Seafaring Under Sail Basil Greenhill, Denis Stonham, 1981      Tracing Your Seafaring Ancestors Simon Wills, 2016-02-29

Photographs of your seafaring ancestors may tell you more about their lives than you realize and Simon Wills's helpful and practical guide shows you how to identify and interpret the evidence caught on camera. Since maritime roles have been so vital to Britain's prosperity and military might they are among the commonest professions depicted in photographs of our ancestors and his handbook is the ideal introduction to them. Maybe your ancestor was a seaman in the Royal Navy a ship's captain a steward on an ocean liner or an officer in the naval reserves. This book shows you how to spot photographic clues to an individual's career. Whether your ancestor served in the merchant navy or the Royal Navy or in another seagoing role such as a fisherman a lifeboatman or even a ship's passenger Simon Wills's book will be your guide.      Seafaring Under Sail Basil Greenhill, Denis Stonham, 1981      People, Place and Power on the Nineteenth-Century Waterfront Graeme J. Milne, 2016-08-24. This book explores the tenuous existence of seafarers divided between their time on the ocean and their residence in sailortown economies geared to exploit them. Particular attention is given both to the contribution of seafarers as a global workforce into the nineteenth century and to their help in creating vibrant multicultural enclaves in port cities worldwide. In addition research explores the scandalized opinions of outside observers challenging ideas about public behavior and relationships. Sailortown myths persisted far into the twentieth century to the detriment of older waterfront districts and their residents and readers will find this book is invaluable in casting new light on forgotten communities whose lives bridged urban maritime and global histories.      A Supplement (1971-1986) to Robert G. Albion's Naval & Maritime History, an Annotated Bibliography, Fourth Edition Benjamin Woods Labaree, 1988. This comprehensive annotated bibliography works and Ph D theses in the English language was compiled by a pioneering maritime historian the late Robert Albion. This volume covers titles through 1970. Later works are contained in Benjamin Labaree's Supplement.      The Sailors' Magazine and Seamen's Friend, 1918      Negotiating Masculinities and Modernity in the Maritime World, 1815-1940 Karen Downing, Johnathan Thayer, Joanne Begiato, 2022-01-16. This book explores ideas of masculinity in the maritime world in the nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth century. During this time commerce politics and technology supported male privilege while simultaneously creating the polite consumerist and sedentary lifestyles that were perceived as damaging the minds and bodies of men. This volume explores this paradox through the figure of the sailor a working class man whose representation fulfilled numerous political and social ends in this period. It begins with the enduring image of romantic heroic veterans of the Napoleonic wars takes the reader through the challenges to masculinities created by encounters with other races and ethnicities and with technological change shifting geopolitical and cultural contexts and ends with the fragile portrayal of masculinity in the imagined Nelson. In doing so this edited collection shows that maritime masculinities ideals representations and the seamen themselves were highly visible and volatile sites for negotiating the tensions of masculinities.
