Sculpture Of The Sanctuary:

Classical Sculpture Irene Bald Romano, 2011-01-01 This first complete published catalogue of one of the most important classical sculpture collections in the United States includes 154 works from Italy Greece Cyprus Asia Minor North Africa Roman Syria and Palestine Egypt and Babylonia ranging in date from the late seventh century B C to the fourth century A D Each piece receives a complete description with measurements and report of condition a list of the previous published sources and a commentary reflecting the most recent scholarship along with extensive photographic documentation Various audiences will appreciate the accessibility of the scholarship presented here students may engage in further study on some of topics raised by individual pieces or groups of sculptures and the scholarly community will welcome a work that provides an up to date and comprehensive examination of a significant classical sculpture collection in one of the world's great archaeology museums

The Sculpture of the Sanctuary of Athena Polias at Priene Joseph Coleman Carter, 1983 Carter uses the notebooks of the original excavators to construct a detailed story of the Hellenistic temple sculpture now largely preserved in the British Museum He analyses the material and advances suggestions for the original position of the relief sculpture Also contains a fully illustrated catalogue

Space and Sculpture in the Classic Maya City Alexander Parmington, 2011-03-31 Examines how images texts and architectural form controlled movement of people through the various precincts in Classic Maya cities

The Lives of Sumerian Sculpture Jean M. Evans, 2012-10-08 This book examines the sculptures created during the Early Dynastic period 2900-2350 BC of Sumer a region corresponding to present day southern Iraq Featured almost exclusively in temple complexes some 550 Early Dynastic stone statues of human figures carved in an abstract style have survived Chronicling the intellectual history of ancient Near Eastern art history and archaeology at the intersection of sculpture and aesthetics this book argues that the early modern reception of Sumer still influences ideas about these sculptures Engaging also with the archaeology of the Early Dynastic temple the book ultimately considers what a stone statue of a human figure has signified both in modern times and in antiquity

A Handbook of Greek Sculpture Ernest Arthur Gardner, 1896 A survey of Greek sculpture from the earliest mention to

Graeco Roman times Handbook of Greek Sculpture Olga Palagia, 2019-07-22 The Handbook of Greek Sculpture aims to provide a detailed examination of current research and directions in the field Bringing together an international cast of contributors from Greece Italy France Great Britain Germany and the United States the volume incorporates new areas of research such as the sculptures of Messene and Macedonia sculpture in Roman Greece and the contribution of Greek sculptors in Rome as well as important aspects of Greek sculpture like techniques and patronage The written sources literary and epigraphical are explored in dedicated chapters as are function and iconography and the reception of Greek sculpture in modern Europe Inspired by recent exhibitions on Lysippos and Praxiteles the book also revisits the style and the personal contributions of the great masters The Archaeology of Roman Portugal in its Western Mediterranean Context Tesse D. Stek, André Carneiro, 2022-06-20 The Archaeology of Roman Portugal aims to contribute to the wider debate on Roman imperialism and expansionism by bringing to the fore a much underrepresented area of the Roman empire at least in English language scholarship its westernmost edge in modern day Portugal Highlighting the perspective from Roman Portugal will contribute to our understanding of the Roman empire because it presents both an extraordinary landscape in the sense of economic opportunities ocean resources marble and metal mining and settlement history The volume aims to present new data and insights from both archaeology and ancient history and to discuss their significance for our understanding of Roman expansion and imperialism A key goal of the volume is to discuss how the Portuguese panorama compares to other areas of the Iberian peninsula An explicit goal of the volume is to better integrate Portuguese scholarship in the academic debate on the Mediterranean Roman world and to contextualize it firmly in the wider Iberian and Western Mediterranean context Therefore chapters are produced by internationally diverse scholars in archaeology and ancient history from Portugal Spain Germany the UK the US the Netherlands Belgium and Italy With a view to assess the potential of integrating best practices in archaeological approaches and methodology different national and disciplinary research traditions and historical frameworks will be explicitly discussed Greek Art and Aesthetics in the Fourth Century B.C. William A. P. Childs, 2018-04-10 Greek Art and Aesthetics in the Fourth Century B C analyzes the broad character of art produced during this period providing in depth analysis of and commentary on many of its most notable examples of sculpture and painting Taking into consideration developments in style and subject matter and elucidating political religious and intellectual context William A P Childs argues that Greek art in this era was a natural outgrowth of the high classical period and focused on developing the rudiments of individual expression that became the hallmark of the classical in the fifth century As Childs shows in many respects the art of this period corresponds with the philosophical inquiry by Plato and his contemporaries into the nature of art and speaks to the contemporaneous sense of insecurity and renewed religious devotion Delving into formal and iconographic developments in sculpture and painting Childs examines how the sensitive expressive quality of these works seamlessly links the classical and Hellenistic periods with no appreciable rupture in the continuous exploration of the human condition Another overarching theme concerns the nature of style as a concept of expression an issue that becomes more important given the increasingly multiple styles and functions of fourth century Greek art Childs also shows how the color and form of works suggested the unseen and revealed the profound character of individuals and the physical world
