A decorative red circular graphic element, resembling a stylized sun or a lens flare, is positioned to the right of the text 'Julius Meier-Graefe'. It has a soft, glowing red center that fades into a lighter red and then into the white background.

Rubens Landscapes:

Peter Paul Rubens (1577-1640) and His Landscapes Corina Kleinert, 2014 Painting landscapes was very much a private activity for Peter Paul Rubens Whilst the majority of his other works were commissioned the landscapes seem to have been painted for his own pleasure and delight and stayed in the artist's possession until his death Most of them were painted in the last decade of his life a happy period in which Rubens retired from public duties and spent most of his free time studying the antique and enjoying sojourns on his country estate castle Het Steen To grasp this profoundly personal character of Rubens's landscapes this book considers the artist's highly complex method of pictorial invention to illuminate the perception implementation dissemination and posthumous reception of views on nature and landscape as depicted in Rubens's landscape art By investigating contemporary notions on the changing perception of nature and landscape in late 16th and early 17th century southern Netherlandish culture Rubens's position within this socio cultural matrix will be established thus shedding new light on the artist's own perception of nature and landscape The re assessment of the influence of classical and contemporary ideas about nature and landscape as well as Rubens's personal sense of place will illuminate important characteristics which further define Rubens's ideas about nature implemented in his landscape art Also fresh light will be cast on the sudden promulgation and dissemination of Rubens's apparently private views on nature and landscape through a novel examination of the print series of the Small and Large Landscapes reproducing the artist's landscapes The final theme in this illuminating book considers the posthumous reception of Rubens's painted ideas of landscape The book also contains an updated version of the catalogue raisonné of Rubens's landscape art supplemented by a record of the Small and Large Landscapes prints series

Rubens Lucy Davis, 2020-09-01 A beautifully illustrated guide to Rubens's two greatest landscape paintings Rubens's The Two Great Landscapes is a handsomely illustrated monograph that brings together Rubens's two greatest landscape paintings A View of Het Steen in the Early Morning and The Rainbow Landscape Painted as pendants the pair have been in London since 1803 when they were separated the former eventually entering the collection of the National Gallery and the latter that of The Wallace Collection The book puts the creation of these two landscapes into the full context of Rubens's later life and his semi retirement It demonstrates how they are the zenith of his achievements as a landscape painter and explores how he drew skillfully on Flemish influences including Bruegel in creating two highly original compositions Written to engage and appeal to the non specialist reader and academic alike the book makes an important contribution to scholarship in the field including original technical research and new photography that show how these complex compositions evolved iteratively as the panels onto which they were painted were expanded It also presents an updated and almost complete history of the provenance of the two paintings describing their passage through eminent collections from the time of Rubens's death until they reached their respective collections in London separated by less than a mile

Rubens's landscape paintings re-examining their chronology and their construction and reconsidering the works in the context of Rubens's life and artistic concerns. He begins his survey by placing the landscapes in the tradition of Flemish landscape painting in particular, showing their relationship to the work of Pieter Bruegel the Elder whose Flight into Egypt was owned by Rubens. He looks at Rubens's early landscapes completed in the years following his return from Italy in 1608, immediately raising one of the principal themes of the book: how these paintings were made. A chapter is devoted to Landscape with Het Steen in which he describes Rubens's life as a country gentleman, his purchase of the estate of Het Steen and the time he spent there in the 1630s with his second wife and young family, and discusses the composition of Landscape with Het Steen and its pendant, the Landscape with a Rainbow now in the Wallace Collection, London. He also considers Rubens's pastoral landscapes of the 1630s, showing how their mood was influenced by classical literature. Rubens's working methods, his drawing from nature, his adaptation of landscape motifs in the studio, his use of oil sketches, are compared with contemporary landscape practice, and in a chapter on the making of the landscapes, Dr Brown describes the construction, preparation, and the ground of the panels Rubens used for his landscape paintings and the panelmakers who made them. Finally, he considers the last years at Het Steen and the ways in which Rubens's essentially private landscape paintings were made known during his lifetime and later, for example, through engravings, and looks at the influence of these works on British painters, particularly Gainsborough and Constable.

Landscape and Western Art Malcolm Andrews, 1999. This book explores many issues raised by the range of ideas and images of the natural world in Western art since the Renaissance. The whole concept of landscape is examined as a representation of the relationship between the human and natural worlds. Featured artists include Claude, Friedrich, Turner, Cole, and Ruisdael, and many different forms of landscape art are addressed, such as landscape painting, photography, garden design, panorama, and cartography.

Deviant Landscapes Fivos Papadimitriou, Olaf Kühne, 2025-04-11. Deviant landscapes can be physical or digital or outright fictitious. Whatever their nature or context, they do not conform to normality. Deviant landscapes can be encountered on the face of the earth, on computer screens, in people's minds. This anthology presents varying perspectives on deviant landscapes, widening the theoretical framework of spatial and landscape research by delving into the hitherto almost uncharted realm of deviant landscapes in a way that is missing in the academic literature. It exposes a variety of perspectives on deviant landscapes from disparate scientific domains, i.e., geography, literary studies, sociology, game studies, cultural studies, and delivers useful insights into the diverse theoretical approaches that can be adopted to examine such landscapes: neopragmatist, social constructivist, scientometric, art theoretical, etc.

Leonardo da Vinci - Nature and Architecture Constance Moffatt, Sara Tagliagamba, 2019-06-17. The second volume of Leonardo Studies explores a dual theme of nature and architecture, offering a wide-ranging overview of current Leonardo scholarship on these two abundant subjects. While Leonardo worked on his Treatise on Painting, he noted that understanding the physical properties of nature must precede individual projects of painting or designing buildings The volume begins with the Trattato and follows with physics geology painting that imitates architectural structure and vice versa and proceeds to architectural projects questions of attribution urban planning and and the dissemination of Leonardo s writings in the Trattato and its historiography This impressive group of articles constitutes not only new research but also a departure point for future studies on these topics Contributors are Janis Bell Andrea Bernardoni Marco Carpiceci Paolo Cavagnero Fabio Colonnese Kay Etheridge Diane Ghirardo Claudio Giorgione Domenico Laurenza Catherine Luchek Silvio Mara Jill Pederson Richard Schofield Sara Taglialagamba Cristiano Tessari Marco Versiero and Raffaella Zama Hobbema and Heidegger Rivca Gordon, Hayim Gordon, 2008 This book shows how the beautiful landscape paintings of Meindert Hobbema a seventeenth century painter of the Dutch Golden Age are in accord with the thought of Martin Heidegger a twentieth century philosopher on beauty and truth Since little is known about Hobbema s life this work concentrates on ideas that are central to Heidegger s philosophy of art and beauty and the way these ideas are attuned to Hobbema s landscapes Heidegger holds that the beauty of a great work of art calls out from that work and is firmly linked to the disclosure of hidden truths concerning essences of beings This book illustrates in detail that beauty and such truths indeed call out from Hobbema s paintings
