Shaman Housewives And Other Rest Spirits Women In Korean Ritual life:

Shamans, Housewives, and Other Restless Spirits Laurel Kendall, 1987-07-01 This exceptionally well written book is good reading not only for specialists but also for beginning students interested in women Korean culture and shamanism Journal of Asian Studies Kendall maintains a closeness with and respect for her subject that keeps away the chill of academic distance and yet avoids sentimentality Korean Quarterly Spring 2001 Shamanic Worlds Marjorie Mandelstam Balzer, 1997-01-27 This work introduces traditional Siberian shamans as the poets therapists and even leaders of their communities Among the special features of this collection are transcriptions of shamanic exhortations and a study of shamanic tales and rituals

Women and Indigenous Religions Sylvia Marcos, Cheryl A. Kirk-Duggan, Lillian Ashcraft-Eason, Karen Jo Torjesen, 2010-07-01 This book examines the critical and often undervalued contributions of women to the culture well being and subsistence of their communities as active powerful and wise ritual specialists From the Dalit midwives in India to the women of the Nahua region in the state of Morelos Mexico from the indigenous nations in Turtle Island in Canada to the shamans male and female of South Korea and Vietnam there are still many vital indigenous cultures around the world in which women often hold positions of religious authority and leadership Women and Indigenous Religions addresses specific issues in the study of religion such as the multifaceted tensions between indigenous traditions and gender and the genealogy of positions of authority in religion or spiritual matters A close examination reveals that native religions with their women specialists are still a source of inspiration for millions of men and women even in the advanced areas in the world This fact challenges the opinion that indigenous cultures are becoming extinct Korean Women Managers and Corporate Culture Jean R. Renshaw, 2012-03-15 The typical view of Korean women is not as managers The stereotype is of Korean women serving and pleasing men or more recently as aggressive shopkeepers and bar owners Very little has been written to challenge this misconception This fascinating book reveals there have always been managers amongst Korean women particularly in occupations like money lending retail and fashion and women continue to serve after the economic crash at the beginning of a new century Korean Women Managers and Corporate Culture illuminates the many roles of women from management leadership and policy making to the more traditional positions as homemaker and wife and describes the distinctive Korean corporate culture and economy in order to evaluate the future of women as well as that of Korea itself

The Kpim of Feminism Uzoma Ukagba George Uzoma Ukagba, George Uzoma Ukagba, 2010-02 The idea behind The Kpim of Feminism was rooted in the mind of Fada Iroegbu in 2004 following a friendly but heated argument he had with Mrs Wioletta Ukagba the wife of one of the current co editors of this book who challenged Fada Iroegbu to direct his sharp brain and pen to the defence of women especially the Nigeria women who were and still are passing through various kinds of trans valuation of values economic exploitation cultural and scientific manipulations political marginalization and irredentism and various shades of sexualisation harassment exploitation and commercialization Fada Iroegbu took up this challenge to minimize womanhood but unfortunately was unable to completely realise his dream before death struck. As it is with many great and indefatigable minds or thinkers who left behind unfinished works, we his friends, family, interlocutors, well-wishers, men and women of good will have come together to actualize one of his felt knowledge dreams. The fight for equality between women and men can sometimes not only be exaggerated but also plunged in controversy we cannot fathom. The search for the truth about the relationship that ought to exist between male and female should constitute the Kpim of Feminism. Dr George Uzoma Ukagba, Editor, University of Benin. In light of the word feminism conjuring up different images to different people, the Kpim of Feminism reflects the sensitivity and objectivity to the concept of feminism by scholars drawing from their fields and life experiences. The book insists that women and men be encouraged to emancipate and empower one another together. Dr Obioma Des Obi, Editor, Imo State University. The Kpim of Feminism, a rare harvest of academic erudition from across the globe, showcases the different modalities from which issues, theories and debates on feminism and other gender-related polemics past, present and future could be considered. Dr Iks J Nwankwor, Editor, University of Uyo. Without mincing words, this book is a welcome intellectual assembly and has come out at the right time with deep critical insights and values for students, researchers and public and policy issues in both local and global prospects. Patrick Iroegbu, Ph.D., The Kpim Book Project Series Coordinator, Father Pantaleon Iroegbu Foundation Grant, MacEwan University. Korean Culture, 1984. Reading the Korean Cultural Landscape Je-Hun Ryu, Che-hŏn Yu, 2000. Cultural geography remains an uncommon field of study in Korea. However, Dr Ryu here demonstrates the extent of its usefulness as a tool in seeking a new vision. He adapts his deep experience in cultural geography to Korea with its long history of over 5 000 years and the complexity of its cultural phenomena. The author presents the many facets of the Korean landscape with religious, folk, linguistic, rural and urban aspects examined. This is a book that reveals many interesting dynamics within the urban and rural environment from the village to the town. Encyclopedia of Modern Asia David Levinson, Karen Christensen, 2002. Volume two of a six-volume set in which alphabetically arranged entries provide information on every aspect of modern Asia including its culture, people, economy, government, arts, geography, architecture, religion and history. Anthropos, 1986. The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1991.
