Rosamund Queen Of The Lombards:

Rosamund, Queen of the Lombards Algernon Charles Swinburne, 2022-11-22 Algernon Charles Swinburne's Rosamund Queen of the Lombards is a masterful verse drama that intricately weaves themes of love, betrayal, and the inexorable passage of time against the backdrop of historical events. Swinburne employs a rich and ornate literary style characterized by musicality and vivid imagery, echoing the poetic trends of the Victorian era while also drawing on classical influences. The work explores the tragic figure of Rosamund, capturing her emotional depth and the political turmoil of her reign delivered through a series of dramatic monologues and dialogues that elevate the narrative into a lyrical exploration of the human condition. Swinburne, an influential figure in Victorian literature, was known for his fascination with historical subjects and strong female characters. His exposure to the complexities of life and art, coupled with his extensive classical education, culminated in this poignant portrayal of a woman's struggles against a patriarchal society. Having been emboldened by his predecessors, particularly the Romantic and Aesthetic movements, Swinburne channels his insights into the passionate and tumultuous life of Rosamund, blending history with profound emotional resonance. This captivating play is recommended for readers interested in lyrical drama, historical narratives, and the exploration of identity and power dynamics. Swinburne's poetic prowess ensures that Rosamund Queen of the Lombards resonates on multiple levels, inviting audiences to reflect on love's complexity and the price of ambition. A must-read for enthusiasts of Victorian literature, this work is an invitation to delve into a world where beauty and tragedy elegantly intertwine. Rosamund, Queen of the Lombards

Rosamund: Believe it not at all, Wouldst thou think shame of me lightly, She loves: As might a maid whose kin were northern gods,
The fairest faced of warriors' Lombard-born, Thine Almachides' Albovine. If he loves not her,
More fool is he than warrior, even though war have wakened laughter in his eyes, and left his golden hair fresh gilded when his hand had won the crown that clasps a boy's brows close. With first-born sign of battle, Rosamund, No such fool may live in such a warrior if he love not. Some loveliness not hers, No face as bright crowned with so fair a Mayflower crown of praise, Lacked ever yet love if its eyes were set with all their soul to loveward.
