guilt meant to perpetuate antisemitism for eternity Kiewe tackles the similar approach Islam has taken in its tension with Judaism and how it was turned centuries later into the Arab Israeli conflict significantly with the help of Nazi antisemitism and propaganda This book discusses the significant rise of antisemitism in the 19th and 20th centuries including the forgery pamphlet The Protocols of the Elders of Zion that promoted the charge of Jewish world domination and the more recent Durban Conference 2001 as a major turning point in conflating antisemitism and anti Zionism including the linguistic games used to merge antisemitism with anti Israelism Scholars of religious studies history and rhetorical studies will find this book particularly useful New Rhetorics Martin Steinmann,1967 A Rhetoric of Literate Action Charles Bazerman,2013-09-12 Undertaken by one of the most learned and visionary scholars in the field this work has a comprehensive and culminating quality to it tracking major lines of insight into writing as a human practice and articulating the author s intellectual progress as a theorist and researcher across a career Contrastive Rhetoric Ulla Connor,1996-01-26 Shows how a person s first language and culture influence writing in a second language Perelman's New Rhetoric as Philosophy and Methodology for the Next Century M. Maneli,2013-03-14 Both Perelman s collaborators Professors Haarscher and Ingber shared with me their deep personal insights about origins birth and phases of the development of the New Rhetoric Without their good will advice and creative comments my personal knowledge would have been narrower I am grateful to the Chaim Perelman Foundation for their grant which enabled me to cover my expenses of collecting materials editing and preparing the manuscript Professor Michel Meyer was very instrumental in the negotiations with the publisher Mr Raphael Lipski treasurer of the Perelman Foundation spent many hours with me and shared his remembrances of Perelman s personality his social and political activity I owe special thanks to Dr Richard Kramer whose friendship I cherish for a quarter of a century He read and edited not only the entire text of the book but he offered many critical remarks and constructive suggestions which helped me to revise my own ideas and to formulate them more clearly and precisely The first critical reader and editor was as usual Mrs Elizabeth Previti Professor Elzbieta Ettinger Chodakowska MIT read this entire manuscript and shared with me her impressions I owe special gratitude to my dear friend Mrs Stephanie Silvers for her steady help and moral support Needless to say I am solely responsible for all the deficiencies of this book

Heidegger's Roots Charles R. Bambach,2003 There is a gap in the literature for an investigation of the shared themes between Heidegger s thought and that of the ideologists of National Socialism The author reads Heidegger s writings from 1933-45 in historical context showing his engagement with the National Socialists Scottish Rhetoric and Its Influences Lyne, Lewis Gaillet,2016-07-22 An outgrowth of the recent meeting of the International Society of the History of Rhetoric this collection challenges the reader to reexamine the broad influence of 18th and 19th century Scottish rhetoric often credited for shaping present day studies in psychology philosophy literary criticism oral communication English literature and composition The contributors examine its influence and call for a new appraisal of its importance in light of recent scholarship and archival research Many of the essays in the first section discuss the contributions of recognized influential figures including Adam Smith and Hugh Blair Other essays focus on the importance of 18th century Scottish sermons in relation to public discourse audience analysis peer evaluation and professional rhetoric Essays in the second section address 19th century rhetorical theory and its influence on North American composition practice Visions and Revisions James Dale Williams,2002 Williams Soka U California has compiled nine essays that examine rhetoric and composition from the 1960s to the present its emergence as a field the influence of linguistics and psychology in shaping an empirical agenda the waning of that influence as the field aligned itself more closely with the goals and objectives of traditional English departments the shift toward postmodern perspectives on language place and self and a move toward postmodern concerns This historical study begins with reminiscences by Richard Lloyd Jones W Ross Winterowd Frank J D Angelo and John Warnock The second section examines those changes in detail For example Williams makes the connection between rhetoric and democracy especially the influence of liberal democracy on rhetoric in society He argues that because our liberal democracy is so focused on entertainment rhetoric and composition must examine its role in relation to it

Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Landmark Essays on Contemporary Rhetoric Thomas B. Farrell, 2020-10-28 This work brings together the pivotal scholarly essays responsible for the present resurgence in rhetorical studies Assembled by one of the most respected senior scholars in the field of rhetoric the essays chart a course from tradition based theory of civic rhetoric to ongoing issues of figuration power and gender Together with a lucid introductory essay these studies help to integrate the still volatile questions at the core of humanities scholarship in rhetoric The introductory student as well as the seasoned scholar will gain familiarity and footing in this oldest and still new liberal art

Twentieth-Century Roots of Rhetorical Studies Jim A. Kuypers, Andrew King, 2001-03-30 Kuypers King and their contributors explore the conception of rhetoric of eleven key American rhetoricians through analyses of their life s work Each chapter provides a sense of that scholar s conception of rhetoric be it through criticism theory or teaching The communication discipline often highlights the work of others outside the discipline however it rarely acclaims the work of its own critics teachers and theorists In this collection the essays explore the innate mode of perception that guided the rhetorical understanding of the early critics In so doing this work dispels the myth that the discipline of Speech Communication was spawned from a monolithic and rigid center that came to be called neo Aristotelianism Scholars and researchers involved with the history of rhetoric rhetorical criticism and theory and American public address uill find this title to be a necessary addition to their collection Reclaiming Rhetorica Andrea A. Lunsford, 1995-04-15 Women s contribution to rhetoric throughout Western history like so many other aspects of women s experience has yet to be fully explored In pathbreaking discussions ranging from ancient Greece though the Middle Ages and the Renaissance to modern times sixteen closely coordinated essays examine how women have used language to reflect their vision of themselves and their age how they have used traditional rhetoric and applied it to women s discourse and how women have contributed to rhetorical theory Language specialists feminists and all those interested in rhetoric composition and communication will benefit from the fresh and stimulating cross disciplinary insights they offer Rhetoric and Reality James A.

Berlin, 1987-02-26 Berlin here continues his unique history of American college composition begun in his Writing Instruction in Nineteenth Century Colleges 1984 turning now to the twentieth century In discussing the variety of rhetorics that have been used in writing classrooms Berlin introduces a taxonomy made up of three categories objective rhetorics subjective rhetorics and transactional rhetorics which are distinguished by the epistemology on which each is based He makes clear that these categories are not tied to a chronology but instead are to be found in the English department in one form or another during each decade of the century His historical treatment includes an examination of the formation of the English department the founding of the NCTE and its role in writing instruction the training of teachers of writing the effects of progressive education on writing instruction the General Education Movement the appearance of the CCCC the impact of Sputnik and today s literacy crisis
