Bonior, 2014-10-28 Did you ever wonder what a member of congress was like as a juvenile roaming the streets of his or her neighborhood Probably not But nevertheless all of these people in our nation's capital were once kids They grew up with a set of interests and values that they would take with them to the halls of a great democracy Tracing his roots back to the small and large towns in Europe Bonior recounts for us the coming of age of his boyhood in the Polish Ukrainian community of Hamtramck Michigan The foundations of his boyhood his Catholicism and athleticism were where he often sought and found comfort It was then he learned to embrace the struggle of the underdog He was taught the value of work by a loving yet taciturn father and grandfather And he grew up faster than most boys his age as he lived with the specter of his mother's early death at 37 years of age David Bonior was a working class kid with big dreams This book is about the lessons of his youth and how he used them to navigate life on Detroit's Eastside How he became a leader in his community on and off the sports field and then used those skills to become not only a member of congress but the House Whip the number two person in his party in the United States House of Representatives This is a book of early memories It's about Elbowing his way into memory It is about an American town where he took his first step said his first word and learned the fundamental life lessons that made him the legislator he was and the person he will always be Fully illustrated with period and family photographs this story is an invocation of a truly American life Newsletter, 1982 All In With Love James Gardiner, 2022-08-19 Imagine stepping into the spotlight of New York and Hollywood a lifestyle where stardom celebrity life and a Chippendale bow tie were the everyday norm Fame was the dream of an innocent young boy that played out in the heart of a man who in turn lost sight of the boy within This is their story Born with severe asthma and enormous dreams James Gardiner began his life in conflict with himself Little Jimmy wanted to reach for the stars like his science fiction icons and become a sports superstar like the paper heroes that adorned the walls of his childhood bedroom But as a frequent visitor to the local hospital viewing the world through the plastic walls of an oxygen tent such dreams seemed like they would always be firmly out of reach However it was there on the pediatric wing that he began to entertain audiences with his stories and charm growing to like the attention In fact to crave it He wanted to be somebody and for the first time his dreams didn't seem quite so out of reach As he got older and his asthma became more manageable he began forging his path of destiny First through the sport of rowing where the fragile young man dared to challenge his asthma and strive for the Olympic podium Then it was his lust to be a movie star that thrust him into New York City and Los Angeles to world of fashion celebrity and even murder But it was his one unanswerable question that repeatedly seemed to leave his life in shambles Can his fantasy life be his reality became the albatross that hung over the man and the boy Somewhere along the way he had lost touch with that childlike part of himself that looked at the world each day with joy and wonder Looking back he had gone all in on his quest to be somebody but now as a middle aged man left with nothing and no one it was time to reconnect with little Jimmy and go all in on himself to go all in with love Within their story of reconnection lies the gateway to reclaim your inner child and live your best most authentic life

Cartographies of Travel and Navigation James R. Akerman,2010-11-15 Finding one s way with a map is a relatively recent phenomenon In premodern times maps were used if at all mainly for planning journeys in advance not for guiding travelers on the road With the exception of navigational sea charts the use of maps by travelers only became common in the modern era indeed in the last two hundred years maps have become the most ubiquitous and familiar genre of modern cartography Examining the historical relationship between travelers navigation and maps Cartographies of Travel and Navigation considers the cartographic response to the new modalities of modern travel brought about by technological and institutional developments in the twentieth century Highlighting the ways in which the travelers operators and planners of modern transportation systems value maps as both navigation tools and as representatives of a radical new mobility this collection brings the cartography of travel by road sea rail and air to the forefront placing maps at the center of the history of travel and movement Richly and colorfully illustrated Cartographies of Travel and Navigation ably fills the void in historical literature on transportation mapping
