The Far Traveler Nancy Marie Brown,2008-10-06 The remarkable story of Gudrid the female explorer who sailed from Iceland to the New World a millennium ago Five hundred years before Columbus a Viking woman named Gudrid sailed off the edge of the known world She landed in the New World and lived there for three years giving birth to a baby before sailing home Or so the Icelandic sagas say Even after archaeologists found a Viking longhouse in Newfoundland no one believed that the details of Gudrid's story were true. Then in 2001 a team of scientists discovered what may have been this pioneering woman's last house buried under a hay field in Iceland just where the epic tales suggest it could be. Joining scientists experimenting with cutting edge technology and the latest archaeological techniques and tracing Gudrid's steps on land and in the sagas The Far Traveler reconstructs a life that spanned and expanded the bounds of the then known world. It also sheds new light on the society that gave rise to a woman even more extraordinary than legend has painted her and illuminates the reasons for its collapse.
