

37 He said to my disciples and my rest, that it is I myself: I am the way, and said for a spirit such as he had used hence, as he see me here.

38 And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet.

39 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them,
Have ye here any meat?

40 And they gave him a piece of a baked fish, and of an honeycomb.

41 In the city of Jerusalem, ordained with power from God. And he said them with Bethany, and he lived up and blessed them.

42 And it came to pass, when he had thus said, he was parted from them and carried up into heaven.

43 And they worshipped him till he was taken up into heaven.

44 And were continually praising and blessing God

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

1 The beginning, the word, and the life of Jesus Christ. 2 The testimony of John. 3 The coming of the Holy Spirit, Peter, etc.

4 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

5 The word was in the beginning with God.

6 All things were made by him: and without him was not any thing made that was made.

7 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

8 And the light abode in darkness;
and the darkness comprehended it not.

9 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

10 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

11 He was not that Light, but came to bear witness of that Light.

12 That was the true Light, which enlighteneth every man that cometh into the world.

13 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

14 He came unto his own, and his own rejoiced not.

15 But as many as received him, unto him gave he power to become of God, even to them that believe in him.

16 Which were born, not of the will of the flesh, nor of men, but of God.

17 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw the glory as of the only Son of the Father, full of grace.

18 John bore witness of him, and said, This was he of whom I spoke, that cometh after me, for he was before me, and was above me.

19 For he was the true Light,
which enlighteneth every man
that cometh into the world.

20 And he was the true Light,
which enlighteneth every man
that cometh into the world.

21 And he was the true Light,
which enlighteneth every man
that cometh into the world.

22 And he was the true Light,
which enlighteneth every man
that cometh into the world.

23 And he was the true Light,
which enlighteneth every man
that cometh into the world.

24 And he was the true Light,
which enlighteneth every man
that cometh into the world.

25 And he was the true Light,
which enlighteneth every man
that cometh into the world.

26 And he was the true Light,
which enlighteneth every man
that cometh into the world.

27 And he was the true Light,
which enlighteneth every man
that cometh into the world.

[Richard Marks].* , 1825 The pictorial Bible aand Church history stories abridged Henry Formby, 1871 Print and Protestantism in Early Modern England Ian Green, 2000-11-02 In this highly innovative study Ian Green examines the complete array of Protestant titles published in England from the 1530s to the 1720s These range from the large specialist volumes at the top to cheap tracts at the bottom from radical on one wing to conservative on the other and from instructive and devotional manuals to edifying cum entertaining works such as religious verse and cautionary tales Wherever possible the author adopts a statistical approach to permit a focus on those works which sold most copies over a number of years and in an annotated Appendix provides a brief description of over seven hundred best selling or steady selling religious titles of the period A close study of these texts and the forms in which they were offered to the public suggests a rapid diversification of both the types of work published and of the readerships at which they were targeted It also demonstrates shrewd publishers frequent attempts to plug gaps in a rapidly expanding market Where previous studies of print have tended to focus on the polemical and the sensational this one highlights the didactic devotional and consensual elements found in most steady selling works It is also suggested that in these works there were at least three Protestantisms on offer an orthodox clerical version a moralistic rational version favoured by the educated laity and a popular version that was barely Protestant at all and that the impact of these probably varied both within and between different readerships These conclusions shed much light not only on the means by which English Protestantism was disseminated but also on the doctrinally and culturally diffused nature of English Protestantism by the end of the Stuart period Both the text and the appendix should prove invaluable to anyone interested in the history of the Reformation or in printing as a medium of education and communication in early modern

Astell,2024-07-15 Through close examination of ancient medieval and modern Lives of the saints Ann W Astell demonstrates how the historical transformation of hagiography as a genre correlates with similar changes in biblical studies Christian hagiography flourished from the fourth to the fifteenth centuries illuminating the gospel through the overlapping forms of exempla and vita Originally the Lives of the saints were understood as hermeneutical extensions of the Bible God authors the saint just as God authors the divinely inspired scriptures During the medieval period a sense of dual authorship between God and the cooperating saint developed paralleling the Scholastic impulse to assign greater agency to the human writers of scripture Then in the sixteenth century powerful new anxieties about historical truth pushed hagiography aside for biography its successor Drawing on her expertise in the history of Christianity and biblical exegesis Astell convincingly shows how this radical shift in hagiography's status the loss of the literal allegorical tropological and anagogical senses of the Lives serves as a bellwether for modern biblical reception Finding List of Books and Periodicals in the Central Library ,1890 Chaplaincy Grace Thomas,Kim Wasey,2024-09-30 This new collection from chaplains in a wide variety of contemporary chaplaincy settings in the UK and around the globe brings together practitioner perspectives with academic discussion and is tailored to support students of Chaplaincy at every level The lively narratives and reflections make this book accessible to those engaging with what chaplaincy means for the first time while the rigorous critical engagement with key issues makes this a key read for anyone seeking a fresh and global perspective on developments at the forefront of this swiftly growing and diversifying field of ministry The volume explores what chaplaincy means in contemporary and global settings It takes seriously the intersectionality of both practitioners and recipients of chaplaincy ministry centering factors such as race gender and disability alongside political missional and denominational considerations Catalogue of books in the Mercantile library Mercantile library assoc New York,1866 A history of the holy Bible Thomas Stackhouse,1869 The United States Catalog ,1904 Catalogue of Books in the Mercantile Library, of the City of New York.
