The Annual American Catalogue ,1897      Mother & Myth in Spanish Novels Sandra J. Schumm,2011-08-16 What if the goddess Athena who sprang fully grown from Zeus s head and denied she had a mother became aware of the compelling existence of her other parent What if she discovered that her mother Metis first wife of Zeus and wiser than all gods and mortal men according to Hesiod was swallowed by her father and continued to impart her wisdom to him from inside his belly Recent Spanish novels by women parallel this hypothetical situation based on Greek myth by featuring female protagonists who obsessively re examine the lives of their mothers seeking to know and understand them In Mother and Myth in Spanish Novels Sandra J Schumm examines six narratives by Spanish authors published since 2000 that focus on a daughter s search to know more about her matriarchal heritage Carme Riera s La mitad del alma Luc a Etxebarria s Un milagro en equilibrio Rosa Montero s El coraz n del t rtaro Cristina Cerezales s De oca a oca Mar a de la Pau Janer s Las mujeres que hay en m and Soledad Purtolas s Historia de un abrigo In each of these novels the protagonist realizes that failure to integrate the loss of her mother into her life results in the inability to define her self Without valorization of the maternal subject the legacy of the daughter is at risk she is also objectified and swallowed and the whole society suffers The daughters attention to their mothers in these novels is as if Athena had finally recognized that her mother Metis had been ingested by Zeus The myth of Metis and Athena becomes a metaphor of the daughter s quest toward wholeness and individuation in these works she begins to understand that her maternal legacy is a source of wisdom that has been obscured These novels by Spanish women strengthen the mother s voice rescue her from anonymity and rewrite the matriarchal archetype      Literary Landscapes of Time Jobst Welge,Juliane Tauchnitz,2022-11-07 The volume asks how the literatures of the Americas and the Caribbean present multiple or internally differentiated spaces and how these are distinguished or traversed by different temporalities The historical and post colonial experiences of these areas turns them into especially fertile ground for the exploration of the connections between landscape geography and historical temporal palimpsests as well as the specificities of literary form The contributions are dedicated to individual yet conceptually interconnected studies of staggered multiple non simultaneous temporalities in modern and contemporary literature The volume adopts a comparative perspective throughout and intends to foster the dialogue between the study of Latin American and Caribbean literatures in Spanish Portuguese French and English Therefore the individual essays are not grouped according to geographical or linguistic areas but follow a trajectory from spatiotemporal constellations of the 19th century to ruined catastrophic landscapes and the geopoetic inscriptions of time in regions The essays should appeal to all readers interested
