The New Palaces of Medieval Venice , Ravenna and the Traditions of Late Antique and Early Byzantine Craftsmanship Salvatore Cosentino, 2020-08-10 In the last twenty years scholarship on late antique and early medieval Ravenna has resulted in a certain number of publications mainly focused on the fields of architecture mosaics and archaeology On the contrary much less attention has been paid on labour both manual and intellectual as well as the structure of production and objects derived from manufacturing activities despite the fact that Ravenna is the place which preserves the highest number of historical evidence among all centres of the late Roman Mediterranean Its cultural heritage is vast and composite ranging from papyri to inscriptions from ivories to marbles as well as luxury objects pottery and coins Starting from concrete typologies of hand manufactured goods existing in the Ravennate milieu the book aims at exploring the multifaceted traditions of late antique and early Byzantine handicraft from the fourth to the eighth century AD Its perspective is to pay attention more on patronage social taste acculturation workers and the economic industry of production which supported the demand circulation and distribution of artefacts than on the artistic evaluation of the objects themselves

Ancient Plaster Abbey L. R. Ellis, Emma Payne, 2025-07-02 Ancient Plaster Casting Light on a Forgotten Sculptural Material offers a fresh exploration of plaster in the sculpture of the ancient Mediterranean and beyond Challenging the traditional focus on marble and bronze this volume reveals the crucial role of plaster both in the sculptor s workshop and as a medium for finished sculpture Combining academic insights with contemporary artists perspectives the book also delves into the controversial topic of life casting in antiquity and provides groundbreaking new interpretations of well known plaster objects such as those from the Roman city of Baiae near Naples With chapters extending the chronological and geographical scope to early modern Europe and contemporary art school contexts the book illuminates plaster's versatility and the continuity of its use across millennia. By rehabilitating this material often overlooked or lost to the archaeological record, the volume offers a transformative view of ancient sculpture appealing to both scholars and art enthusiasts alike. Housing in Late Antiquity Luke Lavan, Lale Özgenel, Alexander Constantine Sarantis, 2007

Byzantine Ornaments in Stone Philipp Niewöhner, 2021-07-19 Architectural sculpture and liturgical furniture are key genres of late antique and Byzantine archaeology and art, and this book provides the first general overview. It offers two alternative ways of access via technical terms and illustrations. It can thus serve as a dictionary if a term requires explanation and illustration, or as a visual gazetteer for the research of artefacts. In addition, the volume can also serve as an academic textbook. TRADE: Transformations of Adriatic Europe (2nd-9th Centuries AD) Igor Borzić, Enrico Cirelli, Kristina Jelinčić Vučković, Ana Konestra, Ivana Ožanić Roguljić, 2023-08-17

Early Christian Art and Architecture Guntram Koch, 1996 The early Christian period, especially the time between the third and sixth centuries, is one of the most fascinating in church history. The Christianity which developed into a state church in the Roman Empire during the fourth century gave new content to traditional Graeco-Roman art and adapted it to changed needs. Different forms of churches, monasteries and baptisms came into being, as did Christian art in paintings, mosaics and sculptures. Biblical manuscripts were illustrated and liturgical furnishings and vessels were given new form. Here for the first time in a single volume is an account of architecture, sacred and profane, funerary art in catacombs and tombs, and especially sarcophagi, the graphic arts and the various forms of art in miniature. The text is illustrated with numerous line drawings and photographs, including ground plans and elevations of churches, actual and conjectural, and there are full descriptions of the art and architecture discussed against its social and historical background. In addition, there are full bibliographies and details of the most important collections of Christian art This will prove not only an invaluable work for art historians but also a guide for those travelling in the Mediterranean area and an indication of the riches of the first centuries of the church Guntram Koch is Professor of Christian Archaeology and the History of Byzantine Art in the University of Marburg
