The Emotional Politics of Racism Paula Ioanide, 2015-05-20 With stop and frisk laws new immigration policies and cuts to social welfare programs majorities in the United States have increasingly supported intensified forms of punishment and marginalization against Black Latino Arab and Muslim people in the United States even as a majority of citizens claim to support colorblindness and racial equality With this book Paula Ioanide examines how emotion has prominently figured into these contemporary expressions of racial discrimination and violence How U S publics dominantly feel about crime terrorism welfare and immigration often seems to trump whatever facts and evidence say about these politicized matters Though four case studies the police brutality case of Abner Louima the exposure of torture at Abu Ghraib the demolition of New Orleans public housing units following Hurricane Katrina and a proposed municipal ordinance to deny housing to undocumented immigrants in Escondido CA Ioanide shows how racial fears are perpetuated and how these widespread fears have played a central role in justifying the expansion of our military and prison system and the ongoing divestment from social welfare But Ioanide also argues that within each of these cases there is opportunity for new mobilizations for ethical witnessing we must also popularize desires for justice and increase people's receptivity to the testimonies of the oppressed by reorganizing embodied and unconscious structures of feeling Televised Presidential Debates in a Changing Media Environment Edward A. Trump While Listening to "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" Rodney Wallace Kennedy, 2025-08-21 Democracy now exists in a state of precarity The anti democratic swing in America s mood has been orchestrated by President Donald Trump He has used demagoguery a false populism fear and a spirit of resentment and revenge to enthrall the masses His excessive rhetoric has divided and angered the nation The essays in this book dissent from Trump his rhetoric his actions his lies his deceptions and his lack of respect for the rule of law All the negative descriptions of President Trump can be summarized in one theological term Evil His actions are those of a person who is the incarnation of evil My protests have now continued for more than nine years Democracy can t survive without dissent This is a book of dissent
