Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577 1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547 1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist s approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600 08 this volume highlights Rubens s high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens s early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens s Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close looking case studies demonstrate Rubens s commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens s intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age

"Rubens and the Archaeology of Myth, 1610-1620" Aneta Georgievska-Shine, 2017-07-05 Focusing on four Rubens paintings created between 1610 and 1620 Prometheus Bound The Rape of the Daughters of Leucippus Juno and Argus and The Finding of Erichthonius this book re examines the artist s approach to classical mythology These theoretically informed readings provide a fuller understanding of the dynamics of Rubens s copious visual language and can serve as methodological templates for looking at and reading of many other of his complex inventions Even by the standards of erudition commonly applied to Rubens s oeuvre as a whole these four paintings were created during a period characterized by a particularly intense engagement on his part with questions of artistic originality and ideal style Furthermore the learned themes of these images clearly point to a rarefied audience that could appreciate the intertextual qualities of ancient myths Like the artist himself these ideal beholders cultivated a mode of viewing steeped in classical and renaissance theories of literary and rhetorical composition Thus through these close readings the author illuminates the manner in which the rhetorical and poetic conventions of the period as well as the growing appreciation for the various allegorical layers of fables lead to a better understanding of Rubens's pictorial archaeology of classical myths Peasant Scenes and Landscapes Larry Silver, 2012-01-04 Larry Silver investigates the origins of new pictorial types and their media as a phenomenon of sixteenth century Antwerp and interprets several pictorial genres as he charts their evolution and their role in the development and marketing of individual artistic styles The Ashgate Research Companion to Dutch Art of the Seventeenth Century Wayne Franits, 2017-07-05 Despite the tremendous number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public's ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field As the first study of its kind this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research Its 19 chapters divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently Landscape between Ideology and the Aesthetic Andrew Hemingway, 2016-11-28 At a time of growing interest in relations between Marxism and Romanticism Andrew Hemingway's essays on British art and art theory reopen the question of Romantic painting's ideological functions and in some cases its critical purchase Half the volume exposes the voices of competing class interests in aesthetics and art theory in the tumultuous years of British history between the American Revolution and the 1832 Parliamentary Reform Act Half offers new perspectives on works by some of the most important landscape painters of the time John Constable J M W Turner John Crome and John Sell Cotman Four essays are hitherto unpublished and the remainder have been updated and in several cases substantially rewritten for this volume Leonardo da Vinci - Nature and Architecture Constance Moffatt, Sara Taglialagamba, 2019-06-17 The second volume of Leonardo Studies explores a dual theme of nature and architecture offering a wide ranging overview of current Leonardo scholarship on these two abundant subjects While Leonardo worked on his Treatise on Painting he noted that understanding the physical properties of nature must precede individual projects of painting or designing buildings The volume begins with the Trattato and follows with physics geology painting that imitates architectural structure and vice versa and proceeds to architectural projects questions of attribution urban planning and and the dissemination of Leonardo's writings in the Trattato and its historiography This impressive group of articles constitutes not only new research but also a departure point for future studies on these topics Contributors are Janis Bell Andrea Bernardoni Marco Carpicci Paolo Cavagnero Fabio Colonnese Kay Etheridge Diane Ghirardo Claudio Giorgione Domenico Laurenza Catherine Luchek Silvio Mara Jill Pederson Richard Schofield Sara Taglialagamba Cristiano Tessari Marco Versiero and Raffaella Zama Landscape and Philosophy in the Art of Jan
