Shanghai Crucible Of Modern China:

Shanghai Betty Peh-T'i Wei,1988 Shanghai's Bund and Beyond Niv Horesh,2009-06-23 As China emerges as a global powerhouse this title examines its economic past and the shaping of its financial institutions Shanghai Yue-man Yeung,1996 As China s largest city best known for its pre eminent achievements in the early part of the twentieth century Shanghai grew modestly in comparison with southern China after the adoption of China s open policy in 1978 With the 1990 announcement of Pudong as an area for special development Shanghai has raced ahead seemingly on its way to an economic and cultural resurgence that is likely to accelerate development and modernization in the Yangzi Delta and China at large This volume focuses on the physical and socioeconomic transformation of Shanghai across a wide range of topics Drawing on the experience and expertise of researchers primarily in Hong Kong this study is a major contribution to the subject of economic development and social change in China It seeks to understand analyze and interpret how Shanghai has transformed itself in recent years Chinese Modern Xiaobing Tang,2000-04-03 An analysis of the Chinese experience of modernity through the literary works films and other cultural artifacts that represent it Cities of Jiangnan in Late Imperial China Linda Cooke Johnson,1993-07-01 This book examines cities of the Jiangnan region of south central China between the twelfth and nineteenth centuries an area considered to be the model of a successfully developing regional economy The six studies focus on the urban centers of Suzhou Hangzhou Yangzhou and Shanghai Emphasizing the regional focus the authors explore the interconnections and sequential relationships between these major cities and analyze common themes such as the development of handicraft industry transport and commerce class structure ethnic diversity and internal immigration and the social and political pressures generated by developments in manufacturing taxes and government politics The book provides a valuable resource on commercial development and internal economic and social development in pre modern China particularly on specific regional development and the historical role of traditional Chinese cities

Beyond the Neon Lights Hanchao Lu,2023-07-28 How did ordinary people live through the extraordinary changes that have swept across modern China How did peasants transform themselves into urbanites How did the citizens of Shanghai cope with the epic upheavals revolution war and again revolution that shook their lives Even after decades of scholarship devoted to modern Chinese history our understanding of the daily lives of the common people of China remains sketchy and incomplete In this carefully researched study Hanchao Lu weaves rich documentary data with ethnographic surveys and interviews to reconstruct the fabric of everyday life in China s largest and most complex city in the first half of this century How did ordinary people live through the extraordinary changes that have swept across modern China How did peasants transform themselves into urbanites How did the citizens of Shanghai cope with the epic upheavals revolution war and again revolution t Robert Hart and China's Early Modernization Richard Smith,John K. Fairbank,Katherine Bruner,2020-03-23 As the Ch ing government s Inspector General of the Maritime Customs Service Robert Hart was the most influential

Westerner in China for half a century These journal entries continue the sequence begun in Entering China's Service and cover the years when Hart was setting up Customs procedures establishing a modus operandi with the Chinese bureaucracy and inspecting the treaty ports They culminate in Hart's return visit to Europe with the Pin ch un Mission and his marriage in Northern Ireland Smith Fairbank and Bruner interleave the segments of Hart's journals with lively narratives describing the contemporary Chinese scene and recounting Hart's responses to the many challenges of establishing a Western style organization within a Chinese milieu The Selected Papers of Margaret Sanger, Volume 4 Margaret Sanger, 2016-10-01 When Margaret Sanger returned to Europe in 1920 World War I had altered the social landscape as dramatically as it had the map of Europe Population concerns sexuality venereal disease and contraceptive use had entered public discussion and Sanger's birth control message found receptive audiences around the world This volume focuses on Sanger from her groundbreaking overseas advocacy during the interwar years through her postwar role in creating the International Planned Parenthood Federation The documents reconstruct Sanger's dramatic birth control advocacy tours through early 1920s Germany Japan and China in the midst of significant government and religious opposition to her ideas They also trace her tireless efforts to build a global movement through international conferences and tours Letters journal entries writings and other records reveal Sanger's contentious dealings with other activists her correspondence with the likes of Albert Einstein and Eleanor Roosevelt and Sanger's own dramatic evolution from gritty grassroots activist to postwar power broker and diplomat A powerful documentary history of a transformative twentieth century figure The Selected Papers of Margaret Sanger Volume 4 is a primer for the debates on individual choice sex education and planned parenthood that remain all too pertinent in our own time International Handbook of Globalization and World Cities Ben Derudder, 2012-02-01 This Handbook offers an unrivalled overview of current research into how globalization is affecting the external relations and internal structures of major cities in the world By treating cities at a global scale it focuses on the stretching of urban functions beyond specific place locations without losing sight of the multiple divisions in contemporary world cities The book firmly bases city networks in their historical context critically discusses contemporary concepts and key empirical measures and analyses major issues relating to world city infrastructures economies governance and divisions The variety of urban outcomes in contemporary globalization is explored through detailed case studies Edited by leading scholars of the Globalization and World Cities GaWC Research Network and written by over 60 experts in the field the Handbook is a unique resource for students researchers and academics in urban and globalization studies as well as for city professionals in planning and policy Dangerous Tunes Barbara Mittler, 1997 Barbara Mittler's book is the first comprehensive monographic study of China's New Music written in a Western language It deals with two key points of contention the effects of politics on the development of Chinese New Music and the importance of China's indigenous musical traditions for the development of her New Music In many ways it is a handbook to New Chinese Music as it provides biographical and musicological sketches of the greater number of China's composers. As a reference work it will thus be of interest to libraries as well as to musicologists and music impresarios. The book is unique as a comparative study of New Chinese Music under three different political systems. Its conclusions, the discovery of and explanations for inherent similarities in those three New Musics, will be of interest to sinologists in the field of politics and cultural studies.
