Screening The Novel Rediscovered American Fiction In Film:

Screening the Novel Gabriel Miller, 2016-10-06 Some of the most memorable movies of Hollywood's Golden Age were based on novels that never received the acclaim they deserved. No one who saw Rod Steiger in The Pawnbroker could forget the actor's wrenching performance but does anyone remember the author of the book on which the film was based? The same can be said of Jane Fonda in They Shoot Horses, Don't They? Greta Garbo in Susan Lenox and Humphrey Bogart in The Treasure of the Sierra Madre. This book retrieves these novels and re-evaluates the careers of the eight neglected novelists whose works inspired eight different directors among them Stanley Kubrick, Sidney Lumet, John Huston, and Sidney Pollack. Each chapter offers detailed analysis on both the original text and the resulting movie. Taken together, the double examination of novel and film raises some important questions about the nature and problems of cinematic adaptation.

Screening the novel; rediscovered american fiction in film G. Miller, 1981 The Screening of America Tom O'Brien, 2016-10-06 This is an original investigation of how movies have reflected and helped to shape the values of a generation. From All the President's Men to Wall Street, US films of the 1970s and 80s were a kaleidoscope of shifting values and contrasting moral viewpoints. Knowing that movies mirror the way we think we are or would like to be, O'Brien focuses on the key values or their absence found in films from this period in order to see more clearly what Americans really cherished in life and how these values have evolved or changed. Comprehensive and thought provoking, this book addresses how and why movies glamorized and portrayed certain professions, the changing role of women, the targeting of religion for satire, the addressing of environmental issues, and film's representation of and engagement with history. The Great Gatsby meets Alain Badiou Ursula Vooght, 2023-12-21 The subject of this book is a consideration of the usefulness of the concept of fidelity put forward by the philosopher Alain Badiou in the discussion of film adaptation. Fidelity or faithfulness is primarily a consideration that emerges in relation to so-called canonical texts in adaptation. Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby occupies a position of global recognisability and within the United States cultural mythology that has triggered strong reactions to the four Hollywood adaptations. The various adaptations allow for the differing approaches to the adaptation of this novel to be meaningfully explored. The film adaptations' paratextual elements will be discussed in order to show how these acted as limiting lenses. The strategies of the films for handling elements of Fitzgerald's prose and themes will be compared across the adaptations. This will culminate in an assertion of the worth of a larger application of a Badiouian fidelity within the field.

Contemporizing the Classics Gregory Sarno, 2005-02 Contemporizing the Classics Poe, Shakespeare, Doyle is a how-to on the art and craft of transforming a classic into a feature film screenplay with a modern storyline. The introduction probes an issue that weaves throughout: role of artistic license in balancing fidelity to the original versus dramatic needs of the script. Contemporization of a classic being the most flagrant form of dramatic license, the introduction presents three guidelines for a considered exercise thereof. Each part debuts a feature film script that resets a classic work's in the present. Part One offers a contemporary visualization of Macbeth in the process turning an Elizabethan tragedy into a dramatic comedy Part Two applies the guidelines to several renowned works by Edgar Allan Poe Arthur Conan Doyle's The Hound of the Baskervilles having frequently screened as a period piece Part Three gives the hound a twenty first century twist Adaptations

Deborah Cartmell, Imelda Whelehan, 2022 Adaptations Critical and Primary Sources is a three volume reference resource that brings together over 80 landmark texts in adaptation studies Volume One covers the history of adaptation studies by plotting the prehistory of the field beginning with Vachel Lindsay's classic Art of the Moving Picture 1915 through Virginia Woolf's classic essay on The Cinema through to some of the most important critical and theoretical interventions up until the 1990s when the area really emerges as a critical force in the academy Volume Two collects essays from the last 25 years showing how the scholarly legacy laid out in Volume One still has a profound impact on adaptation studies today while charting the process of critical and theoretical maturation This volume shows how adaptations studies has outgrown its contested place in the gap of film and literary studies and how its interventions transcend disciplinary perspectives across the arts and humanities Volume Three covers key case studies such as Christine Geraghty's take on adapting Westerns Ian Inglis understanding of the transformation of music into movies and Eckart Voigts concept on Jane Austen and participatory culture

With topics ranging from the limitations of the novel to adapting stage to screen contributions from a wide range of international scholars film critics and novelists combine to make Adaptations Critical and Primary Sources an original overview of critical debates today Cartmell and Whelehan introduce each excerpt and offer a critical overview of the collected work the rationale for its inclusion and suggestions for further reading American History/American Film John E. O'Connor, Martin A. Jackson, 2016-10-06 In this pioneering work sixteen historians analyse individual films for deeper insight into US institutions values and lifestyles Linking all of the essays is the belief that film holds much of value for the historian seeking to understand and interpret American history and culture This title will be equally valuable for students and scholars in history using film for analysis as well as film students and scholars exploring the way social and historical circumstances are reflected and represented in film Holocaust Literature: Lerner to Zychlinsky, index S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004

Sidney Lumet Frank R. Cunningham, 2014-10-17 Since 1957 Sidney Lumet the most prolific American director of his generation has deepened audiences awareness of social ethical and feminist issues through such distinguished films as 12 Angry Men The Verdict Running on Empty and Critical Care Especially praised for his literary adaptations including Long

Day's Journey into Night and Murder on the Orient Express Lumet has also directed such trenchant urban films as Dog Day Afternoon Serpico and Network In this new edition Frank Cunningham expands his analysis of Lumet's earlier films and examines his most recent work from A Stranger Among Us 1992 to Gloria 1999 Also new to this edition are discussions of five other films including The Appointment Murder on the Orient Express and Running on Empty Cunningham studies in depth over thirty of Lumet's most significant films and surveys other films and the television productions to reveal their enduring artistic and humanistic importance

Cinema's Illusions, Opera's Allure David Schroeder, 2016-10-06 The invention of cinema was ingenious so much so that virtually no one quite knew what to do with it In its earliest stages especially with the advent of the feature film it needed models and opera proved to be especially useful in that regard The allure of opera to cinema early in the twentieth century held up through the silent era into sound films through the golden age of movies and beyond This book explores the numerous ways some predictable some unexpected and some bizarre in which this has happened The influence of Richard Wagner on filmmakers has been especially striking and some have even devised visual images that seem to emerge from a kind of non verbal Wagnerian essence a formative musical urge that can underlie a cinematic idea defying explanation and remaining purely sensory Directors like Griffith DeMille Eisenstein Chaplin Bunuel or Hitchcock have intuited this possibility Schroeder provides a fascinating well researched and always entertaining account of the influence of one medium on another and shows that opera can often be found lurking in the background or booming in the foreground of an impressive range of films
