Seaside Album Photographs And Memory:

A Seaside Album Philippe Garner, 2003 This book reproduces a selection of photographs of Brighton and Hove that portray the changing face and character of this colorful seaside town and its residents over nearly a century and a half The book includes historic daguerreotypes from the 1840s by William Constables and a remarkable series of paper negatives and albumen prints by Edward Fox from the 1850s and 1860s The book underlines the attraction of Brighton and Hove to visiting photographers the architecture people and activity that provided endless inspiration The majority of the 145 photographs are previously unpublished and provide a vivid evocation of the varied artistic aspirations and vernacular applications of the photographic medium The book includes images by internationally renowned masters such as William Henry Fox Talbot Bill Brandt Walker Evans and Henri Cartier Bresson as well as introducing fine work by hitherto unrecognised masters such as William Constable William Mason Junior Edward Fox and George Ruff Junior Designing the Seaside Fred Gray, 2006 In Designing the Seaside Fred Gray provides a history of seaside architecture from the 18th century to the present day investigating leisure entertainment taste fashion and gender and shows how the seaside even became a hotbed for moral and sexual issues from the early use of bathing machines to twentieth century beauty pageants and naturist groups He relates the evolution of resort architecture to sweeping changes in how seaside nature was experienced and used by holidaymakers The book also traces the history of the coastal resort with examples ranging from Regency Sidmouth to Victorian Scarborough and early 20th century Morecambe as well as assessing seaside developments in the USA and Continental Europe from Coney Island and Santa Barbara to Nice and Trouville Featuring many colourful informative and often entertaining photographs drawings guidebook illustrations postcards and publicity posters from resorts around the world Designing the Seaside is a thoroughly readable as well as a visually fascinating account of changing attitudes to holidaymaking and its setting BOOK JACKET Resorts and Ports Peter Borsay, John K. Walton, 2011 Resorts and Ports draws together a group of case studies which for the first time explore the changing relationships between port and resort activities in a cross section of European maritime settings over three centuries The book will interest academics in tourism studies history geography and cultural studies as well as providing essential information and analysis for policy makers in coastal regeneration Impressed by Light Roger Taylor, Larry John Schaaf, 2007 Sumario Photography and an age of paradox The formative years the calotype in the 1840s The great exhibition of 1851 Battling patents and gaining legitimacy The calotype finds its place Subjects fit for the camera British sensibilities 1855 1857 Echoes of the grand tour Under an Indian sky Commercialism advances the calotype declines Archives and Images, 2004 Theatres of Memory Raphael Samuel, 2012-09-11 When Theatres of Memory was first published in 1994 it transformed the debate about what is to be considered history and questioned the role of heritage that lies at the heart of every Western nation's obsession with the past Today in the age of Downton Abbey and Mad Men we are once again conjuring historical fictions to make sense of our everyday lives In this remarkable book Samuel looks at the many different ways we use the unofficial knowledge of the past Considering such varied areas as the fashion for retrofitting the rise of family history the joys of collecting old photographs the allure of reenactment societies and televised adaptations of Dickens Samuel transforms our understanding of the uses of history He shows us that history is a living practice something constantly being reassessed in the world around us

Antiquarian Book Review ,2003 Roger Fenton, Julia Margaret Cameron Sophie Gordon,2010 This selection of photographs by Roger Fenton 1819-69 and Julia Margaret Cameron 1815-79 highlights the existence of some of the finest works in the Royal Photograph Collection by two leading photographers of the nineteenth century Introduction

Suspended Conversations Martha Langford,2021-10-13 In Suspended Conversations Martha Langford shows how photographic albums tell intimate and revealing stories about individuals and families Rather than isolate the individual photograph treat albums as texts or argue that photography has supplanted memory she demonstrates that the photographic album must be taken as a whole and interpreted as a visual and verbal performance that extends oral consciousness Exhibiting a collection of photographic travelogues memoirs thematic collections and family sagas compiled between 1860 and 1960 and held by the McCord Museum of Canadian History this second edition includes a revised and expanded preface along with new photographs of the Notman albums Printed in colour throughout the enhanced material draws out the distinct nuances and details of each album giving them new life to tell their stories Albums are treasured by families collected as illustrations of the past by museums of social history and examined by scholars for what they can reveal about attitudes and sensibilities but when no one is left to tell the tale the intrigue of the album becomes a puzzle a suspended conversation Langford argues that oral consciousness provides the missing key Correlating photography and orality she explains how albums were designed to work as performances and how we can unlock their mysteries A fascinating glimpse of the preoccupations of previous centuries Suspended Conversations brings photography into the great conversation of how we remember and how we send our stories into the future

The Memory Artists Jeffrey Moore,2007-04-01 Winner of the Canadian Authors Association Award for Best Novel Noel Burun has synesthesia and hypermnesia he sees words in vibrant explosions of colors and shapes which collide and commingle to form a memory so bitingly perfect that he can remember everything from the 1001 stories of The Arabian Nights to the color of his bib as a toddler But for all his mnemonic abilities he is confronted every day with a reality that is as sad as it is ironic his beloved mother Stella is stricken with Alzheimer's disease her memory slowly slipping into the quicksands of oblivion The Memory Artists follows Noel helped by a motley cast of friends on his quest to find a cure for his mother's affliction The results are at the same time darkly funny quirkily inventive and very moving Alternating between third person narratives and the diaries of Noel and Stella Jeffrey Moore weaves a story filled with fantastic characters and a touch of suspense that gets at the very heart of what it means to remember and forget and that is a testament to the uplifting power of family and friendship
