An Uncommon Cape Eleanor Phillips Brackbill,2012-09-07 When Eleanor Phillips Brackbill bought her suburban Westchester house in 2000 three mysteries came with it First from the former owner came the information that the 1930s house was a Sears house or something like that Thrilled to think it might be a Sears Roebuck Co mail order house Brackbill was determined to find evidence to prove it She found instead a house pedigree of a different sort Second and even more provocative was the discovery of several iron stakes protruding from the property s enormous granite outcropping bigger in square footage than the house itself When queried about them the former owner told her Someone a long time ago kept monkeys there chained to the stakes Monkeys Was this some kind of suburban legend A third mystery came to light at closing when a building inspector s letter contained a reference to the house having had at one time a different address Why would the house have had another address Her curiosity aroused and intent upon finding the facts Brackbill gradually peeled back layers of history allowing the house and the land to tell their stories and uncovering a past inextricably woven into four centuries of American history At the same time she found thirty two owners across 350 years who had just one thing in common ownership of a particular parcel of land An Uncommon Cape not only tells the story of an eight year odyssey of fact finding and speculation but also answers the broader question What came before and through material presented in twenty two sidebars offers readers insights and guidelines on how to find the stories behind their own homes India Rubber and Tire Review ,1927 Ideal Homes of the Thirties Ideal Homes,2013-01-16 Adapted from a rare 1933 catalog this volume showcases sixty plans for two story houses It features photographs most in full color floor plans and descriptive text that depict a splendid variety of economic styles including colonial mission foursquare and bungalow Each house appears in a two page spread forming an elegant and highly readable presentation The Plan Service Company of St Paul Minnesota published a series of Ideal Homes catalogs in the 1920s and 30s This particular issue has been long out of print and its reissue offers professional architects and armchair renovators alike an authentic look at houses of the era Daniel D Reiff an expert on vintage house design catalogs provides an informative introduction Historic Residential Suburbs in the United States, 1830-1960 ,2002 Historic Residential Suburbs David L.
