Reflection in Sequence Sandra J. Schumm,1999-07 The codes of conduct imposed on females by Spain's dictator Francisco Franco after the Spanish Civil War 1936-39 created a stifling environment for women until his death in 1975 Beginning with Carmen Laforet's 1944 Nadal Prize winning novel Nada novels by women many of which explore female identity began to proliferate in Spain The works examined in this study Nada Primera memoria 1960 by Ana Maria Matute La placa del Diamant 1962 by Merce Rodoreda Julia 1969 by Ana Maria Moix El cuarto de atrás 1978 by Carmen Martin Gaité El amor es un juego solitario 1979 by Esther Tusquets and Questio d amor propi 1987 by Carme Riera feature female protagonists struggling for self realization and by extension for change in a restrictive Spanish society Schumm's analysis of the seven novels demonstrates how examination of metaphoric tropes and mirror images provides insight into the protagonists development Literary Labyrinths in Franco-Era Barcelona Colleen P. Culleton,2016-07-22 Bringing together works by Salvador Espriu Juan Goytisolo Merc Rodoreda Esther Tusquets and Juan Marsa that portray memory as a disorienting narrative enterprise Colleen Culleton argues that the source of this disorientation is the material reality of life in Barcelona in the immediate post Civil War years Barcelona was the object of harsh persecution in the first years of the Franco regime that included the erasure of marks of Catalan identity and cultural history from the urban landscape and made Barcelona a moving target for memory The literature and film she examines show characters struggling to produce narratives of the remembered past that immediately conflict with the dominant version of Spain's historical narrative formulated to legitimize the Civil War Culleton suggests the trope of the laberinto used as an image or device in all five of the works she considers and translated into English as both maze and labyrinth opens up a space that enables readers to take vulnerability to outside interference into account as an inseparable part of remembrance While the narratives all have maze like qualities involving a high level of reader participation and choice the exigencies of the labyrinth with its unicursal demands for patience perseverance and faith always prevail Thus do the Francoist narrative and social structure in the end resurface and reassert themselves over the narrating character's perspective Women in Contemporary Spain Anny Brooksbank Jones,1997 This volume gives access to debates in Spanish women's studies Masculinity/Femininity: re-framing a fragmented debate ,2020-05-06 The representations and performances of femininity and masculinity are no

Private Correspondence Esther Tusquets,2008 Esther Tusquets was already well known in Spain as director of the Barcelona publishing house Editorial Lumen when she stunned the reading public in the late 70s and 80s with the publication of a highly acclaimed narrative cycle whose daringly innovative content and prose style broke new ground for the Spanish novel and for women s writing Assertive Biblical Women William Phipps,1992-08-24 Most of the women described in this study were atypical biblical women Israelite women like women in most cultures of the world had status principally within the home However exceptional women occasionally had prominent roles outside the home and dared to assert themselves The chapters contain biographical sketches with comparisons to contemporary women's roles of two dozen women Beginning with Sarah of Ur and ending with Priscilla of Rome their lives range over an era of nearly two millennia These women were at crucial times sagacious in decision making and skillful in executing their decisions They made such a distinctive mark on the events of their time to be remembered by subsequent generations as more than breeders of male heirs Each woman's story relates how a dynamic woman was able to swim against the strong currents of patriarchy To make explicit the relevancy of this study the brief biographies are related to such current feminist issues as surrogate parenting gender stereotyping and civil disobedience over unequal treatment by governments

Narrating Motherhood(s), Breaking the Silence Silvia Caporale-Bizzini, 2006 Feminist theory on motherhood has successfully transformed mothers into subjects of their own discourse recognized the historical heterogeneous and socially constructed origins of their life experience while at the same time widening our understanding of the notion of mothering This collection combines a literary and a wider cultural perspective from which to look at the topic of the representation of other or forgotten motherhoods Mothers who have been forced to live exiled and away from their children women who after trying to conceive get pregnant but discover they cannot bear to become mothers or even literary characters based on an autobiographical experience of a sexually abusive mother The essays critically point out how writing becomes a tool to think and write about the many aspects of motherhood such as an idealized maternal experience versus the real one or the accepted stereotypes of the good mother and the bad mother
