Shankill Butchers The:

The Shankill Butchers Martin Dillon, 2024-11-01 During the 1970s a group of Protestant paramilitaries embarked on a spree of indiscriminate murder which left thirty Northern Irish Catholics dead Their leader was Lenny Murphy a fanatical Unionist whose Catholic sounding surname led to his persecution as a child for which he took revenge on all Catholics Not for the squeamish The Shankill Butchers is a horrifyingly detailed account of one of the most brutal series of murders in British legal history a phenomenon whose real nature has been obscured by the political and violent context from which it sprang

The Shankill Butchers Martin Dillon, 2009-11-24 The bestselling investigation of one of Northern Ireland's most brutal and infamous murder cases Makes for gripping but altogether terrifying reading Washington Times Dillon is recommended reading for anyone wishing to understand the complexities of British Irish politics He stands alone as one of the most creative writers of our time Irish Times _____ This was the ultimate way to kill a man In the 1970s in some of the most violent days of the Troubles in Northern Ireland a group of Protestant paramilitaries embarked on a spree of indiscriminate murder in the Shankill area of Belfast leaving thirty Catholics dead Their leader was Lenny Murphy a fanatical Unionist whose childhood was marked by sectarian violence Murphy swore revenge on all Catholics and with his gang wreaked havoc onto an already fractured city Not for the squeamish The Shankill Butchers is a horrifying and detailed account of one of the most brutal series of murders in the history of Northern Ireland a phenomenon whose real nature has been obscured by the troubled and violent context from which it sprang

God and the Gun Martin Dillon, 2014-06-23 In this astonishing and at times terrifying book acclaimed writer and political commentator Martin Dillon examines for the first time the true role of religion in the conflict in Northern Ireland He interviewed those directly involved terrorists like Kenny McClinton and Billy Wright and churchmen like Father Pat Buckley finding that the terrorists were more forthcoming than the priests and ministers Dillon charts the history of the paramilitary forces on both sides and exposes the shocking covert role of British intelligence He finds that ultimately both the church and government have failed their communities allowing men and women of violence to fill a vacuum with bigotry and violence

Memories of the Classical Underworld in Irish and Caribbean Literature Madeleine Scherer, 2021-09-20 Classical Memories is an intervention into the field of adaptation studies taking the example of classical reception to show that adaptation is a process that can be driven by and produce intertextual memories I see classical memories as a memory driven type of adaptation that draws on and reproduces schematic and otherwise decontextualised conceptions of antiquity and its cultural exports in broadly speaking the twentieth and twenty first centuries These memory driven adaptations differ often in significant ways from more traditional adaptations that seek to either continue or deconstruct a long running tradition that can be traced back to antiquity as well as its canonical points of reception in later ages When investigating such a popular and widespread set of narratives characters and images like those that remain of Graeco Roman antiquity terms like adaptation and reception could and should be nuanced further to allow us to understand the complex interactions between modern works and classical antiquity in more detail particularly when it pertains to postcolonial or post digital classical reception In Classical Memories I propose that understanding certain types of adaptations as intertextual memories allows us to do just that Tongue of Water, Teeth of Stones Jonathan Hufstader, 2014-10-17 In a 1984 lecture on poetry and political violence Seamus Heaney remarked that the idea of poetry was itself that higher ideal to which the poets had unconsciously turned in order to survive the demeaning conditions Jonathan Hufstader examines the work of Heaney and his contemporaries to discover how poems combining conscious technique with unconscious impulse work as aesthetic forms and as strategies for emotional survival In his powerful study Hufstader shows how a number of contemporary Northern Irish poets including Seamus Heaney Derek Mahon Michael Longley Paul Muldoon Tom Paulin Ciar n Carson and Medbh McGuckian explore the resources of language and poetic form in their various responses to cultural conflict and political violence Focusing on both style and social contexts Hufstader explores the tension between solidarity and art between the poet s need to belong and to rebel He believes that an understanding of the power of lyric points towards an understanding of the source of social violence and of its cessation

Northern Ireland: The Troubles Kenneth Lesley-Dixon, 2020-01-31 It is of course no secret that undercover Special Forces and intelligence agencies operated in Northern Ireland and the Republic throughout the troubles from 1969 to 2001 and beyond What is less well known is how these units were recruited how they operated what their mandate was and what they actually did This is the first account to reveal much of this hitherto unpublished information providing a truly unique record of surveillance reconnaissance intelligence gathering collusion and undercover combat An astonishing number of agencies were active to combat the IRA murder squads the Provos among others the Military Reaction Force MRF and the Special Reconnaissance Unit also known as the 14 Field Security and Intelligence Company The Det as well as MI5 Special Branch the RUC the UDR and the Force Research Unit FRU later the Joint Support Group JSG It deals with still contentious and challenging issues as shoot to kill murder squads the Disappeared and collusion with loyalists It examines the findings of the Stevens Cassel and De Silva reports and looks at operations Loughgall Andersonstown Gibraltar and others Crossing the Line Martin Dillon, 2017-09-04 In Crossing the Line former BBC journalist and best selling author Martin Dillon recalls his courageous journalistic career spent on the edge during the worst years of the modern Troubles Following his childhood on Belfast s Falls Road and his wandering teenage years Dillon s move into the world of journalism was soon to lead him down paths of extreme danger putting himself in harm s way to reveal the shocking truths of the emerging conflict in his native city His extraordinary story reveals encounters with a roll call of major political figures paramilitaries and Irish literary greats Dillon s memoir is as compelling as it is incisive a riot of revelations on the political and sectarian conflict that rocked Belfast during the 1970s and 80s Dillon s aptitude and ambition gave him unparalleled access to the worlds of politics sectarian violence literature and media Crossing the Line exposes the complex and oftentimes devastating thread that joins them
