British Subjects

Nigel Rapport, 2020-05-25 The anthropology of Britain is hotly debated What does it mean to live in Britain and to be British and is an anthropology of Britain even a legitimate undertaking British Subjects presents a forthright voice in this debate Key anthropological concerns such as community rationality aesthetics the body power work and leisure nationalism and transnationalism are found reflected in the lives of a wide range of British subjects from farmers to dancers children to retired miners new agers to entrepreneurs In disputing traditional claims that anthropology at home and of one's own is misconceived unnecessary or unperceptive this book clearly establishes that an anthropology of Britain can set excellent standards of subtle ethnography and complex analysis Providing a nuanced appreciation of the intricacies of British society this book shows how the anthropological study of Britain can offer an enlightening paradigm for the study of individual lives Toward a Sound Ecology Jeff Todd Titon, 2020-08-25 How does sound ecology an acoustic connective tissue among communities also become a basis for a healthy economy and a just community Jeff Todd Titon's lived experiences shed light on the power of song the ecology of musical cultures and even cultural sustainability and resilience In Toward a Sound Ecology Titon's collected essays address his growing concerns with people making music holistic ecological approaches to music and sacred transformations of sound Titon also demonstrates how to conduct socially responsible fieldwork and compose engaging and accessible ethnography that speaks to a diverse readership Toward a Sound Ecology is an anthology of Titon's key writings which are situated chronologically within three particular areas of interest fieldwork cultural and musical sustainability and sound ecology According to Titon a foundational figure in folklore and ethnomusicology a re-orientation away from a world of texts and objects and toward a world of sound connections will reveal the basis of a universal kinship The Royal Ballet, 1965 The Royal opera house Covent Garden Ltd presents the Royal ballet under the management of S Hurok director Frederick Ashton assistant directors John Field John Hart Michael Somes principal conductor John Lanchbery resident choreographer Kenneth MacMillan conductor Emanuel Young guest conductor Joseph Levine A World of Work Ilana M. Gershon, 2015-11-25 Ever wondered what it would be like to be a street magician in Paris A fish farmer in Norway A costume designer in Bollywood This playful and accessible look at different types of work around the world delivers a wealth of information and advice about a wide array of jobs and professions The value of this book is twofold For young people or middle aged people who are undecided about their career paths and feel constrained in their choices A World of Work offers an expansive vision For ethnographers this book offers an excellent example of using the practical details of everyday life to shed light on larger structural issues Each chapter in this collection of ethnographic fiction could be considered a job manual Yet not any typical job manual to do justice to the ways details about jobs are conveyed in culturally specific ways the authors adopt a range of voices and perspectives One chapter is written as though it was a letter from an older sister counseling her brother on how to be a doctor in Malawi Another is framed as a eulogy for a well loved village magistrate in Papua New Guinea who may have been killed by sorcery Beneath the novelty of the examples are some serious messages that Ilana Gershon highlights in her introduction These ethnographies reveal the connection between work and culture the impact of societal values on the conditions of employment Readers will be surprised at how much they can learn about an entire culture by being given the chance to understand just one occupation Constant Lambert Stephen Lloyd, 2014 To the economist and ballet enthusiast John Maynard Keynes he was potentially the most brilliant man he'd ever met to Dame Ninette de Valois he was the greatest ballet conductor and advisor this country has ever had to the composer Denis ApIvor he was the greatest most lovable and most entertaining personality of the musical world whilst to the dance critic Clement Crisp he was quite simply a musician of genius Yet sixty years after his death Constant Lambert is little known today As a composer he is remembered for his jazz inspired The Rio Grande but little more and for a man who devoted the greater part of his life to the establishment of English ballet his work is largely unrecognized today This book looks not only at his music but at his journalism his talks for the BBC his championing of jazz in particular Duke Ellington and more privately his longstanding affair with Margot Fonteyn

Book jacket Wastwater' and 'T5' Simon Stephens, 2011-03-31 You make one decision It stays with you It s like the consequences of it get into your bones Set on the edges of Heathrow airport Wastwater is an elliptical triptych a snapshot of three different couples who make a choice that will define the fallout of their future Harry is on the point of leaving England and Frieda knows she will never see him again Lisa and Mark are on the point of a sexual betrayal that takes them into a place darker than they ever thought possible Sian has a terrifying deal for Jonathan and she isn t going to take no for an answer A reflective piece by a playwright at the height of his powers and career Wastwater mimics the flexible and innovative form of Stephens s hit play Pornography with three overlapping but detachable parts which can be split and played in differing orders The play contains Stephens s trademark combination of sensitive character depiction and tough confrontation with political choices Wastwater is a meditative morality tale and a portrayal of modern day relationships formed and deformed by fatal decisions inevitable consequences and fragile connections This volume also contains the monologue T5 which portrays a road trip below the heart of London and follows a darkly magical flight out of the edges of the 21st century
