Producer of Controversy Jennifer Frost,2017-10-27 With films ranging from High Noon to Guess Who s Coming to Dinner Stanley Kramer 1913 2001 was one of the most successful and prolific director producers of his day But even as critics praised his courage in taking on such issues as nuclear war racism fascism and the battle between science and religion others condemned his work as emptily pretentious and hollow falsely sentimental overproduced Whether Kramer was one of the great filmmakers of all time Kevin Spacey at the Golden Globe Awards or one of Hollywood s worst directors preeminent film critic Andrew Sarris in The Village Voice he had a strong and undeniable influence on American culture during the Cold War Producer of Controversy is the first book to take a close up look at Kramer s career films and liberal politics in an effort to explain his contributions and historical significance Kramer learned filmmaking within the old studio system but over a career spanning forty years he did much to shape the independent moviemaking that emerged after World War II Jennifer

Frost pays particular attention to four of his key message movies The Defiant Ones On the Beach Inherit the Wind and Judgment at Nuremberg to show how Kramer's controversial films opened up public debate about the most important issues of his time among average filmgoers as well as professional critics political commentators and public figures In this context she for the first time fully documents the Hollywood Right's attacks on Kramer in the 1950s details his resistance to the anticommunist Red Scare and the Hollywood blacklist exposes his role as a cultural diplomat with the Soviet Union and reveals his important contribution to the liberal and radical politics of the 1960s Her book is at once an absorbing work of cultural history and a thoroughgoing reassessment of Stanley Kramer's place in the pantheon of American filmmakers

Liberty Means Freedom for All Steven H. Propp, 2012-11-16 Thomas Anderson has just graduated from CSU Stentoria with his degree in Political Science It's an election year and as a young progressive in California who has been raised by equally progressive parents he is very much concerned with the political issues currently being discussed in the mass media A chance encounter with a fellow graduate named Kelly Kelso however shakes up his settled view of the world He is challenged to examine the rising number of alternatives to the two party system presented by third party movements such as the Libertarian Party and the Green Party and is forced to acknowledge that there is far more to politics than simply Democrat versus Republican and liberal versus conservative Thomas delves energetically into not only the growing Libertarian movement but the free market perspective of the Austrian School of economics as well as the rigid yet compelling view of Ayn Rand's philosophy of Objectivism His explorations grow wider now encompassing the Tea Party movement and the Christian Right tax resisters and gun rights advocates survivalists and militia members anarchists communists and Democratic Socialists as well as the Occupy Wall Street movement He debates the radical environmental views of animal welfare and animal rights advocates and challenges opponents of corporate globalism as well as deniers of global warming as he struggles to reformulate and articulate his own developing beliefs while coping with a sea of conflicting ideas and opposition But this abstract political theory is brought into sharp encounter with concrete political reality when Thomas hears a news report of an armed conflict with authorities taking place just outside of town involving someone with whom he has become emotionally involved
