Rosa The Life Of An Italian Immigrant:

Rosa Marie Hall Ets, 1999 Rosa was born in a silk making village in Lombardy a major source of north Italian emigration She first set foot in the United States at the Castle Garden immigrant depot on the tip of Manhattan Her life in this country was hard and Ets chronicles it in eloquent detail Rosa endures a marriage at sixteen to an abusive older man an unwilling migration to a Missouri mining town the unassisted birth of a child and manages to escape from a husband who tried to force her into prostitution Rosa Marie Hall Ets, 1970 An Introduction Barbara Lee Ciccarelli, 1995 Rosa: the life of an Italian immigrant, foreword by R.J. Vecoli Marie Hall Ets, Rosa, the Life of an Italian Immigrant. Forew. by R.J. Vecoli, 1970 Immigrant Voices Thomas Dublin, 1993 A collection of ten immigrant stories from 1773 to 1986 by men and women from European Latin American and Asian countries which are based on letters diaries and oral histories

Immigrant Women in the Settlement of Missouri Robyn Burnett, Ken Luebbering, 2005-06-08 Robyn Burnett and Ken Luebbering first looked at how immigration has affected Missouri's cultural landscape in their popular book German Settlement in Missouri New Land Old Ways Now they tell the stories of women from all across Europe who left the Old World for Missouri Drawing heavily on the women's own stories Immigrant Women in the Settlement of Missouri illustrates common elements of their lives without minimizing the diversity and complexity of each individual's experience The book begins with descriptions culled from diaries letters and memoirs documenting preparations for the journey the perilous Atlantic crossing and the sometimes equally long and arduous trip from the port of entry to Missouri Burnett and Luebbering go on to examine how women once in Missouri coped with the problems of daily life in an unfamiliar and occasionally hostile environment Whether it was the hardships of the frontier the harsh realities of urban life childbirth the deaths of family members isolation or prejudice their new lives brought numerous challenges Many found success and contentment as well and the book also documents their joys and triumphs physical survival economic prosperity thriving families friendships and community celebrations Because it examines the lives of women from many social classes and ethnic backgrounds Immigrant Women in the Settlement of Missouri does much to explain the rich cultural diversity Missouri enjoys today The photographs and narratives relating to Czech French German Hungarian Irish Italian and Polish life will remind descendants of immigrants that many customs and traditions they grew up practicing have roots in their home countries and will also promote understanding of the customs of other cultures In addition to the ethnic and class differences that affected these women's lives the book also notes the impact of the various eras in which they lived their education the circumstances of their migrations and their destinations across Missouri With their engaging and straightforward narrative Burnett and Luebbering take the reader chronologically through the history of the state from the colonial period to the Civil War and industrialization Like all Missouri Heritage Readers this one is presented in an accessible format with abundant illustrations and it is sure to please both general readers and those engaged in immigrant and women's studies Multicultural

Literature and Canon Debates Mary Jo Bona, Irma Maini, 2012-02-16 This groundbreaking collection reinvigorates the debate over the inclusion of multiethnic literature in the American literary canon While multiethnic literature has earned a place in the curriculum on many large campuses it is still a controversial topic at many others as recent campus and corporate revivals of The Great Books attest Many still perceive multiethnic literature as being governed by ideological and political issues perpetuating a false distinction between highbrow literary texts and multiethnic works Through historical overviews and textual analyses the contributors not only argue for the aesthetic validity of multiethnic literature but also examine the innovative ways in which multiethnic literature is taught and critiqued The following questions are also addressed Who and what determines literary value What role do scholars students the reading public book awards and or publishers play in affirming literary value Taken together these essays underscore the necessity for maintaining vibrant conversations about the place of multiethnic literature both inside and outside the academy Gramsci, Migration, and the Representation of Women's Work in Italy and the U.S. Laura E. Ruberto, 2009-12-01 Examining films literature songs and photographs with an emphasis on a feminist materialist interpretation Producing Culture considers the representations of different kinds of labor historically performed by women in Italy and the U S in order to reassess dominant narratives about the history of Italy and of Italians in the United States Italians and Food Roberta Sassatelli, 2019-05-18 This book is a novel and original collection of essays on Italians and food Food culture is central both to the way Italians perceive their national identity and to the consolidation of Italianicity in global context More broadly being so heavily symbolically charged Italian foodways are an excellent vantage point from which to explore consumption and identity in the context of the commodity chain and the global local dialectic The contributions from distinguished experts cover a range of topics including food and consumer practices in Italy cultural intermediators and foodstuff narratives traditions of production and regional variation in Italian foodways and representation of Italianicity through food in old and new media Although rooted in sociology Italians and Food draws on literature from history anthropology semiotics and media studies and will be of great interest to students and scholars of food studies consumer culture cultural sociology and contemporary Italian studies Women, Gender and Transnational Lives Donna R. Gabaccia, Franca Iacovetta, 2002-01-01 In this transnational analysis of women and gender in Italy's world wide migration Franca Iacovetta and Donna Gabaccia challenge the stereotype of the Italian immigrant woman as silent and submissive a woman who stays in the shadows Out to Work Alice Kessler-Harris, 2003-02-13 First published in 1982 this pioneering work traces the transformation of women's work into wage labor in the United States identifying the social economic and ideological forces that have shaped our expectations of what women do Basing her observations upon the personal experience of individual American women set against the backdrop of American society Alice Kessler Harris examines the effects of class ethnic and racial patterns changing perceptions of wage work for women and the relationship between wage earning and family roles In the 20th Anniversary Edition of this landmark

