The Shape of My Eyes Dave Gibbons, 2024-07-23 A riveting and touching memoir about the understanding one's cultural identity from pastor business leader and innovator Dave Gibbons Makoto Fujimura A surprising diagnosis of PTSD led Dave Gibbons to look to his past for clues to explain the unexpected result Born to an American soldier and a Korean mother in the wake of the Korean War Dave has spent his life struggling to blend his Korean roots and his American upbringing The family joins a conservative church that embraces a strict rule based faith and they try to navigate life as one of the few mixed raced families in their community But when tragedy strikes tearing the family apart Dave is forced to face long buried secrets that he can no longer ignore As he explores his family's difficult past he confronts his own pain and the persistent feelings of not quite fitting in either in America or his mother's home country And when a DNA test ultimately reveals a truth that shatters everything he understood about his history he is forced to confront the traumas he unknowingly carried The Shape of My Eyes beautifully weaves historic reference points of the oppression and discrimination against Asian Americans with Dave's own personal story Dave's wrestling with belonging in his family in America and in the church creates a raw thought provoking memoir about race religion and finding home The Conservator, 1908 Take Care of Them Like My Own Ala Stanford, 2024-08-06 The founder of the Black Doctors Consortium highlights the devastating racial injustices in our healthcare system in this inspirational memoir and empowering call to action Dr Ala Stanford knew she wanted to be a doctor by the time she was eight years old But role models were few and far between in her working class North Philly neighborhood Her teachers were dismissive and the realities of racism sexism and poverty threatened to derail her at every turn Nevertheless thanks to her faith family and the sheer strength of her will today she is one of the vanishingly small number of Black women surgeons in America and an unrelenting force in the fight for health justice In Take Care of Them Like My Own Dr Stanford shares an unflinching account of her story explaining how her experiences on both sides of the scalpel have informed her understanding of America's racial health gap an insidious and lethal form of inequality that exacts a devastating toll on Black communities across the country affluent and underserved alike When Covid 19 arrived in her hometown of Philadelphia she knew it would disproportionately affect the Black population As the city stood idly by unwilling or unable to protect its most vulnerable citizens Dr Stanford took matters into her own hands She rented a van made some calls and began administering tests in church parking lots Soon she found herself at the helm of a powerful grassroots campaign that successfully vaccinated tens of thousands of Philadelphians She and her movement are living proof that by drawing on faith community and inner strength everyday people can affect tremendous change Part memoir part manifesto for health equality and justice Take Care of Them Like My Own offers urgent lessons about the power of communities working together to take care of one another and the importance of fighting for a healthcare system that truly fulfills its promise to all Americans Sex Dolls at Sea Bo Ruberg, 2022-06-14 Investigating and reimagining the origin story of the sex doll through the tale of the sailor s dames de voyage The sex doll and its high tech counterpart the sex robot have gone mainstream as both the object of consumer desire and the subject of academic study But sex dolls and sexual technology in general are nothing new Sex dolls have been around for centuries In Sex Dolls at Sea Bo Ruberg explores the origin story of the sex doll investigating its cultural implications and considering who has been marginalized and who has been privileged in the narrative Ruberg examines the generally accepted story that the first sex dolls were dames de voyage rudimentary figures made of cloth and leather scraps by European sailors on long lonely ocean voyages in centuries past In search of supporting evidence for the lonesome sailor sex doll theory Ruberg uncovers the real history of the sex doll The earliest commercial sex dolls were not the dames de voyage but the femmes en caoutchouc women made of inflatable vulcanized rubber beginning in the late nineteenth century Interrogating the sailor sex doll origin story Ruberg finds beneath the surface a web of issues relating to gender sexuality race and colonialism What has been lost in the history of the sex doll and other sex tech Ruberg tells us are the stories of the sex workers women queer people and people of color whose lives have been bound up with these technologies

Tristimania Jay Griffiths, 2016-05-16 There are galaxies within the human mind, and madness wants to risk everything for the daring flight, reckless and beautiful and crazed. Everyone knows Icarus fell. But I love him for the fact that he dared to fly. Mania unfurls the invitation to fly too high, too near the sun. Tristimania is a stark and lyrical account of the psyche in crisis. It tells the story of a devastating year-long episode of manic depression culminating in a long solo pilgrimage across Spain. The book is rare in recording the experience of mania and shows how the condition is at once terrifying and also profoundly creative, both tricking and treating the psyche. In exploring its literary influence, Griffiths looks at Shakespeare's work and examines the Trickster role tracing its mercuriality through the character of Mercury An intimate raw journey the book illuminates something of the universal human spirit
