Routes to Roots Icy Kwok,2003 The Chinese Face in Australia Lucille Lok-Sun Ngan,Chan Kwok-bun,2012-06-07

The book explains how multi generational Australian born Chinese ABC negotiate the balance of two cultures It explores both the philosophical and theoretical levels focusing on deconstructing and re evaluating the concept of Chineseness At a social and experiential level it concentrates on how successive generations of early migrants experience negotiate and express their Chinese identity The diasporic literature has taken up the idea of hybrid identity construction largely in relation to first and second generation migrants and to the sojourner s sense of roots in a diasporic setting somewhat lost in the debate over Chinese diasporas and identities are the experiences of long term migrant communities Their experiences are usually discussed in terms of the melting pot concepts of assimilation and integration that assume ethnic identification decreases and eventually disappears over successive generations Based on ethnography fieldwork and participant observation on multi generational Australian born Chinese whose families have resided in Australia from three to six generations this study reveals a contrasting picture of ethnic identification Chinese Adolescents in Britain and Hong Kong Gajendra

Hinnells,2005-04-28 What is the distinctive Zoroastrian experience and what is the common diasporic experience The Zoroastrian Diaspora is the outcome of twenty years of research and of archival and fieldwork in eleven countries involving approximately 250 000 miles of travel It has also involved a survey questionnaire in eight countries yielding over 1 840 responses This is the first book to attempt a global comparison of Diaspora groups in six continents Little has been written about Zoroastrian communities as far apart as China East Africa Europe America and Australia or on Parsis in Mumbai post Independence Each chapter is based on unused original sources ranging from nineteenth century archives to contemporary newsletters The book also includes studies of Zoroastrians on the Internet audio visual resources and the modern development of Parsinovels in English As well as studying the Zoroastrians for their own inherent importance this book contextualizes the Zoroastrian migrations within contemporary debates on Diaspora studies John R Hinnells examines what it is like to be a religious Asian in Los Angeles or London Sydney or Hong Kong Moreover he explores not only how experience differs from one country to another but also the differences between cities in the same country for example Chicago and Houston The survey data is used firstly to consider the distinguishing demographic features of the Zoroastrian communities in various countries and secondly to analyse different patterns of assimilation between different groups men and women and according to the level and type of education Comparisons are also drawn between people from rural and urban backgrounds and between generations in religious beliefs and practices including the preservation of secular culture Elihu Root Collection of United States Documents Relating to the Philippine Islands, 1907 The Jews of Africa and Asia: Contemporary Anti-Semitism and other pressures Tudor Parfitt, 1987-11-01 The archetypal oppressed minority For centuries Jews have lived in Africa and Asia including the Middle East Over recent decades however their numbers have declined dramatically and in countries like Syria Iraq Iran Egypt and Morocco have been reduced sometimes to only a few hundred people Within a few generations these and other communities are likely to disappear altogether either because of the attraction that Israel provides or because of overt anti Semitic animosity For many there is a precarious balance between survival and persecution Persecution of Jews by a variety of host societies permeates history and continents In Europe anti Jewish prejudice existed in Greek and Roman times and later the Christian church waged ideological warfare for centuries against the synagogue Wide scale and violent destruction of Jewish lives and property erupted periodically especially in troubled times when people looked for scapegoats Waves of European Christian anti Semitism spread to many countries chiefly to areas of the Islamic world where traditional social and religious attitudes towards Jews provided fertile soil for discrimination Under Islam the State was required to protect Jews but they were nearly always reduced to second class citizens Alarming anti Semitic hostility has recently spread to countries where Jews have never lived and are virtually unknown such as in Japan By contrast there are a few countries in which small and less historic Jewish communities continue without discrimination The Jews of Africa and Asia the new Minority Rights Group Report provides an historical analysis of European and Islamic experiences of anti Jewish prejudice and persecution and the rise of contemporary anti Zionism The Report gives a graphic detailed picture of the current situations of Jewish communities remaining in Africa and Asia in a country by country survey It is essential reading for all those concerned with racism and history Living Transnationally between Japan and Brazil Sarah A. LeBaron von Baeyer, 2019-11-29 Based on over two years of participant observation in labor brokerage firms factories schools churches and people's homes in Japan and Brazil Sarah LeBaron von Baeyer presents an ethnographic portrait of what it means in practice to live transnationally that is to contend with the social institutional and aspirational landscapes bridging different national settings Rather than view Japanese Brazilian labor migrants and their

Yen, 2020-08-13 In 2017 Michael completed the first book in his planned trilogy From Physical to Metaphysical in Four Steps and One Giant Leap where he explored how we can separate from our materialistic attachment by seeing past our bodies our emotions and our thoughts After these three steps Michael illustrated how by enhancing and refining our life energy we can take one giant leap into metaphysical consciousness In Places Beyond Belief he expands on the concepts raised in the first book and also details some of his out of body experiences OBE that offer direct evidence of how the non physical envelops our material reality Michael also tells the story of how encounters in material reality with ghosts qigong masters psychics a living Buddha and extraterrestrials prepared him for having OBEs Building on the events covered in the first book Michael recounts how in trying to uncover the true nature of his UFO experiences he turned to using OBEs as a way to find answers about the reality of the beings he encountered What he found was not what he expected and lead to his discovery of the field of spirit release therapy and the large body of psychological literature that the subject has produced since William Baldwin s Spirit Releasement Therapy A Technique Manual was published in 1995 While disclosing intimately personal experiences to illustrate his points Michael also takes time to discuss the big issues of the day highlighting how personal and spiritual development is intricately linked to how well we live in the material world Coming three years after his first book Places Beyond Belief follows Michael s journey deeper into the metaphysical world that he was only first discovering when he wrote One Giant Leap By daring to let direct experience be the guide Michael went to places beyond belief and came back to write about it Gardeners' Chronicle ,1907 The Female missionary intelligencer ,1867 Inside the World's Major East Asian Collections Patrick Lo,Dickson KW Chiu,Allan Cho,2017-05-03 Inside the World s Major East Asian Collections examines the rise of the LAM an acronym that stands for libraries archives and museums In doing so this book profiles leading experts librarians archivists and museum curators who specialise in East Asian collections from across the world In examining the dynamically shifting role of the cultural institution in the context of managing information and collections this book provides important themes offered by these cultural experts in understanding the necessary professional skills knowledge and personalities that are required for working in such environments of varying size scope and composition in LAMs As galleries LAMs manage preservation and access of history and culture and their missions and goals as cultural institutions continue to converge As collecting institutions LAMs share the common mandate to preserve and make accessible primary resources valuable for researchers and professionals as well as the public LAMs are mostly publicly funded publicly accountable institutions collecting cultural heritage materials Another aim of this book is to enhance the visibility and recognise the efforts of the LAM professionals as cultural institution leaders since much of their great contributions in the respective fields to preserving our cultural and documentary heritages have gone unnoticed outside their parent institutions Examines the roles and goals of cultural institutions Brings collections to life through interviews with LAM experts Presents LAMs with a focus on East Asia Serves as a platform for LAM professionals to share and exchange experiences and insights