To be Suddenly White Steven J. Belluscio, 2006 To Be Suddenly White explores the troubled relationship between literary passing and literary realism the dominant aesthetic motivation behind the late nineteenth and early twentieth century ethnic texts considered in this study Steven J Belluscio uses the passing narrative to provide insight into how the representation of ethnic and racial subjectivity served in part to counter dominant narratives of difference To Be Suddenly White offers new readings of traditional passing narratives from the African American literary tradition such as James Weldon Johnson's The Autobiography of an Ex Coloured Man Nella Larsen's Passing and George Schuyler's Black No More It is also the first full length work to consider a number of Jewish American and Italian American prose texts such as Mary Antin's The Promised Land Anzia Yezierska's Bread Givers and Guido d Agostino's Olives on the Apple Tree as racial passing narratives in their own right Belluscio also demonstrates the contradictions that result from the passing narrative's exploration of racial subjectivity racial difference and race itself When they are seen in comparison ideological differences begin to emerge between African American passing narratives and white ethnic Jewish American and Italian American passing narratives According to Belluscio the former are more likely to engage in a direct critique of ideas of race while the latter have a tendency to become more simplistic acculturation narratives in which a character moves from a position of ethnic difference to one of full American identity The desire to be suddenly white serves as a continual point of reference for Belluscio enabling him to analyze how writers even when overtly aware of the problematic nature of race especially African American writers are also aware of the conditions it creates the transformations it provokes and the consequences of both By examining the content and context of these works Belluscio elucidates their engagement with discourses of racial and ethnic differences assimilation passing and identity an approach that has profound implications for the understanding of American literary history

By the Breath of Their Mouths Mary Jo Bona, 2012-02-01 In By the Breath of Their Mouths Mary Jo Bona examines the oral uses of language and the liberating power of speech in Italian American writing as well as its influences on generations of assimilated Italian American writers Probing and wide ranging Bona's analysis reveals the lasting importance of storytelling and folk narrative their impact on ethnic working class and women's literatures and their importance in shaping multiethnic literature Drawing on a wide range of material from several genres including oral biographies fiction film poetry and memoir and grounded in recent theories of narrative and autobiography postcolonial theory and critical multiculturalism By the Breath of Their Mouths is must reading for students in Italian American studies in particular and ethnic studies and multiethnic literature more generally

From Pioneer to Nomad Leonardo Buonomo, 2003 In these essays Leonardo Buonomo reconsiders the Italian American experience from the point of view of the close relationship between writing and the processes of identity construction The authors analysed in this study Luigi Palma di Cesnola Sister Blandina Segale Emanuel Carnevali John Fante Jerre Mangione and Pasquale Verdicchio have found on the written page their true homeland the place from which to survey critically the North American scene These authors range from the second half of the nineteenth century to the present and are representative of different social and regional backgrounds as well as of different facets of hyphenated identity in North America Reading their works the author argues means discovering a significant range of voices and a complex set of cultural issues that attest to the increasingly rich history and evolution of Italian American literature This volume also makes available Luigi Palma di Cesnola's important memoir of 1865 Ten Months in Libby Prison
